Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraphs 741(1)(a), 911A(2)(l), 992B(1)(a), 1020F(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(b) – Exemptions

First Exemption: disclosure relief for offers not involving a contribution plan

1. Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts the Issuer from Parts 6D.2, 6D.3 (except section 736) and Part 7.9 of the Act where the Issuer:
  - (a) makes an eligible offer;
  - (b) offers to arrange for the issue of financial products under an eligible offer; or
  - (c) issues a financial product under an eligible offer,that does not involve a contribution plan, on the conditions set out in the Schedule and for so long as the conditions are met.
2. Under paragraph 1020F(1)(b) of the Act, ASIC exempts a financial product that is the subject of an eligible offer from Part 7.9 of the Act where:
  - (a) a recommendation is made (by a person other than the Issuer) that a person to whom an eligible offer has been made acquire the financial product as a retail client; and
  - (b) the person who made the recommendation is not aware, and ought not reasonably be aware, that any of the conditions set out in the Schedule have not been met.

Second Exemption: licensing and hawking relief

3. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Act, ASIC exempts the Issuer from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a financial service consisting of general advice reasonably given in connection with an offer referred to in paragraph 1 (including any general advice given in the offer document) where the offer document for the offer includes a statement to the effect that any advice given by the person in connection with the offer is general advice only, and that recipients of the offer should consider obtaining their own financial product advice from an independent person who is licensed by ASIC to give such advice.
4. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Act, ASIC exempts:
  - (a) the Issuer; and
  - (b) any associate of the Issuer,

12-0105

from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of the following financial services:

- (c) the provision of a custodial or depository service in connection with an eligible offer covered by the exemption in paragraph 1 where the provider of the service performs their duties in good faith and has sufficient resources to perform those duties;
  - (d) dealing in a financial product in the course of providing a custodial or depository service covered by paragraph (c); and
  - (e) dealing in a financial product in connection with an eligible offer covered by the exemption in paragraph 1 where any acquisition by purchase or disposal of the product (by the Issuer or an associated body corporate) occurs either:
    - (i) through a person who holds an Australian financial services licence authorising the holder to deal in financial products; or
    - (ii) outside this jurisdiction and through a person who is licensed or otherwise authorised to deal in financial products in the relevant place.
5. Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 992B(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts the Issuer from sections 736, 992A and 992AA of the Act in relation to eligible offers covered by paragraph 1 made in the course of, or because of, unsolicited meetings or telephone calls reasonably held or made in connection with the eligible offer.

Schedule

The following conditions apply:

1. the Issuer must ensure that the eligible offer is substantially on the terms set out in the draft terms of the Plan Rules provided to ASIC on 5 December 2011 by Gilbert & Tobin on behalf of the Issuer;
2. when making the offer the Issuer must:
  - (a) include that offer in an offer document;
  - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that any eligible employee to whom the offer is made is given a copy of the offer document; and
  - (c) provide to ASIC a copy of the offer document (which need not contain details of the offer particular to the employee such as the identity or entitlement of the employee) and of each accompanying document not later than 7 days after the first provision of that material to an eligible employee;

12-0105

3. the Issuer must comply with any undertaking required to be made in the offer document by reason of this instrument;
4. the Issuer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the number of shares to be issued on the vesting and, if exercise is required, the exercise of an Award when aggregated with:

(a) the number of shares in the same class which would be issued were:

- (i) each outstanding offer with respect to shares, units of shares, and Awards to acquire unissued shares, under an employee share scheme (including the Plan) to be accepted, exercised (in the case of Options) or vested and, if exercise is required, exercised (in the case of Performance Rights and Share Appreciation Rights); and
- (ii) the number of shares in the same class issued during the previous 5 years pursuant to the Plan or any other employee share scheme extended only to eligible employees of the Issuer, but disregarding any offer made, or Award acquired or share issued by way of or as a result of:

- (b) an offer to a person situated at the time of receipt of the offer outside this jurisdiction;
- (c) an offer that was an excluded offer or invitation within the meaning of the Corporations Law as in force before the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Corporate Law Economic Reform Program Act 1999;
- (d) an offer that did not need disclosure to investors because of section 708 of the Act;
- (e) an offer that did not require the giving of a Product Disclosure Statement because of section 1012D of the Act; or
- (f) an offer made under a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement, must not exceed 5% of the total number of issued shares in that class of the Issuer as at the time of the offer; and 12-0105
