PART 7.2A OF THE CORPORATIONS REGULATIONS 2001 INFRINGEMENT NOTICE

To: DJ Carmichael Pty Limited
Level 14
191 St. Georges Terrace
PERTH WA 6000

TAKE NOTICE: The Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") gives this infringement notice to DJ Carmichael Pty Limited ACN 003 058 857 ("DJ Carmichael") under regulation 7.2A.04 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 ("Regulations"). To comply with this notice DJ Carmichael must:

Pay a penalty to ASIC, on behalf of the Commonwealth, in the sum of $300,000.

This infringement notice is given on 21 August 2015.

The unique code for this notice as required by paragraph 7.2A.06(b) of the Regulations is MDP4950/14.

The terms defined in Rule 1.4.3 of the ASIC Market Integrity Rules (ASX Market) 2010 have the same meaning when used in this notice, including those set out in the Appendix to this notice. Certain additional defined terms used in this notice are also set out in the Appendix to this notice.

Alleged contravention and penalty

DJ Carmichael was a Trading Participant in the Market operated by the ASX at the relevant time and was therefore an entity required by subsection 798H(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act") to comply with the market integrity rules at that time.

DJ Carmichael is alleged to have contravened subsection 798H(1) of the Act by reason of contravening Rule 5.7.1(b)(i) of the ASIC Market Integrity Rules (ASX Market) 2010 ("MIR 5.7.1(b)(i)"), which provides that:

"A Market Participant must not make a Bid or Offer for, or deal in, any Products on account of any other person where the Market Participant intends to create a false or misleading appearance of active trading in any Product or with respect to the market for, or the price of, any Product."

On the evidence before it, the Markets Disciplinary Panel ("MDP") was satisfied that:

- 1) On 14 December 2010, DJ Carmichael commenced buying the fully paid ordinary units of LinQ Resources Fund ("LinQ Fund") having ASX code 'LRF', on behalf of LinQ Capital Limited ("LinQ Capital"), the Responsible Entity for LinQ Fund, pursuant to an On-Market buyback of LRF announced on 26 November 2010 ("LRF Buyback"). The DJ Carmichael Employee responsible for executing the LRF Buyback was a Designated Trading Representative or DTR for DJ Carmichael ("DJ Carmichael DTR").
- 2) From 14 December 2010 to 15 July 2011, the DJ Carmichael DTR entered Bids for LRF ("LRF Bids") and dealt in LRF pursuant to the LRF Buyback. Whilst LinQ Capital provided general instructions to the DJ Carmichael DTR regarding the LRF Buyback, the DJ Carmichael DTR had discretion regarding the price, volume and timing of the LRF Bids (although LinQ Capital's account was not a Managed Discretionary Account).
- 3) Although the DJ Carmichael DTR may initially have made LRF Bids and dealt in LRF for the genuine purpose of conducting the LRF Buyback, from 16 May 2011 to 15 July 2011 ("Relevant Period"), and possibly earlier, the DJ Carmichael DTR believed that LinQ Capital wanted him to execute Market Transactions in LRF with the aim of supporting the price of LRF. Consequently, during the Relevant Period, the DJ Carmichael DTR made Bids for, and dealt in LRF, with the intention of supporting the price of LRF thereby creating a false and misleading appearance with respect to the market for, or the price of, LRF, in breach of MIR 5.7.1(b)(i).
- 4) On 15 July 2011, the DJ Carmichael DTR sent an internal email ("July Email") to a junior DJ Carmichael Employee ("Junior Employee"), relevantly:
 - instructing that the LRF price was to be supported; and
 - outlining a strategy to support the LRF price.
- 5) DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF during the Relevant Period displayed characteristics consistent with an intention to support the price of LRF such that the closing price of LRF would not fall below a pre-determined price level, as evidenced by the relevant trading data, in that:
 - DJ Carmichael limited the entry of LRF Bids and purchases of LRF to situations where:
 - the price of LRF had decreased below the pre-determined price level; or
 - the price of LRF, absent the entry of the LRF Bids, would likely have decreased below the pre-determined price level;
 - the entry and execution of LRF Bids created significant price impact by creating a large percentage of total price increases, particularly price increases just before the close of trading and setting the closing price of LRF on 35 of the 44 Trading Days during the Relevant Period;
 - DJ Carmichael consistently relinquished opportunities to buy LRF at the lowest possible price and consistently purchased LRF at the highest prices at which LRF had traded on the relevant Trading Days, including in situations where there were cheaper buying opportunities earlier on those days; and

