Australian Securities and Investments Commission
Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraphs 741(1)(b) and 1020F(1)(c) – Declarations

Under paragraphs 741(1)(b) and 1020F(1)(c) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Act) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) declares that Chapter 6D and Part 7.9 of the Act applies to the persons specified in Schedule A in the case referred to in Schedule B as if section 9A were varied or modified as follows:

1. omit section 9A and substitute:

“9A(1) A rights issue is an offer of a body's securities for issue in respect of which the following conditions are met:

(a) the securities being offered for issue are in a particular class;

(b) either:

(i) the offer is made to every person who holds eligible securities in that class to issue them, or their assignee, with the percentage of the securities to be issued that is the same as the percentage of the eligible securities in that class that they hold before the offer; or

(ii) if the conditions in subsection (3) are met — such an offer is made to:

(A) every person with a registered address in Australia or New Zealand; and

(B) every other person (if any) with a registered address outside Australia and New Zealand to whom the body decides to make offers,

who holds eligible securities in that class;

(c) the terms of each offer are the same.

Note: Paragraph (b) covers offers made to persons because they hold securities in the relevant class. It does not cover offers made to persons in some other capacity, for example, because they hold securities which are convertible into securities in the relevant class. Accordingly, these other offers do not affect whether the conditions in paragraph (b) or (c) are met.

- (2) A rights issue is an offer of interests in a managed investment scheme for issue in respect of which the following conditions are met:

(a) the interests being offered for issue are in a particular class;

09-00594

- (b) either:
- (i) the offer is made to every person who holds eligible interests in that class to issue them, or their assignee, with the percentage of the interests to be issued that is the same as the percentage of the eligible interests in that class that they hold before the offer; or
 - (ii) if the conditions in subsection (3) are met — such an offer is made to:
 - (A) every person with a registered address in Australia or New Zealand; and
 - (B) every other person (if any) with a registered address outside Australia and New Zealand to whom the responsible entity decides to make offers,who holds eligible interests in that class;
- (c) the terms of each offer are the same.

Note: Paragraph (b) covers offers made to persons because they hold interests in the relevant class. It does not cover offers made to persons in some other capacity, for example, because they hold financial products which are convertible into interests in the relevant class. Accordingly, these other offers do not affect whether the conditions in paragraph (b) or (c) are met.

- (3) The conditions in this subsection are met if:
- (a) the body or responsible entity (as the case requires) decides that it is unreasonable to offer securities or interests (as the case requires) for issue to persons (the non-residents) with a registered address in a place outside Australia or New Zealand, after taking into account the following matters:
 - (i) the number of non-residents, in that place, to whom offers would otherwise be made;
 - (ii) the number and value of the securities or interests that would otherwise be offered for issue;
 - (iii) the cost of complying with the laws, and any requirements of any regulatory authority, of the place where the securities or interests would otherwise be offered for issue; and
 - (b) the body or responsible entity:

09-00594

- (i) sends details of the offer to each non-resident in that place; and
 - (ii) ~~advises each non-resident in that place that the non-resident will not be offered the securities or interests; and~~
- (c) if the invitation to apply for, or the right to be issued with, the securities or interests is able to be assigned — the body or responsible entity:
- (i) advises each non-resident in that place that a process will be conducted under which the securities or interests that would otherwise have been offered to the non-resident, or the invitations to apply for or rights to be issued with the securities or interests, will be offered for issue or sale to other persons; and
 - (ii) advises each non-resident of the main features of the process; and
 - (iii) advises each non-resident that they will be sent any net proceeds to which they are entitled from the issue or sale of the securities, interests, invitations or rights under the process.

Note: Paragraph (c) has no application where the invitation to apply for, or the right to be issued with, the securities or interests is not able to be assigned. In such a case, there is no failure to meet the conditions in this subsection merely because the body or responsible entity decides to conduct a process of the kind described in that paragraph, whether in whole or in part.

- (4) For the purpose of determining whether an offer of a body's securities or an offer of interests in a managed investment scheme (as the case requires) satisfies the conditions in subsection (1) or (2), disregard the following matters:
- (a) some or all persons who are offered securities or interests as an exempt investor may:
 - (i) receive the offer before other persons to whom offers are made; or
 - (ii) be given a period of time to accept the offer which is less than the period of time given to other persons to whom offers are made;
 - (b) the securities or interests may be issued to a person as an exempt investor before securities or interests are issued to other persons under the offer, provided that any such issue to an exempt investor occurs no earlier than 2 months before the issue of securities or interests to other persons who are not exempt investors;

- (c) in relation to any securities or interests offered to but not accepted by some or all of the persons to whom the offers were first made:
 - (i) processes are conducted at different times under which the securities or interests, or the invitations to apply for or rights to be issued with those securities or interests, are offered for issue or sale to exempt investors; and
 - (ii) payments are made at different times of any net proceeds of issues or sales under those processes to the persons to whom the securities, interests, invitations or rights were first offered;
- (d) an offer made in the circumstance referred to in paragraph 708AA(13)(a) or 1012DAA(13)(a);
- (e) the rounding up or down of the number of securities or interests offered to a person to a whole number.

(5) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) exempt investor means a person:
 - (i) offered securities in circumstances that do not need disclosure under Part 6D.2 because of subsections 708(8) to (12); or
 - (ii) offered interests as a wholesale client (as defined in section 761G);
