from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a custodial or depositary service.

custodian offer means an offer to a registered holder to the extent that it is of the kind referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of purchase plan.

excluded order means ASIC Class Orders [CO 98/100], [CO 98/101], [CO 98/104], [CO 98/1418], [CO 98/2395], [CO 99/90], [CO 00/2449], [CO 05/642], [CO 05/644] and [CO 06/441].

- (a) an offer is made to each registered holder of shares in the class on a date determined by the issuer, and whose address (as recorded in the register of members) is in a place in which, in the reasonable opinion of the issuer, it is lawful and practical for the issuer to offer and issue shares to that person;

09-00806

- (b) an offer may enable a registered holder who is a custodian to acquire shares on behalf of a person (the beneficiary) on whose behalf the custodian is holding shares in the class;
- (c) each offer is made on:
 - (i) the same terms and conditions:
 - (A) to the extent it is an offer to a registered holder to acquire shares on their own behalf; and
 - (B) to the extent (if any) it is an offer to a registered holder to acquire shares as a custodian on behalf of a beneficiary; and
 - (ii) a non-renounceable basis;
- (d) if offers of the kind referred to in subsubparagraph (c)(i)(B) are made—the terms and conditions on which a registered holder may acquire shares on their own behalf or as a custodian on behalf of a beneficiary are as nearly as practicable the same;
- (e) the issue price is less than the market price during a specified period in the 30 days before either the date of the offer or the date of the issue; and
- (f) the total application price for the shares acquired by a person on their own behalf and by a custodian on behalf of the person in any 12 month period does not exceed $15,000.

registered holder means a person recorded in the register of members of a body as a member of the body.

- (b) if 2 or more persons are recorded in the register of members as jointly holding shares in the body they are taken to be a single registered holder and a certification given by any of them for the purposes of paragraph 5 is taken to be a certification given by all of them.

- (d) references to an issuer offering shares include the issuer inviting applications for the issue of the shares.

09-00806

- (e) a notice is defective if the notice:
 - (i) does not comply with sub-subsubparagraph 4(f)(ii)(D); or
 - (ii) is false in a material particular; or
 - (iii) has omitted from it a matter or thing the omission of which renders the notice misleading in a material respect.
- (f) an arrangement covered by ASIC Class Orders [CO 02/831] or [CO 02/832] is taken to be similar to a purchase plan.
- (g) an arrangement is not to be taken not to be similar to a purchase plan merely because:
 - (i) only one of them involves custodian offers; or
 - (ii) they involve different maximum levels of applications by registered holders.
- (h) if:
 - (i) the purchase plan involves custodian offers; and
 - (ii) shares in the class are held through an IDPS by a custodian; and

CORPORATIONS ACT
SECTION 657A
DECLARATION OF UNACCEPTABLE CIRCUMSTANCES

MULTIPLEX PRIME PROPERTY FUND 01 AND 02

CIRCUMSTANCES

1. Multiplex is a listed managed investment scheme (ASX Code: MAFCA). Brookfield is the responsible entity for Multiplex. Units in the fund are partly paid with the second instalment due in June 2011.
2. Australian Style announced an on-market takeover offer for all the partly-paid units in Multiplex at $0.003. The offer period was scheduled to commence on 18 September 2009 (as a result of an interim order by the Panel the offer period did not commence). Australian Style proposed acquiring units on market prior to the offer period commencing.
3. According to the bidder's statement dated 3 September 2009, as proposed to be amended by a replacement bidder's statement, Australian Style:
 - (a) "is offering to acquire all of your Securities (including any Securities that come into existence during the Offer Period)"
 - (b) proposes to replace Multiplex's responsible entity, if it acquires less than all the units and cannot proceed to compulsory acquisition, with a responsible entity who would "pursue a recapitalization or refinancing proposal that is more favorable to Unit Holders than the Entitlement Offer or, if that is not possible, to wind up [Multiplex]"
 - (c) "intends to pay the final instalment on the [units] which it holds on the currently scheduled due date in June 2011 unless all Unit Holders are relieved of that obligation"
 - (d) if earlier payment of the final instalment is necessary, would seek a winding up of Multiplex or replacement of the responsible entity instead of paying the call or
 - (e) if that did not occur, would intend to pay the call but "there are some conceivable circumstances (depending on the conjunction of timing, values, decisions taken by 3rd parties, market circumstances and the financial fortunes of [Australian Style])" in which it may be unable to pay the call on all its units.
4. Australian Style has requisitioned a meeting of unit holders to consider:
 - (a) replacement of Brookfield as the responsible entity and
 - (b) winding up of Multiplex

