Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraphs 655A(1)(a) and 673(1)(a) – Exemptions

Pursuant to paragraphs 655A(1)(a) and 673(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act"), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") exempts each of the persons specified in Schedule A ("Broker") in the case specified in Schedule B, to the extent and on the conditions set out below, for so long as those conditions are met.

First Exemption

The Broker is exempt from section 606 of the Act in relation to the acquisition mentioned in Schedule B, on the following conditions:

- (a) the Broker reduces its voting power in the Company to less than 20% within 14 days after that acquisition;
- (b) the Broker procures that the Vendor does not sell a Share to a person if it knows or believes that person would contravene section 606 by acquiring the Share;
- (c) while the Broker's voting power in the Company is greater than 20% as a result of that acquisition, the Broker procures that the Vendor does not exercise any voting rights attaching to Shares in excess of 20%, without ASIC's consent;
- (d) the Broker does not, and procures that the Vendor does not, acquire further shares in the Company until its voting power in the Company has been reduced to less than 5%;
- (e) the Broker uses its best endeavours to obtain as wide a placement of the Shares as practicable; and
- (f) within 14 days after that acquisition, the Broker gives ASIC a list specifying, in respect of each sale of a parcel of the Shares by the Vendor: the date of sale, the name of the buyer (if known), and the way in which the sale was transacted (eg, via Stock Exchange Automated Trading System).

Second Exemption

The Broker is exempt from Part 6C.1 of the Act in relation to:

- (a) the acquisition mentioned in Schedule B; and
- (b) any Share which is a Sold Share at 9.30am on the third business day after that acquisition.

This exemption is given on condition that, if at 9.30am on the third business day after that acquisition, the Broker's voting power in the Company is 5% or greater, the Broker then complies with Part 6C.1 of the Act in relation to that entitlement.

For the purposes of the conditions, treat the Broker as no longer having a relevant interest in a Share (a "Sold Share") if the Vendor has agreed to sell the Share under a contract which is subject to no conditions which would not be implied into an open contract entered into on the stock market of the Exchange, other than a condition postponing settlement until completion of the acquisition mentioned in Schedule B.

Schedule A

Macquarie Equity Capital Markets Limited (ACN 001 374 572) and each of its related bodies corporate.

Schedule B

Asset holding conditions

 - (d) are clearly identified as client's portfolio assets.

Rights relating to portfolio assets conditions

Notifying breaches

- 1.33 The MDA operator must notify ASIC in writing in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify as soon as practicable after it has become aware or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed or is likely to fail, in a significant respect having regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 912D(1)(b) of the Act as if the failure were a breach to which that paragraph applies, to comply with a condition in relation to the MDA service. The MDA operator must provide full particulars of the failure to the extent that it from time to time knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries.

2 External MDA Custodians

- 2.1 An external MDA custodian does not have to comply with section 601ED in relation to a managed investment scheme if the only interests in the scheme are rights to MDA services.
- 2.2 An external MDA custodian does not have to comply with Part 7.9 in relation to a financial product that is:
- (a) a right to MDA services provided under a managed investment scheme where the external MDA custodian provides custodial or depository services under the scheme; or

- 2.3 An external MDA custodian does not have to comply with Chapter 6D in relation to securities that are held by a client because a legal or equitable interest in securities is held on behalf of the client as part of the MDA services for which the external MDA custodian provides custodial or depository services.
- 2.4 An external MDA custodian who relies on paragraph 2.1, 2.2 or 2.3 must comply with the conditions in paragraphs 2.6 to 2.15. Paragraphs 2.6 to 2.11 only apply after 11 June 2004 or, if it is practicable for the external MDA custodian to comply with the relevant paragraph before then, from when it is practicable.

 - (b) exercise the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person would exercise if they were in the external MDA custodian's position; and

- 2.7 The external MDA custodian must comply with the provisions of the contract that subparagraph 2.6(a) to (c) requires.

Note: This condition does not affect in any way the external MDA custodian's contractual obligation to comply with all the terms of the contract for the provision of custodial or depository services, nor any remedy a client may have for any breach of the contract.

Asset holding conditions

- 2.8 For client's portfolio assets held by the external MDA custodian or a person acting on its behalf, the external MDA custodian must ensure that those assets:

- (a) each contract it enters into under paragraph 2.6 with a retail client for at least 7 years after the contract is terminated; and

3 Other persons involved in acquiring MDA service

- 3.1 Where a person has no reason to believe that an MDA operator may not rely on an exemption from Part 7.9 under this instrument for a financial product, the person does not have to comply with Part 7.9 for that financial product.
