Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) – Declaration

Under paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C applies to MLC Investments Limited ACN 002 641 661 in its capacity as responsible entity of Capital Stable (Multi-Manager) Fund ARSN 113 566 895 until 30 June 2005, as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6) and (7), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6) and (7), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):

"(5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal from the scheme where the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated:

- (a) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
- (b) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.

(6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:

- (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
- (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount:
 - (i) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
 - (ii) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.

(7) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for any initial service charge that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme provided that:

- (a) the constitution states the maximum amount of initial service charge that will be charged to acquire an interest in the scheme;
- (b) each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of initial service charge that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme;
- (c) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of initial service charge that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme.

(8) In this section:

initial service charge means the fee (if any) that must be paid to the responsible entity to acquire an interest in the scheme, which is determined by the responsible entity and does not exceed 6% of the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme;

information memorandum means a document provided to wholesale clients, as defined in section 761G, in connection with the offer to issue, offer to arrange for the issue or the issue of interests in the scheme; and transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met."

Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraphs 911A(2)(l) and 1020F(1)(a) — Exemption

1. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the "Act"), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") exempts, until 30 June 2005, the person referred to in Schedule A from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for dealing in, and providing financial product advice in relation to, the financial product referred to in Schedule B in the case referred to in Schedule C on the conditions set out in Schedule D and for so long as those conditions are met.
2. Under paragraph 1020F(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts, until 30 June 2005, the person referred to in Schedule A from Part 7.9 of the Act in relation to the financial product referred to in Schedule B in the case referred to in Schedule C on the conditions set out in Schedule D and for so long as those conditions are met.

Schedule A

GET Passport to Rewards Pty Ltd ACN 106 069 925 ("Issuer").

Schedule B

A facility through which, or through the acquisition of which, a client makes non-cash payments that is constituted by, or is a component of, the Passport to Rewards loyalty programme ("Scheme").

Schedule C

Where at all times:

- (a) the Scheme provides benefits to clients based on the clients' use of, or expenditure on, the goods or services of participating merchants or is reasonably likely to promote spending on the goods or services of participating merchants; and
- (b) the Scheme includes a reward redemption facility whereby:
 - (i) clients are allocated credits as a result of using, or spending on, the goods or services of participating merchants; and
 - (ii) the credits allocated to a client can be used by the client for a reward redemption; and
- (c) clients are not able to make a cash contribution in exchange for credits except where:
 - (i) they are making a reward redemption; and

- (ii) the amount of credits exchanged for cash does not exceed 20% of the credits used for the reward redemption; and
 - (iii) the credits exchanged for cash are immediately used for the reward redemption; and
- (d) the Issuer has adequate resources and arrangements in place to reasonably ensure clients making a reward redemption are able to obtain the reward they are seeking to obtain as and when they make reward redemptions under the Scheme.

Schedule D

The Issuer must:

1. establish and maintain an internal dispute resolution system that complies as far as practicable with the Australian Standard on Complaints Handling AS4269-1995 that covers complaints made in connection with a dealing in, or the provision of financial product advice in relation to, the Scheme, or use of the Scheme; and
2. ensure that any monies paid to the Issuer, on account of any amount that may be payable to a participating merchant for the provision of goods or services or for a reward redemption under the Scheme, is paid as soon as practicable to, and held in, an account with an Australian ADI designated as a trust account until:
 - (a) the Issuer is required to use the money to discharge the obligation to the participating merchant; or
 - (b) in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Scheme, the Issuer is no longer required to use the money to discharge the obligation to the participating merchant; and
3. at or before making an offer to a person to participate in the Scheme, provide the person a written document ("disclosure document") which sets out, in a manner that is clear, concise and effective, the following statements and such of the following information as the person would reasonably require in order to assess the merits and risks of participating in the Scheme:
 - (a) a statement setting out the name, principal place of business and registered office of the Issuer; and
 - (b) information about:
 - (i) the cost of participating in the Scheme; and
 - (ii) any other amounts that will or may be payable by the person in respect of the Scheme, and the times at which those amounts will or may be payable; and
 - (d) information about any other significant characteristics or features of the Scheme and of the rights, terms, conditions and obligations attaching to the Scheme; and
 - (e) information about the dispute resolution system that covers complaints by clients and how that system may be accessed; and
 - (f) if the Issuer makes other information relating to the Scheme available to clients or prospective clients, or to persons more generally – a statement of how that information may be accessed; and
4. where the terms or conditions of the Scheme include a term or condition that:

- (a) the Issuer may unilaterally vary the terms or conditions of the Scheme; or
 - (b) there is an expiry date by which the person can use their credits to make a reward redemption;
- ensure that those terms or conditions are set out in a prominent manner in the disclosure document; and
5. where a person is a client at the date of this instrument, the Issuer must:
 - (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this instrument, make available on its Internet website the disclosure document, in a manner reasonably likely to come to the attention of a person seeking information about the Scheme on that site; and
 - (b) on the next practicable date when the Issuer provides any other written material to the client, provide the disclosure document to the client; and
 6. give written notice to clients of any proposed material change to the terms and conditions of the Scheme, and of any proposal by the Issuer to withdraw the Scheme, at least 30 days before the change or withdrawal takes effect; and
 7. establish and maintain a means by which the client can readily, and without cost to the client, find out the credits available to the client that can be used by the client to make a reward redemption under the Scheme; and
 8. provide any information in writing as and when requested by ASIC in relation to the Scheme, within 20 business days of any such request.

