AUSTRALIAN SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS COMMISSION
CORPORATIONS ACT 2001
SUBCLAUSE 30(2) OF SCHEDULE 4
EXEMPTION

0 6 / 0 0 6 5

Pursuant to subclause 30(2) of Schedule 4 to the Corporations Act 2001 ("the Act"), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC"), being satisfied that the proposed modifications of the constitution of the company referred to in Schedule A ("the Company") in the case referred to in Schedule B will not result in or allow a modification of the mutual structure of the Company, hereby exempts the company from clauses 29(1)(f) & (h), 31, 32 and 33 of Schedule 4 to the Act, on the conditions mentioned in Schedule C for so long as those conditions are met.

SCHEDULE A

Connect Credit Union of Tasmania Limited (ACN 067 729 195)

SCHEDULE B

Where the Company, at a special general meeting held in 2006, makes modifications to its constitution substantially to the following effect:

- (a) Rule 2.2 of the Company's constitution will have the heading "Customers must be members – rules and exceptions";
- (b) the Company may only accept deposits from, or provide financial accommodation to, its members subject to the qualification that this rule will not apply to the following persons who are not members:
 - i. bodies that do not have the power to acquire, or that the law prohibits from acquiring, the Company's shares; or
 - ii. ADIs; or
 - iii. any person or class of persons as determined by the board of the Company from time to time, provided any financial accommodation is on commercial arm's length terms.
- (c) subject to rule 2.2 of the Company's constitution the credit union may accept deposits from and provide financial accommodation to two or more persons jointly;

- (d) the credit union will not from the date of adoption of the Company's constitution accept applications for joint membership of the credit union.
- (e) existing joint memberships at the date of adoption of the Company's constitution will be treated as follows:
- i. each person in a joint membership who does not hold a member share individually will be given the opportunity to purchase a member share in their own name;
 - ii. the credit union may require as a condition of opening any new accounts, providing or renewing existing financial accommodation that each applicant for the joint account or the financial accommodation hold a member share in their own name;
 - iii. at any time when each person in a joint membership holds a member share individually, subject to the Act, the jointly held member share may be redeemed by the credit union and the subscription price paid on that share credited to the joint holders' account;
 - iv. until such time as each person in a joint membership holds a member share individually and the jointly held member share has been redeemed, the jointly held member share will continue to be jointly owned and the provisions which apply prior to the date of the Company's constitution as set out in Appendix 4 will continue to apply to the jointly held member share but on the proviso that the credit union may require all of the holders to sign any proxy, voting or other forms concerning the share.
- (f) at all times, and subject to rule 13.5, at least 2/3rds of directors on the board of the Company must have been elected by members;
- (g) the board of the Company can appoint up to 3 directors including one executive director provided, subject to rule 13.5, the number of directors appointed by the board (including the executive director) is no more than 1/3 of the number of elected directors at all times;
- (h) to be eligible to be appointed a director by members or by the Board, a person must be eligible to be a director under rule 13.2 of the Company's constitution. To be eligible for election by members, a person must have been a member of the Company for six months prior to the annual general meeting at which the person seeks to be appointed;
- (i) the Company will have the power to issue investment shares and pay dividends on those shares;
- (j) the dividends payable on investment shares must not exceed the independently fixed 180 bank bill swap rate plus 2.5% per annum and those dividends can only be payable out of the profits for the year in which the dividends are declared;

- (k) only a qualifying member (as defined in part 1A-9(1) of Division A of Appendix 1 of the Company's constitution) is entitled to participate in the surplus and profits of the Company when the Company (whether acting through its board, its members or otherwise) conducts a transfer, be it by a reduction of capital, scheme of arrangement, deed of arrangement, transfer of business or any other form of corporate where after completion of the restructure:
- i. the Company is not entitled to use the words "credit union" in its name;
 - ii. one person, other than a person entitled to use either the words "credit union" or "credit society" in their name, holds more than 90% of member shares in the credit union;
 - iii. a group of associates, other than a group all the members of which are entitled to use either the words "credit union" or "credit society" in their name, between them hold more than 90% of member shares in the credit union;
 - iv. a person not entitled to use either the words "credit union" or "credit society" in their name has a legal or equitable interest in more than 20% of the credit union's gross assets, based on the latest report that the credit union has given APRA as at the time of the transfer;
 - v. a group of associates other than a group all the members of which are entitled to use either the words "credit union" or "credit society" in their name, between them have a legal or equitable interest in more than 20% of the Company's gross assets, based on the latest report that the Company has given APRA as at the time of the transfer; or
 - vi. the successor to the Company's business is not entitled to use either the words "credit union" or "credit society" in its name.

