Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) — Declaration

Under paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) declares that Chapter 5C applies to the person mentioned in Schedule A in the case set out in Schedule B as if section 601FL of the Act were modified or varied by:

1. omitting from subsection 601FL(1) and substituting:

- "(1) If the responsible entity of a registered scheme wants to retire, it must either:
- (a) call a members' meeting to explain its reason for wanting to retire and to enable the members to vote on a resolution (which must be an extraordinary resolution if the scheme is not listed) to choose a company to be the new responsible entity; or
 - (b) where the scheme only has 1 member (the single member) — propose a company (the proposed responsible entity) to be the new responsible entity in accordance with subsection (1A)"; and

2. after subsection (1), inserting:

- "(1A) The responsible entity can retire and the proposed responsible entity can become the new responsible entity if all of the following requirements are met:
- (a) the proposed responsible entity must provide its consent in writing to become the scheme's responsible entity;
 - (b) the responsible entity must provide the single member with sufficient information to explain its reason for wanting to retire and to enable the single member to decide whether to consent to the appointment of the proposed responsible entity as the new responsible entity;
 - (c) the single member must consent in writing to the retirement of the responsible entity and the appointment of the proposed responsible entity as the new responsible entity;
 - (d) as soon as practicable and in any event within 2 business days after the single member has given its written consent, the responsible entity must lodge a notice with ASIC asking it to alter the record of the scheme's registration to name the proposed responsible entity as the scheme's responsible entity; and
 - (e) ASIC must comply with the notice when it is lodged."

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraphs 601QA(1)(a), 911A(2)(l) and 1020F(1)(a)
— Exemptions

Under paragraphs 601QA(1)(a), 911A(2)(l) and 1020F(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts the person referred to in Schedule A in the case referred to in Schedule B from:

- (a) section 601ED of the Act;
- (b) Part 7.6 of the Act for the provision of the following financial services:
 - (i) dealing in financial products in the ordinary course of the operation of the exempt FCIS other than by issuing financial products;
 - (ii) dealing in derivatives or foreign exchange contracts for the purpose of managing a financial risk to an exempt FCIS that arises in the ordinary course of the operation of the exempt FCIS (provided dealings in derivatives or foreign exchange contracts with persons in this jurisdiction is not a significant part of IMF's business);
 - (iii) providing a custodial or depositary service by holding assets of an exempt FCIS; and
- (c) sections 1012B and 1012C of the Act in relation to an interest in the exempt FCIS, on the conditions set out in Schedule C, for so long as those conditions are met.

Schedule A

International Mutual Fund PCC Limited, a company incorporated in Guernsey under registration number 40354 and authorised under section 8 of The Protection of Investors (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1987 (IMF) in its capacity as the operator of the following schemes (each an exempt FCIS):

JICM Currency Fund; and JICM GBP Currency Fund

Schedule B

Where all of the following apply:

- (a) IMF is registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act;
- (b) IMF has provided ASIC with the information in Schedule D and ASIC has notified IMF in writing that such information provided by IMF is adequate;

06 / 0370

- (c) ASIC has not notified IMF in writing that it is excluded from relying on this instrument;
- (d) 10 business days have not passed since IMF became or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedules C or E without full particulars of the failure having been provided to ASIC (to the extent that IMF knows those particulars or would have known them if it had made reasonable enquiries);
- (e) having provided particulars under paragraph (d) within the time allowed by that paragraph, 20 business days have not passed from the provision of those particulars, without ASIC having notified IMF in writing that it may continue to rely on this instrument;
- (f) having regard to all offers of interests in the exempt FCIS that have been made at any time (whether in this jurisdiction or elsewhere), promotion of membership of the exempt FCIS has not been principally aimed at persons in this jurisdiction and there is no reason to believe that IMF intends that promotion of membership of the exempt FCIS will be principally aimed at persons in this jurisdiction; and
- (g) each exempt FCIS is declared by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission to be an authorised collective investment scheme, Class A, under section 8 of The Protection of Investors (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law 1987 or any provision that replaces that section.

Schedule C

Disclosure to Australian clients

- (a) IMF must:
 - (i) give an offer document for interests in the exempt FCIS in circumstances where it would have an obligation to give a Product Disclosure Statement under section 1012B and 1012C of the Act to a retail client;
 - (ii) ensure the offer document prominently discloses:
 - A. the exempt FCIS and IMF are regulated by the laws of a foreign jurisdiction, and that those laws differ from Australian laws; and
 - B. the rights and remedies available to Australian investors who acquire interests in the exempt FCIS may differ from those of Australian investors acquiring interests in Australian managed investment schemes; and
 - C. the main rights and remedies available to Australian investors under the home regulatory requirements and how those rights and remedies can be accessed; and

