Australian Securities and Investments Commission Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraphs 911A(2)(l), 992B(1)(a), 1020F(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(b) — Exemptions

Enabling legislation

1. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes this instrument under paragraphs 911A(2)(l), 992B(1)(a), 1020F(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act).

Title

2. This instrument is ASIC Instrument 12-0109.

Commencement

3. This instrument commences on gazettal.

Exemption

4. ASIC exempts Discovery Metals Limited ACN 104 924 423 (the Issuer) from Part 7.9 of the Act where the Issuer:
 - (a) makes an eligible offer; or
 - (b) offers to arrange for the issue of financial products under an eligible offer; or
 - (c) issues a financial product under an eligible offer.
5. ASIC exempts a financial product that is the subject of an eligible offer from Part 7.9 of the Act where:
 - (a) a recommendation is made (by a person other than the Issuer) that a person to whom an eligible offer has been made acquire the financial product as a retail client; and
 - (b) the person who made the recommendation is not aware, and ought not reasonably to be aware, that any of the conditions set out in this instrument have not been met.
6. ASIC exempts the Issuer from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a financial service consisting of general advice reasonably given in connection with an eligible offer covered by paragraph 4 of this instrument (including any general advice given in the offer document) where the offer document for the offer includes a statement to the effect that any advice given by the Issuer in connection with the offer is general advice only, and that eligible employees should consider obtaining their own financial product advice from an independent person who is licensed by ASIC to give such advice.

7. ASIC exempts:

- (a) the Issuer; and
- (b) any related body corporate of the Issuer,

from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of the following financial services:

- (c) the provision of a custodial or depository service in connection with an eligible offer covered by paragraph 4 of this instrument where the provider of the service performs their duties in good faith and has sufficient resources to perform those duties; and
- (d) dealing in a financial product in the course of providing a custodial or depository service covered by paragraph (c); and
- (e) dealing in a financial product in connection with an eligible offer covered by paragraph 4 of this instrument where any acquisition by purchase or disposal of the product (by the Issuer or a related body corporate) occurs either:
 - (i) through a person who holds an Australian financial services licence authorising the holder to deal in a financial product; or
 - (ii) outside this jurisdiction and through a person who is licensed or otherwise authorised to deal in financial products in the relevant place.

8. ASIC exempts the Issuer from section 992A of the Act in relation to eligible offers covered by paragraph 4 of this instrument made in the course of, or because of, unsolicited meetings or telephone calls reasonably held or made in connection with the eligible offer.

Where this instrument applies

9. This instrument applies on the conditions set out below and for so long as the conditions are met.

Conditions

10. The Issuer must ensure that the eligible offer is substantially on the terms set out in the Rules of the Plan.
11. The Issuer must:
- (a) include the offer in an offer document; and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that any eligible employee to whom the offer is made is given a copy of the offer document; and
 - (c) provide to ASIC a copy of the offer document (which need not contain details of the offer particular to the employee such as the identity or entitlement of the employee) and of each accompanying document not later than 7 days after the first provision of that material to an employee; and

12. the Issuer must comply with any undertaking required to be made in the offer document by reason of this instrument; and
13. the Issuer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the number of shares to be issued on vesting of a Performance Right when aggregated with:
 - (a) the number of shares in the same class which would be issued were each outstanding offer with respect to shares, units of shares and options to acquire unissued shares, under an employee share scheme, or like scheme (including the Plan) to be accepted, vested or exercised; and
 - (b) the number of shares in the same class issued during the previous 5 years pursuant to any employee share scheme, or like scheme (including the Plan) extended only to eligible employees of the Issuer;

but disregarding any offer made, or option acquired, or share issued by way of or as a result of:

- (c) an offer to a person situated at the time of receipt of the offer outside this jurisdiction; or
- (d) an offer that did not need disclosure to investors because of section 708; or
- (e) an offer that did not require the giving of a Product Disclosure Statement because of section 1012D of the Act; or
- (f) an offer made under a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement, does not exceed 5% of the total number of issued shares in that class of the Issuer as at the time of the offer.

Note: where a document must be provided in writing it may be provided by electronic means. See s5C of the Act and s25 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Interpretation

Title

2. This instrument is ASIC Instrument [12-0114].

Commencement

3. This instrument commences on the date of its gazettal.

Exemptions

4. M Payments Pty Ltd ACN 126 015 227 (MPayments), who provides financial services in relation to a Combined Facility, does not have to comply with subsection 911A(1), section 992A and Part 7.9 of the Act in relation to those financial services.
5. The exemptions in paragraph 4 are not available to MPayments if it does not comply with the conditions in paragraph 6 or 7.

Conditions

6. MPayments must take reasonable steps to ensure all of the following are satisfied:
 - (a) before or at the time the Combined Facility is offered to a person as a retail client, the person is given a written document (the disclosure document) which sets out the terms and conditions of the Combined Facility and separately sets out in a prominent manner:
 - (i) information about whether any of the terms and conditions of the facility may be unilaterally varied by the issuer and a statement of how a person (the client) who holds the Combined Facility may get information about the new terms and conditions;
 - (ii) information about whether there is a date (the expiry date) after which the Combined Facility cannot be used for the making of non-cash payments (regardless of whether there is an amount standing to the credit of the facility at the end of the relevant day) and information about where the expiry date may be found out;

