Exemption*National Credit Code – Subsection 203A(1) – Revocation and Exemption*Enabling legislation

1. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes this instrument under:
 - (a) paragraph 41(1)(a) of Schedule 2 to the National Consumer Credit Protection (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2009; and
 - (b) paragraph 109(1)(a) of the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (the Credit Act); and
 - (c) subsection 203A(1) of the National Credit Code (the Code).

Note: The Code is found in Schedule 1 to the Credit Act.

Title

2. This instrument is ASIC Instrument [15-0310].

Commencement

3. This instrument commences on the day it is signed.

Revocation

4. ASIC Instrument [11-0611] is revoked.

Exemption

5. A person (the credit provider) specified in Schedule A does not have to comply with:
 - (a) subsections 29(1) and (2) of the Credit Act; and
 - (b) the provisions of the Code (other than Part 1, Part 4, Division 3 of Part 5, Divisions 4 and 5 of Part 7 and Parts 12, 13 and 14).

Note 2: Subsection 29(4) of the Credit Act may provide a defence to a person who engages in a credit activity on behalf of another person that is exempt from subsections 29(1) and (2) of the Credit Act in relation to the credit activity under paragraph 109(1)(a) of the Credit Act.

Where exemption applies

6. The exemptions in paragraph 5 apply to credit activities engaged in by the credit provider in relation to the provision of credit to an eligible person under a credit contract, where:
 - (a) the credit is provided wholly or predominately:
 - (i) for personal, domestic or household purposes to the limit of $20,000; or
 - (ii) to purchase residential property or motor vehicles; and
 - (b) the interest rate charged under the credit contract does not exceed:
 - (i) for a credit contract with a fixed interest rate—the maximum rate that applies at the time of entering into the credit contract; or
 - (ii) for a credit contract with a variable interest rate—the maximum rate that applies from time to time; and
 - (c) the credit contract does not impose:
 - (i) credit fees and charges; or
 - (ii) a default rate of interest.
7. The exemptions in paragraph 5 apply for so long as the credit provider:
 - (a) is a member of an external dispute resolution scheme specified in ASIC Class Order [CO 10/249] or any instrument that replaces that Class Order; and
 - (b) has an internal dispute resolution procedure that:
 - (i) complies with the standards and requirements specified in ASIC Class Order [CO 10/250] or any instrument that replaces that Class Order; and
 - (ii) covers disputes in relation to credit activities engaged in by the credit provider or its representatives; and
 - (c) maintains adequate arrangements for compensating persons for loss or damage suffered because of a breach of a credit contract by the credit provider or a failure to comply with the terms of this instrument that satisfy any requirements prescribed for the purposes of paragraph 48(2)(a) of the Credit Act as if the credit provider were a licensee.
