Explanatory note

Purpose of Form 394

Form 394 is to be used to notify that the company intends to cease or has ceased to rely on the relief, provided by ASIC Corporations (Foreign-Controlled Company Reports) Instrument 2017/204, from the requirements to prepare, have audited and lodge accounts of a small proprietary company controlled by a foreign company. Refer to ASIC Corporations (Foreign-Controlled Company Reports) Instrument 2017/204 and Regulatory Guide 58 Reporting requirements — registered foreign companies and Australian companies with foreign company shareholders for further information.

Lodgement fee

Nil

Lodgement

Form 394 is to be lodged (unless an annual financial report for that financial year is lodged) during the period starting 3 months before the start of the financial year in which relief under ASIC Corporations (Foreign-Controlled Company Reports) Instrument 2017/204 ceased to be relied on and ending 4 months after the end of that financial year

Extension of time

Where Form 394 is not lodged within the required time, or an annual financial report is not lodged for the relevant financial year, the company will not be able to again rely on the relief available under ASIC Corporations (Foreign-Controlled Company Reports) Instrument 2017/204 for a future financial year. ASIC will consider granting an extension of time to lodge Form 394 where the extension of time is granted before the reporting date for a financial year in which a company intends to again rely on the relief under the instrument. Refer to Regulatory Guide 58 for further details.
