2. BACKGROUND

2.1 ASIC's role

- 2.1.1 Under section 1 of the ASIC Act, ASIC is charged with a statutory responsibility to perform its functions and to exercise its powers so as to promote the confident and informed participation of investors and consumers in the financial system.

2.2 Details of conduct

- 2.2.1 Droga Capital is an Australian investment firm.
- 2.2.2 Mr Droga is the sole director, secretary and shareholder of Droga Capital.
- 2.2.3 About 9:55am on Thursday 28 February 2008, Mr Droga, on behalf of Droga Capital, entered a sell order on the ASX for 1 million FMS shares at a price of 13 cents per share. By 10:27am that morning, Droga Capital's sell order had traded on the ASX.
- 2.2.4 At the time of placing the sell order, Droga Capital did not own any FMS shares. However, Mr Droga on behalf of Droga Capital has submitted that at the time of placing the sell order he believed that Droga Capital had a commitment to receive 2 million FMS shares pursuant to a Placement.
- 2.2.5 At 11:40am on 28 February 2008, FMS entered into a trading halt pending an announcement in relation to a capital raising.
- 2.2.6 Mr Droga on behalf of Droga Capital has submitted that upon learning of the trading halt referred to in paragraph 2.2.5 above, realised that Droga Capital had not received an allocation of FMS shares pursuant to a Placement.
- 2.2.7 At 3:31pm on 28 February 2008 Droga Capital received an email from Bell Potter containing details of a capital raising by FMS indicating that firm bids for placement shares would be due by 6:00pm that evening.
- 2.2.8 On 29 February 2008 Droga Capital, placed a buy order for 1 million FMS shares at a price of 11 cents per share. Due to the stock remaining in a trading halt the transaction was not executed at this time. (See paragraphs 2.2.10 and 2.2.11 below)
- 2.2.9 Also on 29 February 2008, Bell Potter sent Droga Capital a placement letter giving Droga Capital a firm allocation of 2 million FMS shares. An acceptance form was attached to the letter. The completed form was sent to Bell Potter that afternoon.
- 2.2.10 On 3 March 2008 the trading halt in respect of FMS shares was lifted and FMS announced to the market that it had successfully placed to sophisticated and professional investors 110 million fully paid ordinary shares of FMS at an issue price of 10 cents per share. Droga Capital's buy order (referred to at paragraph 2.2.8 above) was not executed on 3 March 2008 because FMS did not trade below 11.5 cents per share.
- 2.2.11 On 4 March 2008 Droga Capital's buy order for 1 million FMS shares (referred to at paragraph 2.2.8 above) traded.

2.2.12 On 6 March 2008 Droga Capital received its allocation of 2 million FMS shares pursuant to the Placement.

2.2.13 On 7 March 2008, both the sell order referred to in paragraph 2.2.3 and the buy order referred to in paragraph 2.2.8 settled.

2.3 ASIC's investigation

2.3.1 On 30 May 2008 ASIC commenced an investigation into a suspected contravention of section 1020B of the Corporations Act relating to the trading in the securities of FMS on 28 February 2008 by Droga Capital (the Investigation).

2.3.2 As a result of the Investigation, ASIC has formed the following views:

(a) that on 28 February 2008 Droga Capital failed to comply with its obligations under section 1020B of the Corporations Act by failing to hold a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest 1 million shares of FMS at the time it placed a sell order for 1 million shares of FMS;

(b) that on 28 February 2008, Mr Droga entered the sell order referred to in paragraph 2.2.3 above, on behalf of Droga Capital without having a reasonable belief that Droga Capital had a presently exercisable right to vest FMS shares in the buyer.

2.4 ASIC's concerns

2.4.1 Section 1020B of the Corporations Act prohibits a person from selling securities in Australia unless that person has or that person believes on reasonable grounds that the person has a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest the products in the buyer (except in limited circumstances set out in the Corporations Act 2001 and securities regulations).

2.4.2 ASIC is concerned that procedures in place at Droga Capital on and around 28 February 2008 were insufficient so as to prevent a breach of section 1020B from occurring.

2.5 Acknowledgement of concerns

2.5.1 Mr Droga and Droga Capital acknowledge that, based on ASIC's views as outlined above, ASIC has reason to be concerned as to the facts which are the subject of paragraph 2.2 above, and have offered an Enforceable Undertaking in the terms of paragraph 3 below.

2.5.2 As a result of ASIC's concerns, Droga Capital has conducted a review of Droga Capital's existing policies and procedures for dealing with compliance with section 1020B of the Corporations Act and has prepared a compliance manual (Compliance Manual) in relation to such policies and procedures (Short Selling Policies and Procedures) and has provided a copy of the Compliance Manual to ASIC.
