Section 1296(1)(c)
NOTICE OF DECISION

Matter No.: 01/WA06

WHEREAS:

A. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") made application to the Board pursuant to section 1292(1)(d) of the Act to have MAURICE LEE ANGHIE (the "Respondent"), a registered company auditor, dealt with under section 1292 of the Act, on the basis that the Respondent's conduct satisfies one or more of the criteria specified in paragraph 1292(1)(d) of the Act in relation to the audit of China West International Holdings Limited A.C.N. 009 230 111 ("CWH") for the year ended 30 June 2003 (the "Audit");

B. The Panel, pursuant to section 1294 of the Act, has provided ASIC and the Respondent with an opportunity to appear and make submissions to, and adduce evidence before, the Panel in relation to the matter; and

C. ASIC and the Respondent have conducted negotiations and reached a settlement, in respect of ASIC's Contentions, which ASIC and the Respondent have submitted to the Panel for approval.

AGREED FACTS:

1. ASIC and the Respondent agree upon the facts as set out below and, without admission of any liability to any third party, the Respondent admits that he failed to carry out or perform adequately and properly the duties of an auditor in relation to the Audit, as provided in paragraph 1292(1)(d)(i) of the Act, in the respects set out below:

2. On 10 March 2003, CWH entered into an agreement ("Share Sale Agreement") with Beltrading International Corp ("Beltrading") to purchase all of the shares in Chongqing Yuao Building Materials Co Ltd ("Chongqing"), then a wholly owned subsidiary of Beltrading, on the basis that the effective date of the sale would be 1 January 2003, with all accompanying rights and benefits accruing to CWH as of the effective date ("the Share Sale").

3. As consideration for the Share Sale, CWH was to issue shares to Beltrading equivalent to 90% of the enlarged capital of CWH and, thereby making CWH a subsidiary of Beltrading.

4. There were conditions precedent in the Share Sale Agreement to the Share Sale and the resulting acquisition by CWH of Chongqing, including that CWH's shareholders approve the increase in share capital and issue of shares to Beltrading. That approval was only obtained on 3 July 2003 and the issue of new shares by CWH to Beltrading as consideration for the acquisition of Chongqing occurred on 13 August 2003.

5. The owner of Beltrading had, prior to 30 June 2003, been providing financial support to CWH. In addition, the Share Sale Agreement restricted Beltrading's ability to control Chongqing without the written consent of CWH.

6. CWH's financial report for the year ended 30 June 2003 was prepared on a consolidated basis as though Chongqing was a subsidiary of CWH.

7. In exercising his professional judgment, the Respondent formed the opinion that CWH had obtained control of Chongqing during the year ended 30 June 2003, within the meaning of AASB 1024.

Accordingly, the Respondent did not consider it incorrect that CWH's consolidated accounts included Chongqing, and as the parent entity CWH's accounts included an investment in Chongqing as an asset, the shares issued post balance date as consideration for the acquisition were included in the parent entity's equity.

8. In accordance with this view, on 30 September 2003, the Respondent, as the appointed auditor for CWH, issued an unqualified audit opinion on the annual financial statements of CWH for the year ended 30 June 2003.

9. In fact, in order to consolidate accounts Chongqing needed to be the subsidiary of CWH within the meaning of the appropriate Standard and by reason of the Share Sale Agreement neither of those criteria were met because CWH did not "control" Chongqing within the meaning of that term in AASB 1024 as there is nothing in the Share Sale Agreement or in the other matters considered by the Respondent as set out in his April 2003 file note or in the prevailing circumstances that enabled CWH to dominate decision-making in relation to the financial or operating policies of Chongqing so as to require Chongqing to operate with CWH in pursuing the objectives of CWH.

10. The impact of the consolidation of Chongqing in CWH's accounts was material as outlined in the table below:

Net Assets (Liabilities); Extract from financial statements for year ended 30 June 2003 including Chongqing ($) 10,310,109; Extract from financial statements for year ended 30 June 2003 excluding Chongqing ($) (388,230)

Profit (Loss) from ordinary activities after income tax; Extract from financial statements for year ended 30 June 2003 including Chongqing ($) (199,788); Extract from financial statements for year ended 30 June 2003 excluding Chongqing ($) (530,998)

11. The pending acquisition of Chongqing, and its financial effect as from 1 January 2003, ought to have been disclosed in CWH's accounts as a detailed note.

12. The Respondent failed to qualify his audit report on the basis that CWH's accounts ought not to have been consolidated as though Chongqing was a subsidiary, as CWH had not obtained control of or ownership in Chongqing during the year ended 30 June 2003.

13. In addition, the Respondent failed in certain other respects to satisfy auditing standards in connection with the Audit.

14. Contrary to AUS 208 at .05 and .06 there is a lack of documentary evidence in the working papers for the Audit ("AWPs") to suggest that adequate consideration was given to the application of AASB 1024 to the acquisition of Chongqing. Although it is noted that the Respondent had prepared a file note in April 2003, while preparing an Independent Accountant's Report ("IAR") issued in June 2003 regarding the acquisition by CWH of Chongqing, in which he recorded his consideration and conclusion about the applicability of AASB 1024 and the preparation of CWH's accounts on a consolidated basis. The Respondent failed to copy and include this file note in the AWPs or otherwise refer to it in the AWPs.

15. Contrary to AUS 208 at .05 and .06 a file note of discussions with another audit partner and a senior manager concerning the issue of the Chongqing acquisition was not kept.

16. Contrary to AUS 502 at .02 the Respondent did not include in the AWPs any documentation which verified costs incurred by external parties in the acquisition of Chongqing and indicated which of these costs were capitalised, if any, and which were expensed and whether they were paid for by cash or by the issue of shares. It is again noted that the Respondent failed to copy and include in the AWPs documentation obtained while preparing the IAR which verified fees paid to external parties in the acquisition of Chongqing and recorded the capitalisation of costs.

17. The consolidation adjustment for Chongqing indicates a material discount on acquisition of A$431,430. This is inconsistent with the Share Sale Agreement, which reflects that consideration paid would be equal to the net asset value of Chongqing. Despite this apparent inconsistency, and contrary to AUS 208 at .05 and .06 and to AUS 502 at .02, the AWPs do not address how the discount on acquisition was derived. It is again noted that the Respondent did not copy and include in the AWPs notes that he made while preparing the IAR and which he updated at the time of the Audit, explaining how a discount on the acquisition of Chongqing of A$431,430 (representing approximately 3% of the total consideration) had been derived.

DECISION

It is the decision of the Panel that we are satisfied on the application by ASIC that on the basis of the Agreed Facts set out above, that the Respondent has failed to carry out or perform adequately and properly the duties of an auditor in relation to the Audit in accordance with section 1292(1)(d)(i) of the Act.

The Panel therefore orders that:

1. the Auditor be reprimanded pursuant to paragraph 1292(9)(a) of the Act; and
2. pursuant to section 223 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth) that the Respondent pay the costs of ASIC fixed at $4,000 within thirty (30) days of this order coming into effect.
