Corporations Act 2001 — Paragraph 911A(2)(l) — Exemption

0 5 / 0 5 5 2

Under paragraph 911A(2)(h) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts the persons referred to in Schedule A from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence in the case referred to in Schedule B.

Schedule A

LaSalle Investment Management (Securities) L.P. (the body) in the case that all of the following apply:

- (a) the body is a registered investment adviser;
- (aa) the body is a partnership formed in the US or a State of the US;
- (b) the body has not failed for more than the last 10 business days to have an Agent;
- (c) the body's primary business is the provision of financial services;
- (d) neither the body nor its Agent has been notified by ASIC that the body is excluded from relying on this instrument;
- (e) if the body becomes aware or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedule C:
 - (i) 15 business days have not passed since the body became so aware or should reasonably have become so aware without the body providing full particulars of the failure to ASIC (to the extent that the body knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries); and
 - (ii) 30 business days have not passed from ASIC receiving those particulars from the body without ASIC notifying the body that it may continue to rely on this instrument; and
- (f) the body has not notified ASIC that it will not rely on this instrument.

Schedule B

Where:

1. the body provides any of the following financial services (the financial services) in this jurisdiction to wholesale clients:
 - (a) providing financial product advice;
 - (b) dealing in a financial product;
 - (c) making a market for a financial product; or
 - (d) providing a custodial or depository service;
 in respect of any of the following financial products:
 - (e) derivatives;
 - (f) foreign exchange contracts;
 - (g) securities;

- (h) debentures, stocks or bonds issued by a government; or
- (i) interests in a managed investment scheme that is not required to be registered under Chapter 5C of the Act; and/or

0 5 / 0 5 5 2

1A. the body provides any of the following financial services in this jurisdiction to wholesale clients:

- (a) providing financial product advice; or
- (b) dealing in a financial product, where dealing is restricted to the following conduct:
 - (i) applying for or acquiring a financial product;
 - (ii) varying a financial product; or
 - (iii) disposing a financial product;

in respect of the following financial product:

- (f) interests in a managed investment scheme that is required to be registered under Chapter 5C of the Act; and

2. the body has provided ASIC with:

- (a) evidence that paragraph (a) of Schedule A is satisfied that ASIC has stated in writing is adequate;
- (b) a notice that it will provide financial services in this jurisdiction in reliance on this instrument;
- (c) a deed of the body for the benefit of and enforceable by ASIC and the other persons referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act that applies notwithstanding that the body may have ceased to rely, or never have relied, on this instrument, which deed provides that:
 - (i) the deed is irrevocable except with the prior written consent of ASIC;
 - (ii) the body submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts in legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise;
 - (iii) the body covenants to comply with any order of an Australian court in respect of any matter relating to the provision of the financial services;
 - (iv) if the body is not registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act, service of process on the body in relation to legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise can be effected by service on the Agent; and
 - (v) the body covenants that, on written request of either the SEC or ASIC, it will give or vary written consent and take all other practicable steps to enable and assist the SEC to disclose to ASIC and ASIC to disclose to the SEC any information or document that the SEC or ASIC has that relates to the body; and

05 / 0552

- (d) written consents to the disclosure by the SEC to ASIC and ASIC to the SEC of any information or document that the SEC or ASIC has that relates to the body. The consents must be in such form (if any) as ASIC specifies in writing.

Schedule C

1. The body must provide each of the financial services in this jurisdiction in a manner which would comply, so far as is possible, with the US regulatory requirements if the financial service were provided in the US in like circumstances.
2. The body must:
 - (a) notify ASIC, as soon as practicable and in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing, of the details of:
 - (i) each significant change to, including the termination of, the registration as a registered investment adviser applying to the body relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) each significant particular exemption or other relief which the body obtains from the US regulatory requirements relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction;
 - (aa) notify ASIC by 31 March and 30 September of each year in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing:
 - (i) either:
 - (A) of the details of each significant change (a notifiable regulatory change) to the US regulatory requirements (including the power or authority of the SEC to supervise, monitor or procure compliance by the body with the US regulatory requirements with respect to the provision of financial services) in the 6 months (the notification period) ending on the 15th day of the month by the end of which the notification is required that is relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction and is not a change that ASIC has stated in writing is not required to be notified for the purpose of this instrument; or
 - (B) where there have been no notifiable regulatory changes – that there have been no notifiable regulatory changes; and
 - (ii) either:
 - (A) of the details of each enforcement or disciplinary action (a notifiable regulatory action) taken by the SEC or any other overseas regulatory authority against the body during the notification period; or
 - (B) where there have been no notifiable regulatory actions – that there have been no notifiable regulatory actions; and
 - (b) provide written disclosure to all persons to whom the financial services are provided in this jurisdiction (before the financial services are provided) containing prominent statements to the following effect:
 - (i) the body is exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence under the Act in respect of the financial services; and

05 / 0552

- (ii) the body is regulated by the SEC under US laws, which differ from Australian laws.

