Good evening colleagues and with apologies for the very late provision of this information. Enclosed are two slides that set out ASIC's enforcement priorities (those enduring issues, and those for 2023 specifically) that I will be speaking to in my opening comments in our panel tomorrow.

Not for further circulation please.

Can the ASIC team please make sure that these are ready to go for the session tomorrow, I'm hoping to be able to give a prompt as to when I want the first slide brought up, which will be a few minutes into my remarks.

Kind regards, Sarah Court

I hope this does not disrupt the flow of our session too much, but on further reflection I've decided it is likely to work better for me to present my first 10 minutes or so on ASIC's enforcement approach and priorities from a lecturn, and then join the panel discussion. Given I have two slides to present (I will circulate tomorrow for info), and I have some prepared remarks, I hope you are all comfortable with that approach. Of course let me know if you are not!