SCHEDULE C

The company must ensure that the notice of meeting at which the proposed constitutional modifications mentioned in Schedule B are to be considered or a statement that accompanies that notice of meeting:

- (a) gives all the information that members of the company would reasonably require and expect to be given to make an informed decision about the proposed modifications; and

- (b) adequately sets out and explains each of the matters in paragraphs 32(1)(a) to (l) inclusive of Schedule 4 to the Act that are relevant to the proposed constitutional modifications;
- (c) is lodged with ASIC within 7 days after the statement is given to members; and
- (d) is readily comprehensible by members of the company.

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001
Paragraphs 601QA(1)(a) and 911A(2)(l) – Revocation and Exemption

1. Under paragraph 601QA(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) revokes Instrument [01/0367].
2. Under paragraph 601QA(1)(a) of the Act ASIC exempts Cedar Lake Country Club Limited ACN 009 986 814 (Operator) in the case specified in Schedule A from section 601ED of the Act on the conditions set out in Schedule B.
3. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Act ASIC exempts the Operator, until 31 December 2006, from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence where the only financial services business is dealing in, or advising about, secondary interests in the time-sharing scheme in the case specified in Schedule A on the conditions set out in Schedule B and Schedule C.

SCHEDULE A

The operation of the time-sharing scheme known as Cedar Lake Country Club, constituted under a deed dated 8 October 1984 originally between Kay Timeshare Australia Ltd ACN 006 261 221, Coastal Mountain Corporation Pty Ltd ACN 001 384 836 and Union Fidelity Trustee Company of Australia ACN 004 027 749 (Scheme) where:

1. the management of the property to which the Scheme relates is supervised by a company (the Club);
2. at least 90% of the votes that may be cast on a resolution of the members of the Club are held by members who are not, and are not associated in relation to the Scheme with, an operator, manager, promoter or developer of the Scheme, other than where those votes are held by members solely in their capacity as an associate of the Club;
3. at least 90% or more by value or number of all the interests in the Scheme that can be issued have, since 1 June 2000, been held by persons who are not, and are not associated in relation to the Scheme with, the Operator or any other operator, manager, promoter or developer of the Scheme, other than where the interests are held by persons solely in their capacity as an associate of the Club;
4. no promoter of the Scheme or any developer of the property to which the Scheme relates has failed to perform any contractual obligation to any member in relation to the Scheme that is likely to adversely affect the member's interests; and
5. the constitution of the Club provides for the removal of a director if a resolution for their removal is supported by more than 50% of its members by value or, if the constitution so provides, by number.

06/0090

1. In relation to each building that was to be built under the terms of any disclosure document provided in accordance with the Act for interests in the Scheme, the Operator:
 - (a) ensures that the building is substantially completed to the extent that members will not be materially affected if no further construction occurs; or
 - (b) gives ASIC a notice in writing stating that the building will not be substantially completed and that the members of the Scheme will not be materially affected by its not being substantially completed.
2. Where any offers of interests in the Scheme for issue or sale are made by the Operator, or by any other operator, manager, promoter or developer of the Scheme, the Operator must ensure that the disclosure requirements of the Act are complied with.
3. The Operator must ensure that each member of the Scheme:
 - (a) has received share or membership certificates in the Club (or, where the constitution of the Scheme and the Act has permitted and where no share or membership certificates in the Club are issued, documentation or other evidence of membership in the Club); and
 - (b) falls into one or more of the following categories:
 - (i) they have received a certificate of title (and, where there is no certificate of title issued by the relevant titles registry, a copy of a registration confirmation statement or other evidence of title issued by the relevant titles registry) showing the member as holding title in a portion of the real property to which the Scheme relates in accordance with their entitlement; or
 - (ii) they have received a copy of the certificate of title certified as a true copy by a Justice of the Peace or a lawyer, where the Club has acknowledged that it is holding such a certificate in safe custody to be dealt with in accordance with provisions in the Club's constitution that provide for the certificate to be used only to facilitate a transfer authorised by the member, or on forfeiture of the interest; or
 - (iii) they became a member as a result of the forfeiture of the interest by a former member.
4. The Operator must ensure that any management agreement for the Scheme or property that members have a right to use, occupy or possess as part of the Scheme provides for the dismissal of the manager without any additional payment when members of the Club pass a resolution to that effect in at least one of the following cases:
 - (a) more than 50% of all members vote for dismissal;
 - (b) members holding more than 50% by value of the interests vote for dismissal;
 - (c) 75% of members voting (whether in person or by proxy) vote for dismissal where at least 25% of members eligible to vote do so; or

