Dear Officeholder,

Pay invoice and check company statement

FOR EXAMPLE COMPANY PTY LTD

ACN 000 000 000

Your company's annual statement and review fee invoice statement is enclosed.

To meet your legal requirements and to avoid late fees you need to:

1. review your company's statement to ensure that your company details are correct, and notify of any changes or corrections online; and
2. pay the balance shown on the invoice statement before the due date.

If you no longer require this company you should act now to close it down. Details on deregistering a company are available on our website at www.asic.gov.au/closing.

For full details on your obligations and requirements for company solvency, refer to the following:

Invoice statement

Pay account balance
by due date

Pay the account balance shown on the enclosed invoice statement. The account balance includes your annual review fee and any overdue balances. Fees apply for late payments. Refer to the invoice statement for details of possible late fees.

Payments can be made quickly via BPAY, EFT, or Australia Post outlets. Check your invoice statement for full payment options.

Company statement

Check that company
details are complete and up to date

Your company details, as recorded by us, are shown on the company statement. Check the company statement and ensure that your company details are complete and up to date.

Notify us of any change

If your company details are not up to date, you must notify us within 28 days from the issue date on the company statement or late review fees apply.

How to notify us of changes

Notify changes to company details online at www.asic.gov.au/changes. First time users of our online services will need the corporate key provided on your Company Statement.

Corporate key

Keep your corporate key number safe	The corporate key is an eight-digit security feature to protect your company's information from unauthorised lodgement. The corporate key is connected to your Australian Company Number (ACN) and is located on the first page, top right of the enclosed company statement. (This security number is not included on company statement reprints).
Register for online access	The corporate key can be used to register for online access, allowing you to conveniently and securely change your company details electronically on our website. Go to www.asic.gov.au for more details on online lodgement.
Need a new corporate key	As an officeholder of this company, you are responsible for the security of your corporate key. You can apply for a new corporate key on our website at www.asic.gov.au/corporatekey .

Information on whether or not you are able to pay your company debts as they fall due (company solvency)

The directors of your company must pass a solvency resolution no more than two months after the review date (unless your company has lodged with us, within the last 12 months, a financial report and directors' report required under Chapter 2M of the Corporations Act 2001). You must keep a copy of the solvency resolution. If the solvency resolution was not made, or was negative, you need to lodge a Form 485 Statement in relation to company solvency.

Failure to pass a solvency resolution, when required, is an offence.
