Not sure if he has been made aware of the proposed motion. I only received s 22 email a few minutes ago.
I will send to Joe, s 22 and Louise
Regards
Tim

Business of the Senate—Notice of motion

Notice given 25 October 2022

*1 Chair of the Economics References Committee (Senator Bragg): To move—

That the following matter be referred to the Economics References Committee for inquiry and report by the last sitting day in June 2024:

The capacity and capability of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission to undertake proportionate investigation and enforcement action arising from reports of alleged misconduct, with particular reference to:

(a) the potential for dispute resolution and compensation schemes to distort efficient market outcomes and regulatory action;

(b) the balance in policy settings that deliver an efficient market but also effectively deter poor behaviour;

(c) whether ASIC is meeting the expectations of government, business and the community with respect to regulatory action and enforcement;

(d) the range and use of various regulatory tools and their effectiveness in contributing to good market outcomes;

(e) the offences from which penalties can be considered and the nature of liability in these offences;

(f) the resourcing allocated to ensure investigations and enforcement action progresses in a timely manner;

(g) opportunities to reduce duplicative regulation; and

(h) any other related matters.