- (iii) information about the procedures for dealing with any unauthorised or mistaken transactions relating to the Combined Facility or the loss or theft of the device (if any) referred to in subparagraph (c)(i);
 - (iv) fees or charges for acquiring and using the Combined Facility and where any such fees or charges are subject to change during the life of the Combined Facility, a statement of how the client may get information about the new fees or charges;
 - (v) the name and contact details of MPayments, as the issuer of the Combined Facility;
 - (vi) information about the internal dispute resolution processes relevant to each facility component of the Combined Facility and how they can be accessed by a client;
- (b) the disclosure document is worded and presented in a clear, concise and effective manner;
- (c) where the Combined Facility is subject to an expiry date:
- (i) if the client is provided with a physical device to use the Combined Facility — the expiry date is prominently set out on the device in a manner that makes it clear that it is an expiry date;
 - (ii) otherwise — the expiry date is set out in the disclosure document or in a written statement that is attached to the disclosure document;
- (d) a convenient means is available, that involves no charge by the issuer or the associates of the issuer, for the client to do all of the following:
- (i) check the amount standing to the credit of the Combined Facility;
 - (ii) if subparagraph (c)(ii) applies — check any relevant expiry date that applies to the Combined Facility;
 - (iii) obtain at reasonable intervals a record of the past 10 transactions (or such transactions that have occurred) under the Combined Facility;
- (e) if the terms and conditions of the Combined Facility are unilaterally varied, or the fees or charges for using the Combined Facility are changed during the life of the Combined Facility:
- (i) a statement setting out the effect of the variation or change is displayed in a clear and prominent notice at each place of business where the Combined Facility may be acquired in an area that is accessible to the public;

- (ii) information about the variation or change is made available to the client in accordance with the statement in subparagraph 6(a)(i) or 6(a)(iv);
 - (iii) the new terms and conditions or fees and charges are made available to the client on request at each place of business where the Combined Facility may be acquired; and
 - (iv) if the issuer makes available information about the Combined Facility on an Internet website — information about the variation or change, and the new terms and conditions or fees and charges are made available on the website in a manner reasonably likely to come to the attention of persons seeking information about the Combined Facility;
- (f) if a Combined Facility is issued to a person as a retail client, the issuer maintains adequate internal dispute resolution processes in accordance with the Australian Standard on Complaints Handling (AS ISO 10002-2006) as at 5 April 2006;
7. MPayments gives ASIC notice in writing when the Combined Facility ceases to be a low value non-cash payment facility.

 - (ii) state prominently that if:
 - (A) members who together hold at least 5% of the total value of the interests held by members; or
 - (B) 100 members,

who would be entitled to vote if the proposal were put as a proposed resolution to a meeting of members under paragraph (1)(a), ask for a vote on the choice of the proposed responsible entity by giving written notice received by the responsible entity within 21 days from the date the notice is sent, the responsible entity will either arrange a postal vote or convene a meeting to vote on a resolution for the choice of the proposed responsible entity; and
 - (iii) be accompanied by a form which can be ticked to ask for a vote; and
 - (iv) state prominently a reply paid address of the responsible entity to which the form may be sent.
- (c) The responsible entity must prominently disclose on its website current information about the proposed timing of the retirement of the responsible entity and the manner in which that retirement will occur.

- (d) If sufficient members ask for a vote in accordance with the notice, the responsible entity must arrange for a postal vote or, if the responsible entity chooses, convene a meeting in accordance with Part 2G.4 to vote on the choice of the proposed responsible entity as soon as possible.
- (e) If there is a postal vote:
- (i) a voting paper must be sent to each member stating a reply paid address of the responsible entity to which the voting paper may be sent; and
 - (ii) the responsible entity must notify the members in, or in a document accompanying, the voting paper that:
 - (A) the proposed responsible entity will be chosen as the new responsible entity if at least 50% of the total votes that may be cast by members that would be eligible to vote at a meeting under paragraph (1)(a) are cast in favour of the choice; and
 - (B) only votes received by the responsible entity within 28 days after the sending of the voting paper will be counted.
- (f) If a meeting is convened the resolution to choose the new responsible entity must be an extraordinary resolution if the scheme is not listed.”;
- (c) after subsection (2) insert:
- “(2A) If a postal vote is arranged under paragraph (1A)(d) and at least 50% of the total votes that may be cast by members that would be eligible to vote at a meeting under paragraph (1)(a) are cast in favour of the proposed responsible entity, that entity is taken for the purposes of subsection (2) to have been chosen by a resolution of members on the last day on which postal votes may be received in order to be counted.
- (2B) If:

12-0134

- (a) a related body corporate is proposed to be the new responsible entity in accordance with subsection (1A); and
- (b) insufficient members ask for a vote to choose the entity in accordance with the notice referred to in paragraph (1A)(b); and
- (c) the entity has consented in writing to becoming the scheme's responsible entity, then:

- (d) as soon as practicable and in any event within 2 business days after the end of the period in which a member may ask for such a vote, the current responsible entity must lodge a notice with ASIC asking it to alter the record of the scheme's registration to name the proposed responsible entity as the scheme's responsible entity; and
- (e) the notice must be accompanied by a certificate from the current responsible entity that it reasonably considers that the appointment of the proposed responsible entity would be in the best interests of members with a summary of the responsible entity's reasons as to why this is the case."

Where this declaration applies

- 5. This declaration applies where UBS Global Asset Management (Australia) Ltd ACN 003 146 290 has consented in writing to becoming the new responsible entity of the scheme.
- 6. This declaration ceases to apply on 27 April 2012.
