Dear Sir / Madam,

The Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC) has received information concerning a cold calling scam operating under the name of First World Registrars. After conducting further inquiries, ASIC confirms that First World Registrars is an unlicensed foreign entity that has made unsolicited calls to Australian victims to convince them to invest in non-existent financial products. Victims are then directed to deposit funds into identified foreign bank accounts. Details of the bank accounts are listed below.

Account: 494788476159
Bank: DBS Bank (Hong Kong) Ltd
SWIFT Code: DBSSHKHH

Beneficiary: Sanderstead Consultants

ASIC has formed the view that First World Registrars' operations constitute a cold-calling scam. ASIC is aware that Australian investors have been induced to provide funds by the convincing telephone calls and associated websites used by the operators of these scams.

ASIC has added the details of First World Registrars to its public list of "unlicensed overseas callers and fake regulators" located at www.moneysmart.gov.au. You may access this list at the following specific address: http://www.moneysmart.gov.au/scams/companies-you-should-not-deal-with

Action Required

ASIC is seeking to prevent further transfers being made to these scams by Australian investors. To prevent further clients from falling victim to these operators, ASIC recommends that your financial institution establish a process whereby any future fund transfer requests to the account identified above are immediately detected and blocked.

Further, and importantly, you may wish to undertake internal searches to identify any clients that may have transferred funds into the above bank account and contact them directly, to bring to their attention the issues raised above and notify them that ASIC considers First World Registrars to be part of an international scam and that no further funds should be forwarded to the account.
