BACKGROUND

ASIC's role

1. Under section 1 of the ASIC Act, ASIC is charged with a statutory responsibility to perform its functions and to exercise its powers so as to promote the confident and informed participation of investors and consumers in the financial system.

PGW

2. PGW was incorporated on 8 February 2007 and was granted an AFS Licence (384713) on 9 May 2011.
3. Under its AFS Licence, PGW is authorised to operate a financial services business within the meaning of Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act, to provide Financial Product Advice and to deal in a range of Financial Products, further details of which are set out in its AFS Licence.
4. PGW has appointed 49 Authorised Representatives.

ASIC's surveillance

5. On 11 April 2013, ASIC commenced a surveillance into PGW for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Corporations Act.
6. Based on the information and documents obtained during its surveillance, ASIC has found numerous instances where Authorised Representatives of PGW may have:
 - a) failed to demonstrate a reasonable basis for the advice provided (in contravention of section 945A (as it then was) of the Corporations Act);
 - b) failed to adequately provide replacement advice to clients (in contravention of sections 945A and 947D of the Corporations Act); and
 - c) failed to provide advice documents to clients in accordance with section 946A of the Corporations Act.

 - a) failed to maintain adequate human and technological resources to ensure appropriate supervision of its Authorised Representatives;
 - b) failed to maintain adequate records of financial services provided on its behalf. PGW's only access to client records is via its Authorised Representatives and it was reliant upon individual Authorised Representatives to advise it of any financial services provided by them during the period of ASIC's surveillance;
 - c) failed to adequately assess the competency of its Authorised Representatives prior to their appointment;
 - d) failed to ensure that its Authorised Representatives received adequate ongoing compliance training and education;
 - e) failed to ensure that breaches and potential breaches of the Corporations Act detected during compliance audits were added to PGW's breach register and analysed for systemic trends or training needs; and
 - f) failed to respond to compliance failures of its Authorised Representatives.

ASIC'S CONCERNS

8. As a result of the matters referred to at clauses 6 and 7 above, ASIC is concerned that during the Relevant Period, PGW may have failed to comply with its obligations under the Corporations Act, by:

- a) failing, in accordance with section 912A(1)(a) of the Corporations Act, to do all things necessary to ensure that the Financial Services covered by its AFS Licence were provided efficiently, honestly and fairly;

- c) failing, in accordance with section 912A(1)(f) of the Corporations Act, to ensure that its Authorised Representatives were adequately trained and competent to provide the Financial Services covered by its AFS Licence.