09 - 0808

5. Australian Style has flagged an intention to rely on a right under section 652C to withdraw unaccepted offers (if its voting power is below 50%) in the event of a resolution to wind up Multiplex. Its ability to rely on the section is not certain. Moreover, Australian Style itself is proposing the resolution; and, if it were to acquire units under the bid, its ability to determine the outcome of that resolution, and hence its ability to withdraw, increases.
6. Multiplex is in breach of its "loan to value" ratio with its financiers. Brookfield has announced a capital raising by way of a pro-rata Entitlement Offer of 178 units for every unit held at $0.001 payable on application and a further $0.002237 payable in June 2011. The offer is underwritten by an entity in the Brookfield Multiplex Group.
7. The financiers to Multiplex have granted a waiver from their rights until 16 November 2009. Conditions attaching to the waiver mean that the waiver may be withdrawn if Australian Style succeeds in its resolutions concerning replacing the responsible entity or winding up Multiplex. This may result in the call on partly paid units being accelerated.
8. It appears to the Panel that the acquisition of control over voting units in the listed managed investment scheme will not take place in an efficient, competitive and informed market, that holders of interests do not have a reasonable time to consider the proposal or a reasonable and equal opportunity to participate in any benefits of the proposal, and that holders of interests, and the directors of the responsible entity for the scheme, are not given enough information to enable them to assess the merits of the proposal. In particular, the intention of Australian Style to rely on s652C is at odds with basic principles and policies underlying takeovers regulation as it is likely to result in the bid remaining open for less than one month.
9. In addition, there was insufficient disclosure in the bidder's statement concerning (among other things):
 - (a) the responsible entity that Australian Style proposed would replace Brookfield, should it succeed in its proposed resolution to replace Brookfield as the responsible entity
 - (b) the reasonable basis on which Australian Style could fund the acquisition of units issued under the Entitlement Offer announced by Brookfield prior to the offer (and Australian Style's statement in its submissions is that it cannot fund it)
 - (c) the reasonable basis on which Australian Style could fund payment of the call on the unpaid units, should the call be accelerated as a result of circumstances surrounding the bid or otherwise (and Australian Style's statement in its submissions is that it cannot fund it)
 - (d) Australian Style's intentions should it not succeed in its objectives
10. In addition, disclosures, particularly in respect of the treatment of units issued during the bid and Australian Style's intentions, appear to be inconsistent and therefore likely to be confusing to unit holders.
11. It appears to the Panel that the circumstances are unacceptable having regard to:

09 - 0808

- (a) the effect that the Panel is satisfied the circumstances have had, are having, will have or are likely to have on:
 - (i) the control, or potential control, of Multiplex or
 - (ii) the acquisition, or proposed acquisition, by a person of a substantial interest in Multiplex and
 - (b) the purposes of Chapter 6 set out in section 602 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Act).
12. The Panel considers that it is not against the public interest to make a declaration of unacceptable circumstances. It has had regard to the matters in section 657A(3).

DECLARATION

The Panel declares that the circumstances constitute unacceptable circumstances in relation to the affairs of Multiplex.

CORPORATIONS ACT
SECTION 657EA
DECLARATION OF UNACCEPTABLE CIRCUMSTANCES

BOWEN ENERGY LIMITED 02RCIRCUMSTANCES

1. On 25 February 2008, Bowen Energy Limited (Bowen) announced that it had signed two joint ventures with Bhushan Steel Limited (Bhushan).
2. In exchange for funding exploration costs and feasibility and commissioning costs in relation to the following of Bowen's coal tenements, the joint ventures gave Bhushan an interest of:
 - (a) 85% of EPC 1045 and 1206 and
 - (b) 90% of EPC 1001 and 1002.
3. On 12 September 2008, Bowen announced that it had signed a subscription agreement at 32 cents per share with Bhushan Steel (Australia) Pty Limited (Bhushan Aust) subject to shareholder approval. The notice of meeting attached an independent expert's report from WHK Horwath Corporate Finance (Horwath) dated 6 November 2008, which included an "Independent Valuation of the Coal Tenements held by Bowen Energy Limited" dated 10 October 2008 from Minnelex Pty Ltd (Minnelex). Horwath valued Bowen's shares at between 22.46 and 27.55 cents per share.
4. The subscription agreement was cancelled after consideration of it was deferred at Bowen's annual general meeting. Bhushan agreed to provide the required funding under the two joint venture agreements and a loan facility for working capital and exploration on non-joint venture tenements.
5. On or about 24 March 2009, Minnelex advised Horwath that it had made errors in the valuation of Bowen's coal projects for the 2008 report. Horwath advised Bowen.
6. On 31 March 2009, Bowen announced the events in paragraph 4 and that "certain calculations made in the expert's report sent to shareholders were incorrect". The announcement attached a letter from Horwath dated 31 March 2009, which disclosed a revised conclusion on the value of Bowen's shares at 8.13 to 11.37 cents per share. It also stated: "A full supplementary statement has been provided to the Directors of the Company for their records to be made available to Bowen Energy shareholders, ASIC or ASX as so required." The supplementary statement was not disclosed.
7. On 10 July 2009, Bhushan Aust announced a market offer for all Bowen shares it did not own at 14 cents per share. It had a relevant interest in 22.23% of Bowen shares.

09 - 0829

8. On 24 July 2009, Bowen issued a target's statement attaching an independent expert's report by Horwath. The report included a "Revised Independent Valuation of the Coal Tenements held by Bowen" dated 23 July 2009 from Minnelex. The report valued Bowen's shares at 3.53 to 5.51 cents per share.
9. The Bhushan Aust bid ended on 26 August 2009. Bhushan Aust disclosed in a substantial holder notice dated 17 August 2009 that it had voting power in 58.81% of Bowen.
10. There are material deficiencies in Minnelex's 23 July 2009 report regarding some of the values found, some of the logic involved and compliance with ASIC Regulatory Guide 111 and the VALMIN Code.
11. As a result of the deficiencies in Minnelex's 23 July 2009 report (and hence the expert's report) and information deficiencies, the acquisition of control over Bowen shares has not taken place in an efficient, competitive and informed market and shareholders in Bowen were not given enough information to enable them to assess the merits of the Bhushan Aust bid.
12. It appears to the review Panel that the circumstances are unacceptable having regard to:
 - (a) the effect that the review Panel is satisfied the circumstances have had on:
 - (i) the control, or potential control, of Bowen or
 - (ii) the acquisition, or proposed acquisition, by a person of a substantial interest in Bowen and
 - (b) the purposes of Chapter 6 set out in section 602.
13. The review Panel considers that it is not against the public interest to make a declaration of unacceptable circumstances. It has had regard to the matters in section 657A(3).

DECLARATION

The review Panel declares that the circumstances constitute unacceptable circumstances in relation to the affairs of Bowen.