Australian Securities and Investments Commission Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) – Declaration

Under paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act") the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to the person referred to in the Schedule until 30 June 2005 as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5) and (6), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):

" (5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal from the scheme where the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated:

- (a) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
- (b) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.

(6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:

- (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
- (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount:
 - (i) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
 - (ii) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.

(7) In this section:

05 / 0554

information memorandum means a document provided to wholesale clients, as defined in section 761G, in connection with the offer to issue, offer to arrange for the issue or the issue of interests in the scheme; and transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met."

 - "(6) This subsection covers the circumstances in which:
 - (a) the offer is made within 12 months after the issue of the financial product; and
 - (b) the product was issued without a Product Disclosure Statement for the product being prepared; and
 - (c) the issuer issued the product with the purpose of the person to whom it was issued selling or transferring the product, or granting, issuing or transferring interests in, or options or warrants over, the product.
 - (7) Unless the contrary is proved, financial products are taken to be issued with the purpose referred to in paragraph 6(c) if any of the financial products are subsequently sold, or offered for sale, within 12 months after their issue."

Schedule A

The issue of Stapled Securities upon the exchange of CARS, where:

- (i) at the time of the offer to issue the CARS, retail clients received the Offer Document, and
- (ii) the Offer Document complied with sections 1013C, 1013D, 1013E and 1013F as if the offer had been to issue Stapled Securities at the time the CARS were to be issued.

Schedule B

Stapled Securities issued upon the exchange of CARS for Stapled Securities in accordance with the terms and conditions outlined in the Offer Document.

Interpretation

0 5 / 0 5 5 9

In this instrument:

Except where otherwise stated, references to provisions are references to provisions of the Act;

CARS means Convertible Adjusting Reset Securities, being interests in the Transurban CARS Trust ARSN 103 090 928 ("CARS Trust").

Offer Document means the combined product disclosure statement and replacement prospectus lodged with ASIC on 25 February 2003 by the Transurban Group and TIML, in its capacity as the responsible entity of the CARS Trust.

Stapled Securities means an interest in Transurban Holdings Trust ARSN 098 807 419 ("THT"), and a share in each of Transurban Limited ACN 098 143 410 ("TL") and Transurban Holdings Limited ACN 098 143 429 ("THL"), which, under the terms on which each is traded, must be transferred together; and Transurban Group means TL, THL and TIML in its capacity as responsible entity for THT.

 - (6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:
 - (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
 - (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
 - (7) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on the time at which the amount of proceeds will be calculated where the responsible entity discloses the time at which those proceeds will be calculated in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision.
 - (8) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for:
 - (a) any application fee that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme;

2

provided that:

05 / 05 60

- (b) the constitution states the maximum amount of application fees that will be charged to acquire an interest in the scheme; and
- (c) each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of application fees that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme.

(9) In this section:

application fee means the fee (if any) that must be paid to the responsible entity to acquire an interest in the scheme, which is determined by the responsible entity and does not exceed 5 % of the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme;

transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets, merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met."

- (i) the methodology by which it will normally determine adjustments to the unit price to reflect differences between the assets and liabilities including differential fees referable to each class; and
 - (ii) if the application of any such normal methodology would not give rise to a fair treatment of members who hold interests of different classes – the basis on which an adjustment is made, the reason the normal methodology would not have given rise to a fair treatment and why it is considered that the adjustment that is made gives rise to a fair treatment;
- (c) discloses the following matters in each Product Disclosure Statement:
 - (i) a statement that more than one class of units may be issued;
 - (ii) a statement of the class or classes of units issued under the Product Disclosure Statement;
 - (iii) a statement that different classes of units may involve different fee structures, but different fee structures must be fair between classes;
 - (iv) a statement that the price to acquire or dispose of an interest in the scheme are calculated on the basis of the net asset value of the scheme and adjusted to take account of the differences between the assets and liabilities (including fees and expenses) referable to each class;
 - (v) a statement that, generally, if expenses relate to one class, they will be attributed to that class and if they relate to all classes they will be apportioned on the basis of the value of the scheme referable to each class; and
 - (vi) a statement that there may be some circumstances where apportionment on the basis of value is not fair in which case the responsible entity may apportion the expenses in a manner that it determines is fair between the classes; and
- (d) each Product Disclosure Statement provides a worked example of circumstances in which an apportionment of assets or liabilities or both assets and liabilities based on value may not be fair between the classes and how an apportionment that is considered by the responsible entity to be fair between the classes may be made in those circumstances.

