

Lenore Dembski

Kungarakan woman from Darwin, contemporary Aboriginal fashion designer, owner of 'Paperbark Woman'.

Working in my business feels meaningful, makes me happy and gives me a deep and enduring sense of fulfilment

Business aim

Creating a collaborative, dynamic and supportive culture.

What drives you?

Giving back to society, cultivating the next generation and helping other people accomplish their goals and reach their potential.

Business skills

The skills we need for business can be accumulated throughout our lives ... we need to keep educating ourselves.

Business planning

- I am always researching, exploring and developing new and existing opportunities.
- I've grown the business slowly and organically – to fit with my overall life plan.
- I plan constantly and remain flexible, so I can change with the demands of my life.

“ Seek a balance between making a profit and helping other people ,,”

For more information: www.paperbarkwoman.com.au

Celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women in business

ASIC
Australian Securities &
Investments Commission

ASIC's
MONEYSMART
Financial guidance you can trust