Corporations Act 2001 – Section 250PAB(4) – Exemption

Enabling legislation

1. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes this instrument under subsection 250PAB (4) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act).

Title

2. This instrument is ASIC Instrument 13-0090.

Commencement

3. This instrument commences on 25 January 2013.

Order

4. ASIC exempts Autodom Limited (Administrators Appointed) (Receivers and Managers Appointed) ACN 009 123 782 (the Company) from section 250N of the Act in relation to the annual general meeting of the Company for the financial year ending 30 June 2012.

Where this order applies

5. The administrators have, at least 28 days before but not more than 2 months before the latest date an annual general meeting of the Company would have been required to be held, provided a declaration to ASIC, and have not revoked that declaration, that the administrators have reasonably formed the opinion that the members of the Company do not have an ongoing economic interest in the Company.
6. The Company must maintain arrangements for answering, free of charge, reasonable enquiries from its members about the consequences of the external administration of the Company while the Company remains under administration.
7. The Company must on or around the date of this instrument notify ASX of the effect of this instrument.

Interpretation:

In this instrument:

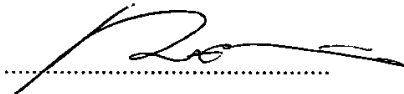

administration means the administration of the Company beginning when the administrator was appointed to the Company under section 436A of the Act on 3 November 2012.

administrator means the administrator appointed to the Company under section 436A of the Act on 3 November 2012.

ongoing economic interest means, in relation to the members of a company:

- (a) that the monetary value of, or rate of return for, each share in the company is, or is likely to be, more than nominal; or
- (b) that the company is likely to cease being externally administered and to carry on business under the control of the directors.