- DJ Carmichael created price impact for minimal consideration by limiting the buying, and therefore the cost, of purchasing LRF, including, among other things, by tailoring the LRF Bids to consume only a small proportion of the LRF on Offer at or below the LRF Bid price.
- 6) The relevant trading data also evidenced that:
- between 15 and 31 May 2011, DJ Carmichael traded with the intention of ensuring that the closing price of LRF did not fall below $0.94;
 - in early June 2011, DJ Carmichael continued to trade with the intention of ensuring that the closing price of LRF did not fall below $0.94. However, as the Offer side and market for LRF became volatile and the price of LRF deteriorated throughout June 2011, DJ Carmichael was no longer able to support the closing price of LRF at $0.94 without trading in large volumes. DJ Carmichael therefore amended its trading strategy during June 2011, progressively stepping up the price of LRF, or entering Bids low in priority which were unlikely to trade, with the apparent intention of creating an appearance of demand for LRF and to protect against further price decreases in LRF while minimising the cost of trading in LRF; and
 - between 1 and 15 July 2011, DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF was consistent with the strategy set out in the July Email, and with an intention of ensuring that the closing price of LRF did not fall below $0.84.
- 7) Pursuant to section 912E of the Act, ASIC sought DJ Carmichael's assistance in relation to DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF by letter dated 4 July 2011. This initially put DJ Carmichael on notice of ASIC's enquiries. On 19 July 2011, ASIC telephoned DJ Carmichael's Risk and Compliance team, and outlined ASIC's concerns regarding DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF, including closing high on late or last trades, following which DJ Carmichael commenced an investigation into the matter. DJ Carmichael subsequently engaged a lawyer and, on 26 July 2011, lodged a self-report pursuant to section 912D of the act. The self-report noted the July Email and advised that the email gave DJ Carmichael 'reason to believe inappropriate activity'.

By reason of DJ Carmichael during the Relevant Period having entered LRF Bids and dealt in LRF on account of LinQ Capital, where DJ Carmichael intended to create a false or misleading appearance with respect to the price of LRF (namely by making Bids for and trading in LRF with the aim of supporting the price of LRF), the MDP has reasonable grounds to believe that DJ Carmichael has contravened MIR 5.7.1(b)(i) and thereby contravened subsection 798H(1) of the Act.

Maximum pecuniary penalty that a Court could order

The maximum pecuniary penalty that a Court could order DJ Carmichael to pay for contravening subsection 798H(1) of the Act by reason of contravening MIR 5.7.1(b)(i), is $1,000,000.

The maximum pecuniary penalty that may be payable by DJ Carmichael under an infringement notice given pursuant to subsection 798K(2) of the Act by reason of allegedly contravening MIR 5.7.1(b)(i), is $600,000.

Penalty under the Infringement Notice

The penalty payable under this infringement notice for the alleged contravention of subsection 798H(1) of the Act and therefore the total penalty that DJ Carmichael must pay to the Commonwealth, is $300,000.

The penalty is payable to ASIC on behalf of the Commonwealth. Payment is made by bank cheque to the order of the "Australian Securities and Investments Commission".

