Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraphs 911A(2)(l) and 1020F(1)(a) – Exemption

1. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts Litigation Lending Services Limited ACN 129 188 825 (LLSL) from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for dealing in and giving financial product advice in relation to a litigation funding agreement on the conditions set out in the Schedule, for so long as those conditions are met.
2. Under paragraph 1020F(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts LLSL from Part 7.9 of the Act in connection with a recommendation to acquire, or an offer or issue of, or making an offer to arrange the issue of, a litigation funding agreement on the conditions set out in the Schedule, for so long as those conditions are met.

Schedule

1. LLSL ensures that a litigation funding agreement is given personally to each individual retail client which includes the following disclosures:
    - a. information about any significant benefits which will or may accrue to a client as a result of entering into a litigation funding agreement, the circumstances in which and times at which those benefits will be provided and the way in which those benefits will be provided;
    - b. information about any significant risks involved in entering into a litigation funding agreement;
    - c. information about :
      - i. the cost of entering into a litigation funding agreement; and
      - ii. any costs that may be incurred by the client and how they will be calculated.
    - d. if the litigation funding agreement will generate a return to the client - information about any commission, or other similar payments, that will or may impact on the amount of such return;
    - e. information about any other significant characteristics or features of the litigation funding agreement or of the rights, terms, conditions and obligations under the agreement; and
    - f. information about the dispute resolution system that covers complaints made by clients and how that system can be accessed.
  2. LLSL establishes and maintains an internal dispute resolution system that complies with the Australian Standard AS ISO 10002-2006 Customer Satisfaction – Guidelines for complaints handling organizations, published on

08 / 0 2 4 1

5 April 2006 that covers complaints made by retail clients against LLSL in connection with a litigation funding agreement.

Interpretation

In this instrument:

financial product advice has the meaning given by section 766B of the Act

litigation funding agreement means a contract entered into between LLSL and a third person, who has a prima facie enforceable right to make a legal claim (the litigant), the terms of which provide that:

- (a) LLSL will meet the litigant's payment of fees to lawyers, insolvency practitioners and all other expenses related to the litigation and in exchange the litigant will reimburse LLSL for the costs incurred and will pay LLSL an agreed percentage of any amount recovered under the legal claim funded by LLSL; and
- (b) LLSL will provide an indemnity to the litigant against any adverse costs orders arising from the legal claim funded by LLSL.

retail client has the meaning given by section 761G of the Act.

Commencement

This instrument takes effect on gazettal.