(8) In this section:

net asset value means the value of the assets of the scheme minus the value of the liabilities of the scheme;

Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 1020F(1)(a) of the Act, ASIC exempts an employee of the persons covered by paragraph 1 above, from Part 7.9 where the employee makes a recommendation to acquire financial products under an eligible offer that does not involve a contribution plan, except where the employee is aware, or ought reasonably to be aware, that any of the conditions set out in the Schedule have not been met.

Second Exemption: licensing and hawking relief

3. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) ASIC exempts a person who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 because of the First Exemption (other than because the person made a recommendation to acquire financial products) from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a financial service consisting of general advice reasonably given in connection with an offer referred to in the First Exemption (including any general advice given in the offer document) where the offer document for the offer includes a statement to the effect that any advice given by the person in connection with the offer is general advice only, and that eligible employees should consider obtaining their own financial product advice from an independent person who is licensed by ASIC to give such advice.
4. Under paragraph 911A(2)(l) ASIC exempts a person who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 because of the First Exemption from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of the following financial services:
 - (a) the provision of a custodial or depositary service in connection with an eligible offer covered by the First Exemption where the provider of the service performs their duties in good faith and has sufficient resources to perform those duties; and

- (b) dealing in a financial product in the course of providing a custodial or depository service covered by paragraph (a); and
 - (c) dealing in a financial product in connection with an eligible offer covered by the First Exemption and in circumstances where any acquisition by purchase or disposal of the financial product occurs outside this jurisdiction and through a person who is licensed or otherwise authorised to deal in those financial products in the relevant place.
5. Under paragraphs 741(1)(a) and 992B(1)(a) ASIC exempts a person who is exempt from Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 because of the First Exemption from sections 736, 992A and 992AA in relation to offers made in the course of, or because of, unsolicited meetings or telephone calls reasonably held or made in connection with the offer.

Schedule

The following conditions apply:

1. the person making the offer must:
 - (a) include that offer in an offer document; and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that any eligible employee to whom the offer is made is given a copy of the offer document; and
 - (c) provide to ASIC a copy of the offer document (which need not contain details of the offer particular to the eligible employee such as the identity or entitlement of the eligible employee) and of each accompanying document not later than 7 days after the first provision of that material to an eligible employee; and
2. the issuer must comply (or, in the case of an issuer which does not have a registered office in this jurisdiction, cause an associated body corporate which does so have a registered office to comply) with any undertaking required to be made in the offer document by reason of this instrument; and
3. in the case where the HSBC Share Plan may involve the issue of shares (including pursuant to units of shares or other rights in respect of shares), the issuer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the number of shares the subject of the offer or to be received on exercise of an option when aggregated with:
 - (a) the number of shares in the same class which would be issued were each outstanding offer with respect to shares, units of shares and options to acquire unissued shares, under an employee share scheme to be accepted or exercised; and
 - (b) the number of shares in the same class issued during the previous 5 years pursuant to the employee share scheme or any other employee share scheme extended only to eligible employees of the issuer;

but disregarding any offer made, or option acquired or share issued by way of or as a result of:

- (c) an offer to a person situated at the time of receipt of the offer outside this jurisdiction; or
- (d) an offer that was an excluded offer or invitation within the meaning of the Corporations Law as in force before the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Corporate Law Economic Reform Program Act 1999; or
- (e) an offer that did not need disclosure to investors because of section 708; or
- (f) an offer that did not require the giving of a Product Disclosure Statement because of section 1012D; or
- (g) an offer made under a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement, must not exceed 5% of the total number of issued shares in that class of the issuer as at the time of the offer; and

4. the issuer must keep at its registered office in this jurisdiction (or, in the case of an issuer which does not have a registered office in this jurisdiction, cause an associated body corporate which does so have a registered office) and make available to ASIC, upon request, a register of participants containing the following:
 - (a) the name and address of each participant;
 - (b) the extent of the holding of each participant;
 - (c) the date at which the name of each participant was entered in the register; and
 - (d) the date at which any participant's participation ceased.
5. the issuer must at all times ensure that the number of participants in the HSBC Share Plan must not exceed 5% of the total number of persons participating in the HSBC Share Plan; and
6. the financial services referred to in paragraph 4 of the Second Exemption are offered by the trustees to the participants solely for the purpose of the HSBC Share Plan.