06/0098

- (d) members holding 75% by value of the interests that are held by members voting (whether in person or by proxy) vote for dismissal where members holding at least 25% by value of the interests eligible to vote do so, unless all of the following apply:

- (e) the management agreement was in force on 6 December 1999;
- (f) there has not since that date been any lawful means for the Club to terminate the agreement;
- (g) members are given at least 21 days' written notice that the Operator seeks to rely on the exception contained in these paragraphs (e) to (o) despite the fact that the management agreement does not meet the requirements that would otherwise apply;
- (h) the notice sent to members allows the member to requisition a vote by ticking a form accompanying the notice;
- (j) the notice contains a summary of all material information that is relevant to a member's decision whether to requisition a vote;
- (k) the notice states prominently a reply paid address to which the form requisitioning a vote may be sent;
- (l) the notice states prominently that if:
- (i) members who together hold at least 5% of the total value of the interests; or
 - (ii) at least 100 members, requisition a vote by giving written notice to the reply paid address within 21 days from the date that the notice may reasonably be expected to be received by them, a postal vote will be held on whether the Operator should be able to rely on this exception or should be required to comply with the usual ASIC policy concerning how a management agreement may be terminated;

- (m) a postal vote is conducted, if requisitioned, in accordance with the notice as soon as practicable;
- (n) if there is a postal vote:
- (i) a voting paper is sent to each member and states a reply paid address to which the voting paper may be sent; and
 - (ii) members must be notified in, or in a document accompanying, the voting paper that:
 - (A) only votes received at the reply paid address within 28 days after the issue of the voting paper will be counted; and
 - (B) the vote will be taken as passed if supported by either a majority by value or by number of votes cast (as specified in the notice); and
 - (iii) the voting paper must be accompanied by a notice which explains that, unless members vote against permitting the Operator from relying upon this exception, the Operator may be permitted to do so despite the management agreement not complying with the usual ASIC policy concerning how a management agreement may be terminated; and

0 6 / 0 0 9 8

- (iv) the notice accompanying the voting paper must contain a summary of information that is materially relevant to a member's decision whether to vote for or against the proposed resolution;
 - (o) ASIC is notified in writing where a vote was required and, if so, whether the vote was passed.
5. The Operator must:
- (a) be a member of an approved ISB; or
 - (b) become, before 31 March 2001, and remain thereafter, a member of an external complaints resolution scheme approved by ASIC that can deal with complaints relating to its operation of time-sharing schemes; or
 - (c) both:
 - (i) become, before 31 March 2006, and remain thereafter, a member of an external complaints resolution scheme approved by ASIC that can deal with complaints relating to its operation of time-sharing schemes; and
 - (ii) be, at least until such time as it becomes a member of an external complaints resolution scheme as referred to in sub-paragraph (i), a member of Australian Timeshare and Holiday Ownership Council Limited ACN 065 260 095 (ATHOC) and have covenanted with that body, in the form of an agreement approved by ASIC, to comply with the complaints resolution procedures and other matters specified in that agreement.
6. The Operator must not make or facilitate the making of any offer for issue or sale of an interest in the Scheme unless the issue or sale is subject to a cooling-off period of:
- (a) not less than ten business days; or
 - (b) if the Club is a member of ATHOC or an Approved ISB – not less than five business days.

SCHEDULE C

The Operator must ensure that:

Restriction on interests sold

1. It does not resell more than 5% of the interests in the Scheme in one calendar year.

Cooling Off rights

2. Anyone who issues a secondary interest in the Scheme provides cooling-off rights to purchasers of secondary interests in the Scheme.
3. Purchasers of secondary interests are told about their rights to a cooling-off period in a separate statement and are given a copy of this statement to keep. The information must be in a form approved by ASIC.
4. The following records are kept:

0 6 / 0 0 9 8

- (a) all persons to whom cooling-off statements have been issued; and
 - (b) the date on which each statement was issued and the purchaser's signed acknowledgment of receipt.
5. The cooling-off rights are prominently disclosed in the disclosure document and application form for the issue of secondary interests in the Scheme.
6. The cooling-off period is five business days and begins when all required documents (including the cooling-off statement) are given to the purchaser and they have acknowledged in writing that they have received them.
7. All consideration provided by a prospective purchaser is returned if the prospective purchaser decides not to proceed with the purchase of interests in the Scheme, including any administration or other fees.