Interpretation

In this instrument:

client means a person who is a participant in the Scheme;

credits in relation to the Scheme, includes credits, points, tokens, certificates, vouchers and electronic cash (whether or not they have been attributed a monetary value) that can be used under the Scheme for making a reward redemption;

financial product advice has the meaning given by subsection 766B(1) of the Act;

makes non-cash payments has the meaning given by section 763D of the Act;

offer has a meaning affected by subsection 1010C(2) of the Act;

participating merchant means a person who provides goods or services which under the Scheme may be used or purchased by a client to obtain credits;

reward means a good or service, or a discount on a good or service, or another thing of use or benefit to a client; and reward redemption means use of credits by a client to make payment, or cause payments to be made, for a reward.

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Subsection 741(1) – Exemption and Declaration

Under subsection 741(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act"), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") hereby:

- (1) exempts Brandrill Limited ACN 061 845 529 ("Issuer") from Parts 6D.2 and 6D.3 of the Act (other than sections 736 and 738) in the case referred to in Schedule A; and
- (2) declares that Chapter 6D applies to the Issuer in the case specified in Schedule B as if section 707 of the Act were modified or varied by omitting subsections 707(3) and (4) and substituting:
 - “(3) An offer of a body's securities for sale within 12 months after their issue needs disclosure to investors under this Part if the body issued the securities:
 - (a) without disclosure to investors under this Part; and
 - (b) with the purpose of the person to whom they were issued:
 - (i) selling or transferring them; or
 - (ii) granting, issuing or transferring interests in, or options or warrants over, them;and section 708 or 708A does not say otherwise.
- (4) Unless the contrary is proved, a body is taken to issue securities with the purpose referred to in paragraph 3(b) if any of the securities are subsequently sold, or offered for sale, within 12 months after their issue.”.

Schedule A

A written offer for the issue of shares in the Issuer where the following requirements are met at the time that the offer is made.

- (a) The shares are in a class which is quoted on the financial market operated by Australian Stock Exchange Limited (the “class”) and trading in the class is not suspended.

0 5 / 0 3 3 6

- (b) None of the following provisions of the Act have been contravened in relation to the Issuer in the previous 12 months:
- (i) a provision of Chapter 2M, other than the Issuer's contravention of section 295 of the Act in respect of which ASIC issued a no-action letter on 31 January 2005;
 - (ii) section 674 or 675;
 - (iii) section 724;
 - (iv) section 728; and
 - (v) section 1001A or 1001B.
- (c) The offer is made pursuant to an arrangement under which:
- (i) an offer is made to each registered holder of shares in the class, and whose address (as recorded in the register of members) is in a place in which it is lawful and practical for the Issuer to offer and issue shares to that person, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer;
 - (ii) each offer is made on the same terms and conditions and on a non-renounceable basis;
 - (iii) the issue price is less than the market price during a specified period in the 30 days prior to either the date of the offer or the date of the issue;
 - (iv) no registered holder may be issued with shares or interests with an application price totalling more than $5,000 in any consecutive 12 month period; and
 - (v) a registered holder must provide the Issuer on application for the shares or interests with a certification to the effect that the aggregate of the application price for:
 - (A) the shares the subject of the application; and
 - (B) any other shares in the class applied for by the holder under the arrangement or any similar arrangement in the 12 months prior to the application,does not exceed $5000.
- (d) The written offer document contains the following information:
- (i) the method used to calculate the issue price and the time when this price will be determined;

05 / 0336

- (ii) a statement describing the relationship between the issue price and the market price; and
- (iii) disclosure of the risk that the market price may change between the date of the offer and the date when the shares are issued to an applicant under the arrangement, and the effect this would have on the price or value of the shares which the applicant would receive.

Schedule B

The securities were issued without disclosure to investors under Part 6D.2 because the Issuer relied on this instrument of relief.

Interpretation

For the purposes of this instrument:

1. “registered holder” means, subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, a person recorded in the register of members of a company as a member of that company;
2. if 2 or more persons are recorded in the register of members as jointly holding shares in the company they are taken to be a single registered holder and a certification by any of them for the purposes of paragraph (c)(v) of Schedule A is taken to be a certification by all of them;
3. if a trustee or nominee is expressly noted on the register of members as holding shares on account of another person (a “beneficiary”):
 - (a) the beneficiary is taken to be the registered holder in regard to those shares; and
 - (b) any application for the issue of shares or certification for the purposes of paragraph (c)(v) of Schedule A by, and any issue of shares to, the trustee or nominee, is taken to be an application or certification by, or an issue to, the beneficiary;
4. references to the Issuer offering shares includes the Issuer inviting applications for the issue of the shares.