In determining this matter and the appropriate pecuniary penalty to be applied, the MDP took into account all relevant guidance, including ASIC Regulatory Guide 216–Markets Disciplinary Panel, and noted in particular the following:

- That the remedies applied should:
 - promote market integrity and the confident and informed participation of investors in financial markets; and
 - act as a deterrent to any future misconduct by the subject person; and
 - also act as a general deterrent to others from engaging in the same or similar conduct;
- In the MDP's view, MIR 5.7.1(b)(i) is aimed at upholding market integrity i.e. that markets remain fair and efficient. Protecting against market misconduct and promoting the disclosure of important market-related information, is designed to ensure that investors can be confident in making sound investment decisions. The overall objective is an active market that facilitates the capital formation important to national economic growth and prosperity;
- In the context of domestically licensed financial markets the concept of market integrity is to be read in light of the objective in paragraph 760A(c) of the Act – 'to promote fair, orderly and transparent markets for financial products'. Fair, orderly and transparent means a level playing field (free from misconduct and synonymous with investor protection) characterised by sound ethical values and judgement where regular bids, offers and sales (past and real-time) can be seen and reflect genuine supply and demand (i.e. prices represent all publicly available information);
- Making Bids and dealing in a Product absent the intent to take a genuine or bona fide position in the market for that Product, is significant for the reason that the resultant trading data creates a false and misleading appearance of supply, demand and/or liquidity and ultimately price or market valuation. Among other things, trading data is used by investors in making informed decisions by being able to assess supply, demand and/or liquidity and ultimately price or market valuation. False and misleading trading data thereby distorts a market and has the potential to undermine investor or public confidence in that financial markets are level playing fields and that prices reflect all available information. A less active market inhibits capital formation which may result in lower national economic growth and prosperity. Accordingly, for these reasons, a breach of MIR 5.7.1(b)(i) is of a very serious nature;
- The misconduct giving rise to the contravention the subject of this matter was characterised as conduct of a dishonest and deliberate type;

- Manipulative trading for any period of time is significant. For that period of time to be approximately two months is unacceptable given the increased potential negative impact on market integrity;
- There was only one breach of MIR 5.7.1(b)(i) alleged;
- The misconduct was localised to the DJ Carmichael DTR's part. The MDP noted the involvement of the Junior Employee, however the Junior Employee's involvement was as a subordinate under instruction from a senior Employee or the DJ Carmichael DTR. Accordingly, the misconduct was not systemic in the sense that it was widespread and related to other parts of DJ Carmichael beyond the DJ Carmichael DTR's part;
- The benefit derived was commission to the value of $5,933.55. However the potential to derive benefit via goodwill was more significant. This was not viewed favourably by the MDP because it appeared that personal and commercial interests had been favoured over regulatory obligations. Additionally, the detriment to third parties was real and apparent;
- The misconduct impacted the financial market because the manipulative trading interfered with the fairness and efficiency of the market given it did not reflect genuine supply and demand. This had the potential to substantially damage public confidence;
- Of particular concern to the MDP, was the DJ Carmichael DTR's targeting of the LRF closing price i.e. to manipulate the price of LRF at the close of trading so that it was higher than might otherwise be the case. This was significant for the obvious reason that the closing price provides a daily reference price which represents the latest market valuation until the next Trading Day. Among other things, closing prices are used by investors in making informed decisions by being able to assess change in market valuation over time;
- That the DJ Carmichael DTR intended to support the price of LRF during the Relevant Period in particular with multiple Bids just before or on Market close and Bids executed for minimal value just before or on Market close such that the closing price of LRF would not fall below a pre-determined price, was not consistent with the dealings of a genuine buyer undertaking an On-Market buyback;
- Although DJ Carmichael had in place procedures for detecting breaches of the market integrity rules, these procedures failed to detect the breach the subject of this matter;
- The DJ Carmichael DTR's disregard for the market integrity rules and the intentional instruction of junior staff to disregard the same and engage in the perpetuation of the misconduct, was not viewed favourably by the MDP;
- Of particular concern to the MDP was the Junior Employee's apparent reluctance to bring to attention the misconduct. In the MDP's view, inaction, silence or the fear of speaking out, is indicative of a culture not conducive to compliance with the market integrity rules. That the Junior Employee remained silent after receipt of the July Email, and attempted to perpetuate the misconduct, appeared to be indicative of a corporate culture not conducive to compliance with the market integrity rules;
- Also of particular concern to the MDP was DJ Carmichael's lack of effective action after being alerted by ASIC letter on 4 July 2011 to DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF. Given DJ Carmichael's trading in LRF and the LRF Buyback on foot, it was reasonable in the circumstances to at the very least immediately escalate the said letter to senior management. However this was not done, nor was anything else done to the extent that it caused the misconduct to be detected and addressed. Accordingly, it appeared that as a result of the inaction, the manipulative trading in LRF continued unabated post 4 July 2011;