Trust account requirements

8. All monies received by the Operator for secondary interests in the Scheme are paid into an account that satisfies the following requirements:
- (a) The account is with an Australian ADI; and
 - (b) The only money that is paid into the account is:
 - (i) money received from purchasers of secondary interests in the Scheme; and
 - (ii) interest on the amount from time to time standing to the credit of the account.
9. The money is paid into the account on the day it is received by the Operator or on the next business day.
10. The money is held in trust by the Operator for the benefit of the person who paid the money.

Interpretation

In this instrument:

Approved ISB means a body specified by ASIC in writing to be an approved industry supervisory body for the purposes of ASIC Policy Statement 160 until the expiration of the period during which ASIC has stated that such approval remains in force or until ASIC publishes in writing that such approval is revoked.

Australian ADI means an Australian authorised deposit-taking institution, within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959; disclosure document means a prospectus or a product disclosure statement (where applicable) within the meaning of the Act.

0 6 / 0 0 9 8

disclosure requirements means:

- (a) before the end of the transition period – Chapter 6D of the Act, as if the Scheme were a registered scheme; and secondary interest means an interest that has been issued as at the date of this instrument and is subsequently sold.
- (b) from the end of the transition period – Part 7.9 of the Act.

transition period has the meaning given by subsection 1438(3) of the Act.

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraphs 601QA(1)(a), 741(1)(a), 911A(2)(l), 992B(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(a) — Exemption

First exemption: disclosure relief for offers of shares, units of shares, options and stapled securities

1. Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the “Act”) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (“ASIC”) exempts:
 - (a) a person from Parts 6D.2, 6D.3 (except section 736) and 7.9 of the Act where the person:
 - (i) makes an eligible offer;
 - (ii) offers to arrange for the issue of financial products under an eligible offer;
 - (iii) issues a financial product under an eligible offer, that does not involve a contribution plan, on the conditions set out in the Schedule and for so long as the conditions are met; and

 - (b) a person (other than a person covered by paragraph (a)) from Part 7.9 of the Act where the person makes a recommendation to acquire financial products under an eligible offer that does not involve a contribution plan, except where the person is aware, or ought reasonably to be aware, that any of the conditions set out in the Schedule have not been met.

Second exemption: licensing and hawking relief

2. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Act, ASIC exempts a person who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 of the Act because of the First Exemption (other than because the person made a recommendation to acquire financial products) from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a financial service consisting of general advice reasonably given in connection with an offer referred to in that exemption (including any general advice given in the offer document) where the offer document for the offer includes a statement to the effect that any advice given by the person in connection with the offer is general advice only, and that employees should consider obtaining their own financial product advice from an independent person who is licensed by ASIC to give such advice.
3. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Act, ASIC exempts:

- (a) the issuer who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 of the Act because of the First Exemption;
- (b) any associate of the issuer;
- (c) the manager from time to time of the FCPE (presently AXA Investment Managers Paris, the wholly owned subsidiary of AXA Gestion Interesement) (the "Manager") and the custodian from time to time of the FCPE (presently BNP Paribas Securities Services) (the "Custodian");
- (d) any associate of the Manager or the Custodian; and
- (e) any person acting for or on behalf of the issuer, a Saint-Gobain Australian Subsidiary, the Manager or the Custodian, from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of the following financial services:

- (f) the provision of a custodial or depository service in connection with an eligible offer where the provider of the service performs their duties in good faith and has sufficient resources to perform those duties; and
 - (g) dealing in a financial product in the course of providing a custodial or depository service covered by paragraph 3(f) of this instrument; and
 - (h) dealing in a financial product in connection with an eligible offer covered by the exemption where any acquisition by purchase or disposal of the product by the issuer or an associate or a person referred to in paragraphs 3(c), (d) and (e) of this instrument occurs either:
 - (i) through a person who holds an Australian financial services licence authorising the holder to deal in those financial products; or
 - (ii) outside this jurisdiction and through a person who is licensed or otherwise authorised to deal in those financial products in the relevant place.
4. Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 992B(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts a person who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 of the Act because of the First Exemption from sections 736, 992A and 992AA of this Act in relation to offers made in the course of, or because of, unsolicited meetings or telephone calls reasonably held or made in connection with the offer.

Third exemption: MIS relief

5. Under paragraph 601QA(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts a person who operates a managed investment scheme relating to an eligible offer from Chapter 5C of the Act in relation to the operation of that managed investment scheme.