06 / 0370

- D. the nature of any special risks associated with cross-border investing, such as risks arising from foreign taxation requirements, foreign currency or time differences; the nature and consequences of significant differences between the home regulatory requirements and the Australian regulatory requirements;
 - E. information about its internal dispute resolution system, covering complaints by investors and how that system may be accessed;
 - F. information about the EDRS that it has joined, and how the scheme may be accessed;
 - G. general information about any significant Australian taxation implications of interests of the kind offered; and
 - H. information about whether a cooling-off regime applies for acquisitions of interests in the exempt FCIS (and whether the regime is provided for by law or otherwise).
- (iii) notify in writing all clients in this jurisdiction before they become a member of an exempt FCIS or apply for an interest in an exempt FCIS that the exempt FCIS and IMF are regulated by the laws of a foreign jurisdiction, and that those laws differ from Australian laws;
 - (iv) notify ASIC that the offer document is in use within five business days after a copy of the offer document is first given under paragraph (iii);
 - (v) keep a copy of the offer document for seven years after it is first given under paragraph (iii);
 - (vi) make a copy of the offer document available to ASIC if it makes a request for it within a seven-year period;
 - (vii) ensure that the offer document complies with the requirements of the home regulatory requirements.

Information about the exempt FCIS

- (b) IMF must make available on request, to members in this jurisdiction, any publicly available information about the exempt FCIS that has been produced by, or on behalf of, IMF and that relates to the exempt FCIS, unless members in this jurisdiction can otherwise obtain that information conveniently and for no greater charge (if any) than would apply in the place of origin of IMF. The information must be provided in English and at no greater charge (if any) than applies in the place of origin of IMF.
- (c) IMF must promptly give ASIC any annual financial statement of the exempt FCIS when the financial statement is published together with any associated audit and other reports. IMF must give ASIC an English translation of any such statement or report in a reasonable time if ASIC requests such a translation.

- (d) IMF must maintain in this jurisdiction, at a place disclosed in writing to members in this jurisdiction, a register of members that it reasonably believes are in this jurisdiction and their contact details.

Targeting

- (e) IMF must take all reasonable steps to ensure that no more than 30% by value of all interests in the exempt FCIS are held by persons who IMF has reason to believe are in this jurisdiction.

Schedule D

IMF must provide the following information to ASIC before relying on this instrument in relation to the exempt FCIS:

- (a) evidence that it is authorised to operate the exempt FCIS and that the exempt FCIS is of a kind referred to in Schedule A;
- (b) a deed of IMF for the benefit of and enforceable by ASIC, the other persons referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and any member of the exempt FCIS in this jurisdiction, which applies notwithstanding that IMF may have ceased to rely, or never have relied, on this instrument, and which provides that:
- (i) the deed is irrevocable except with the prior written consent of ASIC;
- (ii) IMF submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts in legal proceedings conducted by any of the following:
- A. ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act);
- B. any member (or former member) of the exempt FCIS in this jurisdiction;
- C. in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law — any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act; and in the case of proceedings brought by a person covered by subparagraph (i) or (iii), whether brought in their name, on behalf of the Crown or otherwise;
- (iii) IMF covenants to comply with any order of an Australian court in respect of any matter relating to the provision of the financial services in relation to the exempt FCIS or the operation of the exempt FCIS; and

0 6 / 0 3 7 0

- (iv) IMF covenants that, on written request of either GFSC or ASIC, it will give or vary written consent and take all other practicable steps to enable and assist GFSC to disclose to ASIC and ASIC to disclose to GFSC any information or document that GFSC or ASIC has that relates to IMF or the exempt FCIS;
- (c) written consents to the disclosure by GFSC to ASIC and ASIC to GFSC of any information or document that GFSC or ASIC has that relates to IMF;
- (d) the most recent financial statements of the exempt FCIS proposed to be operated in this jurisdiction by IMF, any audit report, and any subsequent public disclosures by that exempt FCIS about its financial position or compliance with the home regulatory requirements;
- (e) a copy of the most recent disclosure document (however described) required under the relevant home regulatory requirements relating to an offer of interests in the exempt FCIS;
- (f) a copy of the constitution or other governing rules (however described) of the exempt FCIS;
- (g) a description of how IMF will plan for, monitor and assess its compliance with the requirements and conditions of this instrument and any Australian regulatory requirements to which it will be subject;
- (h) a description of the financial services relating to the exempt FCIS it intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
- (i) information about the interests in the exempt FCIS that IMF intends to offer in this jurisdiction and how it plans to seek members in this jurisdiction.

