Australian Securities and Investments Commission Corporations Act 2001 — Subsection 259C(2) — Revocation and Exemption

Enabling legislation

1. The Australian Securities and Investments Commission makes this instrument under subsection 259C(2) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act).

Title

2. This instrument is ASIC Instrument 26-0353.

Commencement

3. This instrument commences on the day it is signed.

Revocation

4. ASIC Instrument 24-0667 is revoked upon commencement of this instrument.

Exemption

5. Macquarie Group Limited ACN 122 169 279 (Macquarie) is exempt from the operation of section 259C of the Act.

Where exemption applies

6. The exemption applies to the issue or transfer of Macquarie shares or units of shares of Macquarie in any of the following circumstances:
  - (a) an issue to a prescribed controlled entity made under:
    - (i) Exceptions 1, 4, 6, 7 or 14 in Rule 7.2 of the ASX Listing Rules; or
    - (ii) Exception 9 in Rule 7.2 of the ASX Listing Rules on the conversion of convertible securities but only to the extent the convertible securities were issued under an exception specified in sub-subparagraph (i); or
    - (iii) a placement of shares made by Macquarie where:
      - (A) no more than 15% of the shares issued in the placement are allocated to all controlled entities; and
      - (B) participation in the placement by controlled entities is on the same or no more favourable terms as the terms for other participants; or
  - (b) a transfer to a prescribed controlled entity:
    - (i) effected on a prescribed financial market and not by way of a special crossing; or
    - (ii) made in accordance with the instructions of a client of an IDPS, an investor in a superannuation fund or an agent of an investor in a superannuation fund, provided that the client or investor is not a controlled entity of Macquarie; or
    - (iii) under or as a result of a transaction with a controlled entity that:

26-0353

- (A) where Part 5C.7 of the Act applies to the transaction—does not contravene that Part; or
  - (B) otherwise—would not contravene Chapter 2E of the Act if that Chapter applied as if s214 of the Act were omitted; or
- (iv) made in accordance with the direction of a client, or agent of a client, where the client is not a controlled entity of Macquarie and the transferee is an entity covered by paragraph (f) of the definition of “prescribed controlled entity” in this instrument:
  - (A) where Part 5C.7 of the Act applies to the transaction — does not contravene that Part; or
  - (B) otherwise—would not contravene Chapter 2E of the Act if that Chapter applied as if s214 of the Act were omitted; or
- (c) a transfer to a controlled entity pursuant to the settlement of a derivative that was entered into for the purpose of satisfying an award or entitlement to an employee under an employee incentive scheme that:
  - (i) where Part 5C.7 of the Act applies to the transaction—does not contravene that Part; or
  - (ii) otherwise—would not contravene Chapter 2E of the Act if that Chapter applied as if s214 of the Act were omitted; or
- (d) a transfer to a controlled entity set out in the Schedule for the purposes of:
  - (i) index arbitrage transactions; or
  - (ii) acquiring Macquarie shares as part of a portfolio of securities to exchange for, or upon the redemption of, interests in an exchange traded fund on behalf of a client; or
  - (iii) acquiring Macquarie shares as part of an exchange for physical transaction (within the meaning of Rule [4800] of the ASX 24 Operating Rules as in force when this instrument is signed) for a client; or
  - (iv) index and basket derivative hedging; or
  - (v) basket facilitation transactions; or
  - (vi) basket securities lending transactions,where:
  - (vii) in relation to transfers for the purposes of the activities in paragraphs 6(d)(i) to 6(d)(v), the transfer is made only in accordance with the market integrity rules and operating rules applicable to the prescribed financial market or is as a result of a transaction between controlled entities; and
  - (viii) in relation to transfers for the purposes of the activities in paragraph 6(d)(vi), the transfer is made pursuant to a securities lending arrangement; or
- (e) an issue to a controlled entity set out in the Schedule made under:

26-0353

- (i) Exceptions 1, 4, 6, or 7 in Rule 7.2 of the ASX Listing Rules; or
- (ii) Exception 9 in Rule 7.2 of the ASX Listing Rules on the conversion of convertible securities but only to the extent the convertible securities were issued under an exception specified in sub- subparagraph (i), with respect to Macquarie shares held by such a controlled entity in connection with the activities in paragraphs 6(d)(i) to 6(d)(vi).