Schedule

06/0102

The following conditions apply:

1. the eligible offer must be substantially on the terms set out in the letter from Freehills to ASIC dated 27 January 2006 in relation to an 'Application for relief pursuant to policy statements 49, 167, 169 and 178 ;
2. the person making the offer must:
 - (a) include that offer in an offer document; and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that any eligible employee to whom the offer is made is given a copy of the offer document; and

 - (b) the number of shares in the same class issued during the previous 5 years pursuant to the employee share scheme or any other employee share scheme extended only to eligible employees of the issuer;but disregarding any offer made, or option acquired or share issued by way of or as a result of:
 - (c) an offer to a person situated at the time of receipt of the offer outside this jurisdiction; or
 - (d) an offer that was an excluded offer or invitation within the meaning of the Corporations Law as in force before the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Corporate Law Economic Reform Program Act 1999; or

- (e) an offer that did not need disclosure to investors because of section 708; or
- (f) an offer that did not require the giving of a Product Disclosure Statement because of section 1012D; or
- (g) an offer made under a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement, must not exceed 5% of the total number of issued shares in that class of the issuer as at the time of the offer; and

5. the offer document must state prominently that the eligible offer is an offer for participation in a foreign scheme that is subject to the regulation of the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (the "Relevant Agency") and to the law of France and must describe the legal and practical effect (if any) this may have on the rights and ability of an offeree to make any claim or enforce any right arising out of or in connection with the eligible offer;
6. the Rules must contain provisions to the effect that the books of account maintained in respect of the activities of the FCPE must be audited annually;
7. the Manager and/or the Custodian may only levy any fees or charges for operating and administering the FCPE which are payable by the employees to a maximum amount provided for in the Rules and such fees must be fully disclosed in the offer document;
8. Saint-Gobain Abrasives must make the statements of assets, balance sheets and statements of income (together with the related notes) and the auditors' reports delivered to them under the Rules available for inspection by offerees at a registered office or principal place of business in Australia during normal business hours or such other time as is agreed with an offeree;
9. upon Saint-Gobain Abrasives receiving notices relating to the buy-back/redemption of units as provided for in the Rules or otherwise under the eligible offer, Saint-Gobain Abrasives must forward these to the Manager without delay;
10. on behalf of the issuer and the Manager, Saint-Gobain Abrasives must accept notices, correspondence and service of process at a registered office or principal place of business in Australia;
11. Saint-Gobain Abrasives must notify ASIC within 7 days if the buy-back arrangements/redemption facilities of the FCPE are suspended or terminated or if listing of the shares of the issuer on any foreign securities exchange is suspended;
12. Saint-Gobain Abrasives must make available for public inspection at a registered office or principal place of business in Australia and provide to

- offerees copies of the constituent documents of the eligible offer and meet all reasonable requests for information;
13. the issuer, through Saint-Gobain Abrasives, must maintain in Australia and make available to ASIC, upon request, records relating to the issue or sale of and the buy-back/redemption of units in the FCPE to or from Australian residents;
 14. the FCPE must at all times be approved or authorised or registered by the Relevant Agency and the Group Saving Plan for employees of non-French companies of the Saint-Gobain group must at all times be authorised under the law of France;
 15. there must at all times be a custodian of the FCPE assets and, where applicable, the custodian must have been approved by the Relevant Agency and that approval must not have been revoked;
 16. within 14 days of the date of this instrument, ASIC must be provided with:
 - (a) certified copies of the Rules and any other documents comprising the eligible offer;
 - (b) a certified copy of any written approval or authorisation issued by the Relevant Agency in relation to the eligible offer; and
 - (c) if any document is not in English, a certified translation of that document into English;
 17. Saint-Gobain Abrasives must keep at a registered office or principal place of business in this jurisdiction, a register of Saint-Gobain Australian Subsidiary employees who participate in the eligible offer and enter in the register:
 - (a) the names and addresses of each participant;
 - (b) the extent of the holding of each participant;
 - (c) the date at which the name of each participant was entered in the register; and
 - (d) the date at which any participant's interest ceased.
 18. except as may be required by French law, the Rules must not be modified or varied in any material respect that would adversely affect the rights and interests of participants in the eligible offer unless ASIC notifies Sain-Gobain Abrasives in writing that it does not object to the modification or variation;
 19. the Manager and the Custodian must comply with the provisions of the Rules; and
 20. the eligible offer must at all times comply with the Law of France.
