Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraph 911A(2)(l) — Exemption

Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts Standard Life Investments Limited incorporated in the United Kingdom (the body) from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence in the case referred to in Schedule A on the conditions set out in Schedule B for so long as they apply.

Schedule A

Where:

1. all of the following apply:
 - (a) the body has a current Part IV Permission; and
 - (aa) the body is a body corporate incorporated in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) the body:
 - (i) is registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act; or
 - (ii) has not failed for more than the last 10 business days to have an Agent; and
 - (c) the body's primary business is the provision of financial services; and
 - (d) neither the body nor its Agent has been notified by ASIC that the body is excluded from relying on this instrument; and
 - (e) if the body becomes aware or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedule B:
 - (i) 15 business days have not passed since the body became so aware or should reasonably have become so aware without the body providing full particulars of the failure to ASIC (to the extent that the body knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries); and
 - (ii) 30 business days have not passed from ASIC receiving those particulars from the body without ASIC notifying the body that it may continue to rely on this instrument; and
 - (f) the body has not notified ASIC that it will not rely on this instrument.

- (aa) notify ASIC by 31 March and 30 September of each year in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing:
- (i) either:
 - (A) of the details of each significant change (a notifiable regulatory change) to the Brazilian regulatory requirements (including in the power or authority of the CVM to supervise, monitor or procure compliance by the body with the Brazilian regulatory requirements with respect to the provision of the financial services) in the 6 months (the notification period) ending on the 15th day of the month by the end of which the notification is required that is relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction and is not a change that ASIC has stated in writing is not required to be notified for the purpose of this instrument; or
 - (B) where there have been no notifiable regulatory changes—that there have been no notifiable regulatory changes; and
 - (ii) either:
 - (A) of the details of each enforcement or disciplinary action (a notifiable regulatory action) taken by the CVM or any other overseas regulatory authority against the body during the notification period; or
 - (B) where there have been no notifiable regulatory actions—that there have been no notifiable regulatory actions; and
- (b) provide written disclosure to all persons to whom the financial services are provided in this jurisdiction (before the financial services are provided) containing prominent statements to the following effect:
- (i) the body is exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence under the Act in respect of the financial services; and
 - (ii) the body is regulated by the CVM under Brazilian laws, which differ from Australian laws.