7. The exemption does not apply unless Macquarie has given to ASIC a deed for the benefit of, and enforceable by, ASIC under which Macquarie undertakes:
- (a) to ensure that a controlled entity does not exercise votes attached to shares issued or transferred in reliance on the exemption in paragraph 6 other than where, in circumstances of an issue or transfer to a prescribed controlled entity of the kind referred to in paragraph (c), (f) or (g) of the definition of prescribed controlled entity, the votes are exercised by the entity in accordance with the directions of a client; and
  - (b) the number of votes attached to all voting shares of Macquarie in respect of which Macquarie or its controlled entities have the power to control voting or disposal, except for:
    - (i) Qualifying ESS Shares;
    - (ii) Buying Period ESS Shares;
    - (iii) Qualifying Hedging Shares; and
    - (iv) DRP Shares,does not exceed 5% of the total number of votes attached to all voting shares of Macquarie; and
  - (c) in calculating the percentage referred to in paragraph 7(b), include only those Macquarie shares underlying a derivative where Macquarie or its controlled entity has the power to control the voting of those underlying shares; and
  - (d) in relation to a prescribed controlled entity of the kind referred to in paragraph (d) of the definition of prescribed controlled entity - the aggregate amount of assets in the investment-linked statutory fund's retained profits and shareholder capital accounts that can be invested in Macquarie's shares is no more than 3% of the level of funds in those accounts that are required to satisfy any capital requirements imposed by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority; and
  - (e) to disclose to ASX:
    - (i) in the first instance, within 2 business days of the commencement of this instrument, in the second instance, within 2 business days after the end of 3 months from the date the last disclosure was made in respect of relief under ASIC Instrument 24-0667 and thereafter within 2 business days after the end of 3 months from the date of the last disclosure that was made under this paragraph:
      - (A) the number of voting shares of Macquarie in respect of which it or its controlled entities have the power to control voting or disposal expressed as a percentage of the total number of voting shares of Macquarie;

26-0353

- (B) the number of voting shares of Macquarie that underlie derivatives held by Macquarie or its controlled entities for the purposes of hedging its obligations to employees under an employee incentive scheme expressed as a percentage of the total number of voting shares of Macquarie; and
    - (C) the number of voting shares of Macquarie in respect of which it or its controlled entities have a net economic exposure expressed as a percentage of the total number of voting shares of Macquarie, excluding any voting shares reported under (B) above; and
  - (ii) no later than before the end of 2 business days after the day on which Macquarie become aware of the movement, any movement of at least 1% in any of the percentages referred to in sub-subparagraph (i), and, in making the disclosures in (i) and (ii), to include the details set out in subsection 671B(3) of the Act as if section 671B applied;
  - (iii) a copy of this instrument within 2 business days of the commencement of this instrument; and
- (f) to:
- (i) keep records of acquisitions and disposals of shares of Macquarie and derivatives by it and its controlled entities for a period of at least 12 months after the date of the acquisition or disposal; and
  - (ii) within five business days after receipt of a written request, make those records available for inspection by ASIC; and
- (g) that Macquarie shares will not comprise more than 10% (by value) of any index or basket transaction at the date such transaction is entered into; and
- (h) that the net economic exposure through index arbitrage transactions of the controlled entities to Macquarie voting shares must not exceed 5% of the shares that would form a perfect hedge; and
- (i) that the voting power of controlled entities in Macquarie from shares acquired for index arbitrage transactions must not exceed 0.5% of Macquarie voting shares on issue; and
- (j) that for index and basket derivative hedging, the controlled entities must ensure that all pricing models are created independently of trading staff and have been independently verified. There must also be independent review of market data variables on a daily basis; and
- (k) that for basket securities lending transactions:
- (i) Macquarie shares must be acquired under a securities lending arrangement; and
  - (ii) Macquarie shares must not be held in excess of 3 trading days except where circumstances outside of the controlled entity's control cause a delay; and
- (l) Macquarie will give a written notice to ASIC within five business days after becoming aware that it has failed to comply with the terms of the deed, other than in an immaterial respect, and setting out the details of the non-compliance; and
- (m) Macquarie will clearly disclose the aggregate number and percentage of:

26-0353

- (i) total voting shares acquired for the purpose of employee share schemes (including by itemising any Buying Period ESS Shares and Qualifying Hedging Shares); and
  - (ii) DRP Shares,
- in substantial shareholder notices given by Macquarie in relation to Macquarie shares under Part 6C.1 of the Act; and
- (n) that in relation to a transfer of the kind referred to in paragraph 6(c), the voting shares must either be:
    - (i) transferred to the employee or to the trustee of the employee share scheme; or
    - (ii) if the shares are found to be in excess of the requirements of the employee incentive scheme, sold in a transaction effected on a prescribed financial market (and not by way of a special crossing) to a person other than a controlled entity of Macquarie, as soon as practicable and in any event within 14 days of the transfer to the controlled entity, except that where, if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a transfer or sale of the voting shares within that timeframe would contravene any applicable laws of Australia, the transfer or sale must take place at the earliest time practicable after the time that the transfer or sale would not result in a contravention of those laws; and

  - (o) to maintain robust insider trading and market conduct protocols applicable to any purchase of DRP Shares, covering Macquarie and any third parties engaged by Macquarie for the purposes of the acquisition of the DRP Shares; and
  - (p) not to exercise any power to control or influence the control of voting over any Buying Period ESS Shares, Qualifying Hedging Shares and DRP Shares.
8. The exemption of Buying Period ESS Shares, Qualifying Hedging Shares and DRP Shares from the 5% limit in paragraph 7(b) ceases to apply 24 months from the date of this instrument, unless otherwise agreed by ASIC in writing.