Note: where a document must be provided in writing it may be provided by electronic means. See s5C of the Act and s25 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Interpretation

In this instrument:

1. except where otherwise stated, references to provisions are to provisions of the Act;
2. the HSBC Share Plan shall not be regarded as extended to a person other than an eligible employee only because such an employee may renounce an offer of financial products made to them under the scheme in favour of their nominee;
3. "Abacus" means Abacus Corporate Trustee Limited, a foreign trust company incorporated under the laws of Jersey;

4. "Abacus trust deed" means the trust deed dated 21 February 2001 made between the issuer and Abacus relating to the HSBC Holdings Employee Benefit Trust 2001 (No. 2);
5. "approved foreign market" means:

 - (b) NASDAQ National Market;
6. "associated body corporate" of an issuer means:
 - (a) a body corporate that is a related body corporate of the issuer; or
 - (b) a body corporate that has voting power in the issuer of not less than 20%; or
 - (c) a body corporate in which the issuer has voting power of not less than 20%;
7. "Australian dollar equivalent" in relation to a price, means a price calculated by reference to the relevant exchange rate published by an Australian bank no earlier than the business day before the day to which the price relates;
8. "Computershare" means Computershare (C.I.) Limited, a foreign trust company incorporated under the laws of Jersey;
9. "Computershare trust deed" means the trust deed dated 15 March 2005 made between the issuer and Computershare relating to the HSBC Holdings Employee Benefit Trust 2005; and
10. "contribution plan" means a plan under which a participating eligible employee may save money by regular deductions from wages or salary (including through salary sacrifice arrangements) towards paying for shares offered for issue or sale or to be issued or transferred under the HSBC Share Plan where the terms and conditions of the contribution plan include terms and conditions to the effect that:
 - (a) all deductions from wages or salary made in connection with participation in the contribution plan must be authorised by the eligible employee on the same form of application, which is used in respect of the offer or the shares to be issued or transferred, or on a form, which is included in or accompanies the offer document;

- (b) before transferring contributions to acquire shares, any contributions made by an eligible employee as part of the contribution plan must be held by the issuer in trust for the eligible employee in an account of an Australian ADI which is established and kept by the issuer only for the purpose of depositing contribution moneys and other money paid by eligible employees for the shares on offer or the shares to be issued or transferred under the HSBC Share Plan; and
- (c) the eligible employee may elect to discontinue their participation in the contribution plan at any time and as soon as practicable after that election is made all money deposited with the Australian ADI in relation to that eligible employee, including any accumulated interest, must be repaid to that eligible employee;

- 11. "current market price" means in relation to a share, the price published by the operator of the principal financial market on which the share is quoted as the final price for the previous day on which the share was traded on that financial market;
- 12. "eligible employee" means, in relation to an issuer, a person who is at the time of an offer under the HSBC Share Plan, a full or part-time employee or director of the issuer or of an associated body corporate of the issuer;
- 13. "eligible offer" means an offer for issue or sale of:
 - (a) fully-paid shares in an issuer in the same class as shares which have been quoted on an approved foreign market throughout the 12 month period immediately before the offer without suspension for more than a total of 2 trading days during that period; or
 - (b) units of fully-paid shares referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (c) options for the issue or transfer of shares referred to in paragraph (a) where each of the options is offered for no more than nominal consideration; or
 - (c) rights for the issue or transfer of shares referred to in paragraph (a) where no monetary consideration is paid for those rights, made under the HSBC Share Plan, where any offer to a person in Australia under the HSBC Share Plan extended only to eligible employees of the issuer;

- 14. "financial product advice" has the meaning given by section 766B;
- 15. "general advice" has the meaning given by section 766B;
- 16. "HSBC Share Plan" means the HSBC Share Plan as governed by the rules and the trust deeds;