- While the MDP had regard to DJ Carmichael self-reporting the breach to ASIC, it also noted that it was ASIC who alerted DJ Carmichael to the misconduct, and made DJ Carmichael aware of the misconduct;
- DJ Carmichael took steps to prevent recurrence of the breach, including:
 - instigating an immediate investigation (including retaining external legal assistance) upon becoming aware of ASIC's concerns on 19 July 2011;
 - undertaking a detailed and considered review of its operations during which DJ Carmichael considered many commercial and compliance issues;
 - enhancing its procedures for ensuring compliance with the market integrity rules including by introducing random audits of trading by the DJ Carmichael Compliance Team; and
 - ceasing to be a Market Participant of the ASX on 19 April, instead submitting Orders through a third party service provider;
- DJ Carmichael took the alleged contravention very seriously and demonstrated contrition;
- DJ Carmichael had no prior contraventions found against it by the MDP, but had been sanctioned by the ASX Disciplinary Tribunal on three published occasions since 2007 relating respectively to discretionary trading, engaging in unprofessional conduct and inappropriate conduct during a buyback;
- DJ Carmichael co-operated with ASIC throughout ASIC's investigation and did not dispute any material facts; and
- DJ Carmichael agreed not to contest the alleged contravention, thereby saving time and costs that would otherwise have been expended.

Compliance with the Infringement Notice

DJ Carmichael may choose not to comply with this infringement notice, but if DJ Carmichael does not comply, civil proceedings may be brought against DJ Carmichael in relation to the alleged contravention.

To comply with this infringement notice, DJ Carmichael must pay the penalty within the compliance period. The compliance period:

- (a) starts on the day on which the infringement notice is given to DJ Carmichael; and
- (b) ends 27 days after the day on which the infringement notice is given to DJ Carmichael; unless an application is made for its extension.

DJ Carmichael may apply to ASIC for an extension of time to comply with this notice under regulation 7.2A.09 of the Regulations. If DJ Carmichael does so, and the application is granted, the compliance period ends at the end of the further period allowed.

If DJ Carmichael applies for a further period of time in which to comply with this notice, and the application is refused, the compliance period ends on the later of:

- (a) 28 days after the day on which the infringement notice was given to DJ Carmichael; and
- (b) 7 days after the notice of refusal is given to DJ Carmichael.

DJ Carmichael may apply to ASIC for withdrawal of this notice under regulation 7.2A.11 of the Regulations. If DJ Carmichael does so, and the application is refused, the compliance period ends 28 days after the notice of refusal is given to DJ Carmichael.

Effect of issue and compliance with the Infringement Notice

The effects of compliance with this infringement notice are:

- (a) any liability of DJ Carmichael to the Commonwealth for the alleged contravention of subsection 798H(1) of the Act is discharged;
- (b) no civil or criminal proceedings may be brought or continued by the Commonwealth against DJ Carmichael for the conduct specified in the infringement notice as being the conduct that made up the alleged contravention of subsection 798H(1) of the Act;
- (c) no administrative action may be taken by ASIC under section 914A, 915B, 915C or 920A of the Act against DJ Carmichael for the conduct specified in the infringement notice as being the conduct that made up the alleged contravention of subsection 798H(1) of the Act;
- (d) DJ Carmichael is not taken to have admitted guilt or liability in relation to the alleged contravention; and
- (e) DJ Carmichael is not taken to have contravened subsection 798H(1) of the Act.

Publication

ASIC may publish details of this infringement notice under regulation 7.2A.15 of the Regulations.

Susan Humphreys
Counsel to the Markets Disciplinary Panel with the authority of a Division of the Australian Securities & Investments Commission

Dated: 21 August 2015

Note: Members of the Markets Disciplinary Panel constitute a Division of ASIC as delegates of the members of the Division for the purposes of considering the allegations covered by this notice.
