- (a) the body:
 - (i) does not carry on a business of issuing risk management products other than interests in a risk management scheme; and
 - (ii) does not provide any financial product advice in relation to a risk management product other than financial advice covered by sub-subparagraph 4(b)(iii);

Conditions

- 10. The group purchasing body must:
 - (a) ensure that the making of a group purchase payment by a person to the body has the effect of:
 - (i) where the product is to be issued to the person—as between the person and the issuer of the risk management product to which the payment relates, discharging any liability of the person under or in respect of the product to the extent of the payment; or
 - (ii) where the product has been or is to be issued to the body—as between the person and the issuer of the risk management product to which the payment relates, discharging the liability of the body under or in respect of the product in relation to the person to the extent of the payment;

Note: This provision is based on section 985B of the Act. The body could, for example, meet this condition by appropriate contractual/agency arrangements with the insurer.

Note: This provision does not require an arrangement that affects the rights of the issuer of the risk management product to recover the payment from the body.

- (b) promptly notify in writing each person to whom it provides financial services relating to the risk management product and who may reasonably believe they will be covered by the product, if:

- (i) it is not reasonable to expect that the cover will apply for the period represented to the person, whether in writing or otherwise; or
- (ii) the product is, or likely to be, cancelled or not renewed, unless substantially similar cover applies or will apply for the period (or remainder of the period) represented to the person; and
- (c) enter into an obligation under which the body is liable to compensate any person who suffers loss or damage as a result of the body failing to comply with subparagraph (b);

Note: This obligation may be created in any way provided it is capable of being enforced. It may, for example, be created by the terms of a contract or by deed poll.
- (d) establish a facility by which each person to whom it provides financial services relating to the risk management product and who may reasonably believe they will be covered by the product may, by taking reasonable steps, verify with the issuer of the product or a financial services licensee or an authorised representative acting on behalf of the issuer or licensee, without charge, that the product has been issued to the person or the body and remains current; and
- (e) give, as soon as practicable after the body has reason to believe that the financial services to which the risk management product relates will be provided to a person, and if the person to be covered by the product may elect whether to be covered or not, before the election is made, the following information and statements in writing to the person:
 - (i) general factual information about the nature of the cover provided by the product (including the period for which the cover will apply) and the role of the body in providing the financial services to which the product relates; and
 - (ii) a statement that the body will ensure that a person who requests a copy of the terms and conditions of the product will be given, without charge, a copy within a reasonable time after the request; and
 - (iii) information about any amounts payable by the person to obtain the cover under the product; and
 - (iv) if the body will receive payments (rebates) from the issuer of the product or any financial services licensee or their associates to arrange for the issue of a risk management product or for a person to be covered by an existing risk management product, the amounts (if any) that will be paid to the person to be covered by the product from those rebates or, if the amounts cannot be ascertained, general information about how the amounts will be determined; and

- (v) a statement that the body does not hold an Australian financial services licence and that the person should consider obtaining their own financial product advice about the product from a person who is able to give such advice under an Australian financial services licence; and
- (vi) information about the obligation described in subparagraph (c) and sufficient information relating to the facility described in subparagraph (d) to enable the person to use it; and
- (f) give ASIC full particulars in writing of matters that give the body reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with any requirement of subparagraphs (a) to (e) after 30 September 2009 within 10 business days of its having the reason to so believe.
