Dear Mr Niven,

Consultation Paper 243: Remaking ASIC class orders on electronic lodgment of financial reports and dual lodgment relief

We refer to ASIC's Consultation Paper 243: Remaking ASIC class orders on electronic lodgment of financial reports and dual lodgment relief ("CP243"). We thank you for the opportunity to provide comment.

We have reviewed CP243 and noted the acknowledgement of the recent name change from Asia Pacific Stock Exchange Limited to Sydney Stock Exchange Limited. We note that the definition of each eligible financial market in the proposed Instrument includes a 3 letter identifier. Sydney Stock Exchange Limited will in future be identified by the 3 letters "SSX".

Otherwise, Sydney Stock Exchange supports the proposed extension of the instrument to our market and has no other comment upon the proposed Instrument. We would be pleased to receive copies of the relevant documentation appointing Sydney Stock Exchange as agent of ASIC for this purpose.

Yours sincerely,

David Lawrence
Chief Operating Officer