Schedule E

IMF must notify ASIC, as soon as practicable and in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing, of the details of:

- (a) each significant change to a licence, registration, authorisation or other approval (however described) granted by GFSC relevant to the operation of the exempt FCIS;
- (b) each significant change to the home regulatory requirements (including the power or authority of GFSC to supervise, monitor or procure compliance by IMF with the home regulatory requirements with respect to the exempt FCIS) that is relevant to the operation or intended operation of the exempt FCIS in this jurisdiction unless ASIC has stated in writing that notification of that change is not required for the purpose of this instrument;
- (c) each significant exemption or other relief which IMF obtains from the home regulatory requirements; and

0 6 / 0 3 7 0

- (d) each enforcement or disciplinary action taken by GFSC or any other overseas regulatory authority against IMF.

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Subsection 741(1) – Declaration 0 6 / 0 3 7 3

Under paragraph 741(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Act), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) declares that Chapter 6D applies to the persons specified in Schedule A in the case specified in Schedule B as if section 707 were modified or varied by omitting subsections 707(3) and (4) and substituting:

- "(3) An offer of a body's securities for sale within 12 months after their issue needs disclosure to investors under this Part if the body issued the securities:
- (a) without disclosure to investors under this Part; and
 - (b) with the purpose of the person to whom they were issued:
 - (i) selling or transferring them; or
 - (ii) granting, issuing or transferring interests in, or options or warrants over, them; and section 708 or 708A does not say otherwise.

- (4) Unless the contrary is proved, a body is taken to issue securities with the purpose referred to in paragraph 3(b) if any of the securities are subsequently sold, or offered for sale, within 12 months after their issue."; and

Under paragraph 741(1)(b) of the Act, ASIC declares that Chapter 6D applies to the persons specified in Schedule C in the case specified in Schedule D as if section 707 were modified or varied by inserting the following subsection immediately after subsection 707(4):

- "(4A) Despite subsection (4), a body will not be taken to have the purpose referred to in paragraph 3(b) merely because the body issues securities to a nominee for sale on behalf of foreign holders."

Schedule A

A shareholder or optionholder of Golden China (including a holder of CHESSE depositary interests over such securities) who makes an offer for sale of a kind referred to in Schedule B.

0 6 / 0 3 7 3

Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Subsection 741(1) – Declaration

Pursuant to subsection 741(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the "Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") hereby declares that Chapter 6D of the Act applies to the persons specified in Schedule A in the case specified in Schedule B as if:

1. subsection 707(5) of the Act were modified or varied by inserting the words "or 708A" after the words "section 708";
2. section 708A of the Act were modified or varied by:
 - (a) after subsection (1) adding the following subsection:

"(1A) This section also applies to an offer (the sale offer) of a body's securities (the relevant securities) for sale by a person if:

 - (a) but for subsection (5), disclosure to investors under this Part would be required by subsection 707(5) for the sale offer; and
 - (b) a determination under subsection (2) was not in force in relation to the body at the time when the relevant securities were sold.";
 - (b) in paragraph (5)(a) omitting the word "issued" and substituting the words "sold by the person who controlled the body (the controller)";
 - (c) in paragraph (5)(e) omitting the words "a notice that complies with subsection (6)" and substituting the words "notices that comply with subsections (6) and (6A)";
 - (d) omitting paragraphs (6)(a) and (6)(b) and substituting the following paragraphs:

"(a) is given by the body within 5 business days after the day on which the relevant securities were sold by the controller; and

(b) states that the controller sold the relevant securities without disclosure to investors under this Part; and";

- (e) after subsection (6) adding the following subsection:
- "(6A) A notice complies with this subsection if the notice:
- (a) is given by the controller within 5 business days after the day on which the relevant securities were sold by the controller; and
 - (b) states that the controller sold the relevant securities without disclosure to investors under this Part; and
 - (c) sets out any information known by the controller that is excluded information as at the date of the notice (see subsections (7) and (8)).";
- (f) in subsection (7) omitting the words "subsection (6)" and substituting the words "subsections (6) and (6A)";
- (g) in paragraph (9)(a) omitting the word "the" and substituting the word "a";
- (h) in paragraph (9)(b) omitting the words "are issued" and substituting the words "are sold by the controller";
- (i) after subsection (9) adding:
- "(9A) The controller contravenes this subsection if:
- (a) a notice given under subsection (5) is defective; and
 - (b) the controller becomes aware of the defect in the notice within 12 months after the relevant securities are sold by the controller and does not notify the body.";
- (j) in subsection (10) omitting the word ", the" and adding the words "and subsection (9A), a" after the words "subsection (9)".
3. paragraph 713(6)(ab) of the Act were modified or varied by omitting the words "subsection 708A(9)" and substituting the words "subsection 708A(9) or (9A)"; and
4. subsection 727(5) of the Act were modified or varied by omitting paragraph (5)(b) and substituting the following paragraph:
- "(b) a notice given under that subsection purported to comply with subsection 708A(6) or 708A(6A), but did not actually comply with subsection 708A(6) or 708A(6A) as appropriate;".
