PART 9.4AA OF THE CORPORATIONS ACT
INFRINGEMENT NOTICE

To: BioProspect Limited
Suite 4, Level 1
50 Bourke Street
MELBOURNE VIC 3000

TAKE NOTICE: The Australian Securities & Investment Commission (ASIC) hereby issues an Infringement Notice to BioProspect Limited ACN 008 130 336 (BioProspect) pursuant to s1317DAC(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act).

This Infringement Notice requires BioProspect to pay a penalty to ASIC, on behalf of the Commonwealth, in the sum of $33,000 (the Penalty).

This Infringement Notice is issued on 6 February 2012.

DETAILS OF THE ALLEGED CONTRAVENTIONThe Facts

On 1 March 2011, BioProspect and Frontier Gasfields Pty Ltd (Frontier) entered into a Heads of Agreement (the Agreement) setting out the principal terms and conditions under which BioProspect would subscribe for shares in Frontier for a 25% equity in Frontier and under which BioProspect would have an option to acquire an additional 50% equity in Frontier (Frontier Investment).

On 3 March 2011, BioProspect made an announcement to the ASX about the Frontier Investment entitled "BioProspect Limited (ASX:BioProspect) makes Investment In a Suite of World Class Oil and Gas Assets" (the 3 March Announcement) which contained the following statements:

Frontier's portfolio comprises a suite of world class oil and gas assets in the Philippines and China including:

- Gas recovery joint venture on the Shengli Oilfield, the second largest oilfield in China with some 24,000 operating wells producing 700,000 barrels of oil per day. It has published proven oil reserves in excess of 30 billion barrels and substantial known and proven gas reserves which are currently being flared;
- SC 55 which sits centrally on trend with a major new oil and gas fairway, stemming from the Giant/Super Giant discoveries made by

12-0300

Murphy Oil and Shell/ConocoPhillips through to the Malampaya Gas/Oil complex. BHP recently secured an option to farm into the majority of SC55 by sole funding, two ultra-deep water exploration wells at an estimated cost of $US 160 million ...

BioProspect's Managing Director, Charles Pellegrino, ... went on to say that "the opportunity to participate in the drilling of a billion barrel oil exploration well with BHP and the commercialisation of gas gathering on China's largest onshore oil fields made a compelling investment case".

Frontier projects

Frontier is a privately owned Australian incorporated oil and gas exploration, development and production company. The company has interests in three oil and gas concessions or SC's (Service Contracts) in the Philippines, comprising SC52, SC55 and SC69, and a substantial gas recovery project in China's Shengli Oilfield.

SC55 (Frontier 5%) is located in deep waters of the South China Sea ... Leading resources company BHP Billiton recently exercised a "farm-in option" (the right to acquire an interest) over the block ... Frontier has secured the right to back in to 5% of the concession, at any time, up to 150 days after completion of the first well.

Shengli Oilfield, China. (Frontier 34.3%) Through subsidiary Frontier Gas (Singapore) Pte Ltd, Frontier has an operating Joint Venture with leading Chinese oilfield engineering, equipment and production utility, Shengli Oilfield Freet Petroleum Equipment Co. Ltd. The Joint Venture (referred to as Shengli Freet Frontier Gas Company Limited) is initially concentrating on gas recovery and production from the Shengli Oilfield, including extracting gas which otherwise would be vented into the atmosphere.

The Shengli oilfield ... is the second largest in China with some 24,000 operating wells producing around 700,000 barrels of oil per day. It has published proven oil reserves of 4.63 billion tonnes (in excess of 30 billion barrels) and substantial known and proven gas reserves.

The statements in the 3 March Announcement implied that:

- (i) Frontier had rights to oil at the Shengli Oilfield;
- (ii) Frontier had a 5% interest in SC55, or at the very least, Frontier had an agreement with the operator of SC55 to back-in to 5% upon payment of 5% of the costs; and

- (iii) BHP had exercised its farm-in option in respect of SC55, and as a result Frontier would have a relationship with BHP in respect of SC55.

The implication that Frontier had rights to oil at the Shengli Oilfield was misleading. Frontier's interest in the Shengli Oilfield was limited to a gas recovery project, which project was still at a pilot stage.

The implication that Frontier had a 5% interest in SC55, or at the very least, Frontier had an agreement with the operator of SC55 to back-in to 5% upon payment of 5% of the costs was misleading. Frontier had no interest in SC55. All Frontier had was an option under the SC55 Option Agreement to acquire a 5% interest that Trans-Asia Oil and Energy Development Corporation (Trans-Asia) had an option to acquire. Frontier's ability to exercise the option depended upon Trans-Asia electing to exercise its option and on the fulfilment of a number of future events and payments. A reference to an entity's right to "back-in" to a project is understood to mean that if the entity pays an agreed percentage of the expended costs, the entity acquires that percentage interest in the project. In order for Frontier to acquire the 5% interest in SC55, it was required to make two payments of US$3.5 million each in addition to a payment of 5% of the drilling costs of the exploration well. The 5% drilling costs of the exploration well was estimated to be US$6 million, making the total cost to Frontier of acquiring the 5% interest in SC55 at least US$13 million.

The implication that BHP had exercised its farm-in option was misleading. BHP had not then exercised its farm-in option.

When it made the 3 March Announcement, BioProspect was aware of the following information concerning Frontier:

- (a) Frontier had no rights as to oil extraction or exploitation on, or from, the Shengli Oilfield except that which may be recovered by way of a by-product of any gas capture or production;
- (b) Frontier had not conducted an independent field audit on, or evaluation of the size and/potential of the Shengli Oilfield either for oil or gas;
- (c) Frontier had no interest in SC55 governing an exploration tenement in an offshore oil field in the Philippines;
- (d) Trans-Asia held an interest in SC55. The majority interest in SC55 was held by Otto Energy Limited (Otto). Trans-Asia had an option to acquire an additional 5% interest in SC55 from Otto. Frontier had entered into an option agreement with Trans-Asia to acquire from Trans-Asia the 5% interest in SC55 which Trans-Asia had the option to acquire (the SC55 Option Agreement);
- (e) Frontier's ability to exercise the option under the SC55 Option Agreement depended on the fulfilment of a number of future events and payments including:
 - (i) Trans-Asia electing to exercise its option;
 - (ii) the completion of the drilling of an exploration well;

4

12-0300

- (iii) the payment by Trans-Asia to Otto of 5% of the drilling costs;
 - (iv) the reimbursement by Frontier to Trans-Asia of Trans-Asia's payment of 5% of drilling costs of the exploration well to Otto;
 - (v) a payment by Frontier to Trans-Asia of US$3.5m within 60 days of the payment of the 5% of the drilling costs;
 - (vi) a further payment by Frontier to Trans-Asia of US$3.5m within 150 days from the date of the payment of the 5% of the drilling costs;
- (f) Frontier had no relationship with BHP in respect of SC55,

(the Information).

At 9:26 am on 7 March 2011, BioProspect released an announcement to the ASX entitled "Re: BioProspect (ASX:BioProspect) Announcement 3 March 2011 'BioProspect Limited (ASX:BioProspect) makes Investment in a Suite of World Class Oil and Gas Assets'" (the 7 March Announcement), clarifying the 3 March Announcement.
