Australian Securities and Investments Commission Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) – Declaration

Pursuant to paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("the Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to the person referred to in the Schedule until 30 June 2005 as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):

"(5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme, or a withdrawal from the scheme, where, to the extent that transactions costs will apply, the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is on issue while the constitution does not make such provision.

- (6) In this section:

the scheme refers to Calibre Capital Real Estate Workout Fund No.1 ARSN 114 280 741;

information memorandum means a document provided to wholesale clients, as defined in section 761G, in connection with the offer to issue, offer to arrange for the issue or the issue of interest in the scheme; and

transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets, merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met."

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraphs 655A(1)(a) and 673(1)(a) – Exemptions

Pursuant to paragraph 655A(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (“Act”), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (“ASIC”) exempts the person identified in Schedule A (“the Sale Facility Operator”) and the persons identified in Schedule B (“Interested Parties”) from section 606 of the Act in the case mentioned in Schedule C, on the following conditions:

- (a) the Sale Facility Operator and the Interested Parties cease to have a relevant interest in Shares which the Share Facility Operator acquired under the facility described in Schedule C by the earlier of:
  - (i) the date on which Shares are issued or sold (as the case may be) under an offer of Shares for issue and sale in respect of which the IPO Prospectus is lodged with ASIC; and
  - (ii) the date which is three months from date of the IPO Prospectus.
- (b) the Sale Facility Operator does not sell a Share to a person if it knows or believes that person would contravene section 606 of the Act by acquiring the Share;
- (c) the Sale Facility Operator does not exercise any voting rights attaching to Shares which it acquires under the facility described in Schedule C, without ASIC’s consent;
- (d) the Sale Facility Operator and the Interested Parties use their best endeavours to obtain as wide a placement of the Shares as practicable having regard to:
  - i) the number of Shares available for sale;
  - ii) the level of demand for the Shares; and
  - iii) the price at which Shares can be sold or transferred by the Share Facility Operator having regard to the conditions in ASIC relief instrument numbered 05/0518; and
- (e) in respect of Shares sold or transferred to the Sale Facility Operator under paragraph (a) of Schedule C, the Sale Facility Operator gives ASIC a list specifying, in respect of each sale of a parcel of the Shares: the date of sale, the name of the buyer (if known), and the way in which the sale was transacted (eg, via Stock Exchange Automated Trading System).

0 5 / 0 5 8 6

And pursuant to paragraph 673(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts the Share Facility Operator, the Interested Parties, any person that is an associate of an Interested Party by virtue of the operation of section 12(2)(a) of the Act ("Associates") and any person who has a relevant interest in Shares which the Share Facility Operator acquired under the facility described in Schedule C by virtue of the operation of section 608(3) of the Act ("Deemed Holders") from section 671B of the Act in relation to the acquisition mentioned in Schedule C on the condition that if at 9.30am on the fifth business day after the date on which Shares are allocated pursuant to the IPO Prospectus, if any of the Share Facility Operator, the Interested Parties, any Associate or any Deemed Holder have voting power of more than 5% in Tattersall's, that person must then comply with section 671B of the Act.

Pursuant to paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("the Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to the person referred to in the Schedule until 30 June 2005 as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6) and (7), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6) and (7), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):
  - "(5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal from the scheme where the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
  - (6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:
    - (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
    - (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
  - (7) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for:

Pursuant to paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("the Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to the person referred to in the Schedule until 30 June 2005 as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5) and (6), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):
  - "(5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal from the scheme where the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
  - (6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:
    - (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
    - (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
- (7) In this section:

the scheme refers to Norton Income Fund ARSN 114 372 619;

transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets, merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met."
