Corporations Act
Section 657A
Declaration of Unacceptable Circumstances

In the matter of SUMMIT RESOURCES LIMITED

WHEREAS

1. Paladin Resources Limited (Paladin) is making takeover offers (Paladin Offer) for all the shares in Summit Resources Limited (Summit) under a bidder's statement dated 27 February 2007 and offers dated 15 March 2007. The consideration offered is Paladin shares. The Paladin Offer became unconditional on 19 March 2007.
2. On 2 March 2007, Summit announced that its directors recommended that Summit shareholders reject the Paladin Offer.
3. A transaction (Areva Transaction) was proposed between Summit Resources Limited (Summit) and Areva NC Australia Pty Ltd (Areva).
4. On 11 April 2007, Summit issued a 2nd supplementary target's statement in connection with the Areva Transaction in which described the benefits of that transaction and said:

"A meeting of Summit shareholders to approve the transaction will be convened as soon as possible and is expected to be held in late May. In the absence of a superior proposal, Summit directors will unanimously recommend that Summit shareholders vote in favour of the transaction."
5. Paladin made an unqualified statement on 12 April 2007, released to ASX when announcing an increase to its offer for Summit shares, as follows:

"The involvement of Areva is a positive development for Paladin as a Joint-Venture Partner at Mt Isa. The discipline, uranium marketing experience and technical skills Areva bring will go some way to bridging the capability gaps and nuclear inexperience that exist within Summit. Accordingly, Paladin will be voting its shares in favour of the Areva transaction in late May."
6. Paladin no longer intends to stand by its unqualified statement. In Summit's 5th supplementary target's statement dated 30 April 2007 the following appears:

On Sunday 22 April 2007 Summit advised Areva that it had been informed by Paladin that, in view of the material change in circumstances since the announcement of Paladin's increased Offer (the recommendation to accept the Paladin Offer in preference to the Areva deal and the fact that Paladin was then expected to move to outright ownership of all the shares in Summit) Paladin would vote against any resolution put to Summit shareholders to approve the Areva transaction.
7. On 16 April 2007 Summit announced that it would recommend the increased Paladin Offer. Summit made no mention of the Areva Transaction in the announcement.

07 / 0357

8. On 16 April 2007 Paladin's managing director made a statement to the media concerning the Areva Transaction but made no reference to the Areva Transaction not proceeding or to Paladin not voting in favour of the Areva Transaction.
9. On 23 April 2007, Summit announced that it had decided not to convene a meeting of shareholders to consider the Areva Transaction.
10. Paladin has not, to date, informed Summit shareholders that it no longer intends to stand by its unqualified statement.
11. Acceptances were received into Paladin's takeover bid for Summit throughout the events referred to above (the Circumstances).
12. It appears to the Panel that the Circumstances are unacceptable having regard to:
 - A. their effect on the control or potential control of Summit, and
 - B. their effect on the proposed acquisition by Areva of a substantial interest in Summit.
13. The Panel has considered the purposes of the Takeovers Chapters of the Corporations Act as set out in section 602 and in particular, the desirability that the acquisition of control of Summit shares take place in an efficient, competitive and informed market, and that Summit shareholders are given enough information to assess the merits of the various proposals before them.
14. The Panel considers that it is not against the public interest to make a declaration of unacceptable circumstances in relation to the Circumstances and the affairs of Summit.

Under section 657A of the Corporations Act, the Takeovers Panel declares that the Circumstances constitute unacceptable circumstances in relation to the affairs of Summit.