Prescribed financial market has the meaning given by s9 of the Act;

Qualifying ESS Shares means a Macquarie voting share:

- (a) that was not acquired in reliance on an exemption given under s259C(2) of the Act;
- (b) that was acquired for the purposes of an award under an employee share scheme (ESS) where:
  - i. subject to paragraphs (b)iv, and (b)v, of this definition, the share is allocated to a particular employee;
  - ii. the employee can direct the voting of the share allocated to them under the ESS;
  - iii. Macquarie has provided ASIC with an undertaking in the deed referred to at paragraph 7 that it will ensure that subject to any restrictions or requirements applicable under the Financial Accountability Regime or any FAR Equivalent Laws: (A) the employee can direct acceptance of an offer with respect to the share allocated to them under the ESS into an Advanced

26-0353

Takeover; and (B) the ESS will not prevent the transfer or cancellation of the share under a merger by scheme of arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Act (if approved by the requisite majorities and the Court). The shares can be returned to the ESS if the Advanced Takeover does not become unconditional;

- iv. any voting shares in Macquarie that are acquired for the purpose of an award to an employee under the ESS which are not allocated for that purpose on or before the proposed final grant date for that award, must be:
  - a. allocated or retained in connection with another employee incentive award or sold, within 31 days of the proposed final grant date of the first mentioned award; or
  - b. allocated or retained in connection with another employee incentive award or sold, within 60 days of the proposed final grant date of the award, if the first mentioned award was not made due to circumstances outside Macquarie's control, where, if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that an allocation, retention or sale of voting shares within the timeframe specified in subparagraphs iv.a. or iv.b. would contravene any applicable laws of Australia, the reallocation, retention or sale must take place at the earliest time practicable after the time that the allocation, retention or sale would not result in a contravention of those laws; and

- v. where a power held by Macquarie or its controlled entity to control disposal of the voting share becomes presently exercisable:
  - A. as a result of an employee forfeiting their entitlement to voting shares under an ESS, subject to subparagraph B those shares must be reallocated or retained in connection with another employee incentive award or sold, within 60 days of the employee's entitlement being forfeited; and
  - B. where there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a reallocation, retention or sale of voting shares in Macquarie within the timeframes specified by subparagraph v.A would contravene any applicable laws of Australia, the reallocation, retention or sale must take place at the earliest time practicable after the time that the reallocation, retention or sale would not result in a contravention of those laws;

- (c) that was acquired at a time when there are no unallocated voting shares except as referred to in paragraph (b)iv and (b)v of this definition, unless the amount equal to the number of shares to be acquired for the ESS plus the number of those unallocated shares does not exceed the aggregate of:
  - i. a genuine estimate of the total number of voting shares to be acquired in connection with all extant awards Macquarie and its controlled entities have offered to make under that scheme; and
  - ii. 0.1% of Macquarie's voting shares; and

26-0353

- (d) over which Macquarie and its controlled entities do not have the power to control or influence the control of voting and have the power to control the disposal of, or influence the control of disposal of, only in the following circumstances and then only in accordance with the rules of the relevant ESS:
- i. in the event of forfeiture by an employee of their entitlements under the ESS;
  - ii. to facilitate the payment or the reimbursement of payment of tax or stamp duty;
  - iii. where applicable laws preclude or restrict the issue or transfer of shares to an employee;
  - iv. where an employee is under a legal, physical or mental disability, in which case the shares will be transferred to a person to be held for the benefit of the employee;
  - v. in connection with the appointment of a new trustee under the ESS; or
  - vi. to transfer or sell the shares to, or in accordance with a direction of, the employee;

Qualifying Hedging Share means a Macquarie voting share:

- (a) that was acquired on a one-for-one basis in connection with an award under an employee share scheme for the purposes of hedging Macquarie's or a controlled entity's obligations to employees in relation to an existing DSU under an employee share scheme;
- (b) that is held by the trustee of the employee share scheme; and
- (c) that, together with all other Qualifying Hedging Shares, does not exceed the total number of DSUs on issue at the relevant time, provided that the maximum number of Qualifying Hedging Shares is 2% of the total number of all voting shares of Macquarie;

relevant interest has the meaning given by Part 6.1 of the Act;

securities lending arrangement has the meaning given by section 1020AA of the Act;

short position means an economic exposure where the value of the arrangement increases with a decrease in the price or value of Macquarie voting shares;

special crossing has the meaning given by the operating rules of the prescribed financial market as in force as at the date of this instrument;

statutory fund has the meaning given by section 29 of the Life Insurance Act 1995;

- (b) for the purposes of sub-subparagraph 7(e)(i), the number of shares of Macquarie in respect of which it or its controlled entities have a net economic exposure to voting shares of Macquarie will be the number of voting shares of Macquarie that is represented by the difference between the number of such shares referenced under any long position and the number referenced under any short position held by Macquarie or any of its controlled entities; and

26-0353

- (c) for the purposes of sub-subparagraph 7(e)(ii), there is a movement of at least 1% in a percentage referred to in sub-subparagraph 7(e)(i) if the percentage increases or decreases by one or more percentage points from the percentage last disclosed under subparagraph 7(e).
