Corporations Law — Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) — Declaration

Pursuant to paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act (the "Act"), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to Macquarie Goodman Funds Management Limited ACN 067 796 641 ("MGFML"), in its capacity as the responsible entity of Macquarie Goodman Thomas Trust ARSN 088 750 627 (the "Trust"), in relation to the matter specified in the Schedule as if:

- (a) the definition of "extraordinary resolution" in relation to a registered scheme were modified or varied by it being replaced by the following:
"means a resolution by the signing of a document by members who hold at least 50 % of the value of the interests of the scheme containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document."; and
- (b) the definition of "special resolution" in relation to a registered scheme were modified or varied by it being replaced by the following:
"means a resolution by the signing of a document by members who hold at least 75% of the value of the interests of the scheme containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document."; and
- (c) subsection 601FL(1) is modified or varied so it reads as follows:
"If the responsible entity of a registered scheme wants to retire then it must give written notice to members of its reasons for wanting to retire and that the members may pass an extraordinary resolution to choose a company to be the new responsible entity."; and
- (d) subsection 601FL(3) is modified or varied by adding, "within 14 days of the notice being sent under subsection 601FL(1)" after "entity" first appearing.

SCHEDULE

A resolution of members of a managed investment scheme where all the members are not entitled to vote only because of section 253E of the Act to the effect that:

- (a) MGFML wants to retire and be replaced by Macquarie Goodman Wholesale Limited ACN 113 249 595 as the responsible entity of the Trust; and
- (b) the constitution of the Trust is to be modified in accordance with the Supplemental Deed annexed to a Minute of Resolution of the members to be dated no later than 30 September 2005.

Corporations Act 2001 – Paragraph 601QA(1)(b) – Declaration

Under paragraph 601QA(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission declares that Chapter 5C of the Act applies to the person referred to in the Schedule until 31 December 2005 as if section 601GA was modified or varied by:

1. in subsection (1), omitting "The" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9), the";
2. in subsection (4), omitting "If" and substituting "Subject to subsections (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9), if";
3. adding after subsection 601GA(4):
 - " (5) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for transaction costs associated with the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal from the scheme where the responsible entity discloses the basis on which those costs are calculated:
 - (a) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
 - (b) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.
 - (6) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme or the proceeds payable upon a withdrawal from the scheme to the extent that it depends on determining the value of an asset that is scheme property or the amount of a liability that may be satisfied from scheme property where the responsible entity:
 - (a) reasonably believes that the value or amount cannot be objectively ascertained at the relevant time; and
 - (b) discloses a general description of the valuation methods and policies it will apply in determining the value or amount:
 - (i) in each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision; or
 - (ii) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, in each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision.
 - (7) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for any application fee that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme provided that:

05 / 0926

- (a) the constitution states the maximum amount of application fees that will be charged to acquire an interest in the scheme;
 - (b) each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of application fees that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme; and
 - (c) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of application fees that must be paid to acquire an interest in the scheme.
- (8) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for any switching fee that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme and apply the withdrawal proceeds to acquire an interest in another scheme operated by the responsible entity provided that:
- (a) the constitution states the maximum amount of switching fees that will be charged to withdraw an interest from the scheme and apply the withdrawal proceeds to acquire an interest in another scheme operated by the responsible entity;
 - (b) each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of switching fees that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme and apply the withdrawal proceeds to acquire an interest in another scheme operated by the responsible entity; and
 - (c) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of switching fees that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme and apply the withdrawal proceeds to acquire an interest in another scheme operated by the responsible entity.
- (9) The constitution does not have to make adequate provision for any withdrawal fee that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme provided that:
- (a) the constitution states the maximum amount of withdrawal fees that will be charged to withdraw an interest from the scheme;
 - (b) each Product Disclosure Statement for interests in the scheme that is given to a person as a retail client while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of withdrawal fees that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme; and

- (c) where a Product Disclosure Statement is not required to be given, each information memorandum for interests in the scheme that is given to a person while the constitution does not make such provision states the actual amount of withdrawal fees that must be paid to withdraw an interest from the scheme.

(10) In this section:

application fee means the fee (if any) that must be paid to the responsible entity to acquire an interest in the scheme, which is determined by the responsible entity and does not exceed 5% of the consideration to acquire an interest in the scheme;

information memorandum means a document provided to wholesale clients, as defined in section 761G, in connection with the offer to issue, offer to arrange for the issue or the issue of interests in the scheme;

net value of scheme property per interest means the total value of scheme property, minus the liabilities of the scheme, divided by the number of interests in the scheme;

switching fee means the fee (if any) that must be paid to the responsible entity to withdraw an interest from the scheme and apply the withdrawal proceeds to acquire an interest in another scheme operated by the responsible entity, which is determined by the responsible entity and does not exceed 5% of the net value of scheme property per interest;

transaction costs means, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in the scheme or a withdrawal request, the amount that is included in the price at which the interest is acquired or has been deducted from the amount that would otherwise be paid in meeting the request that is reasonably attributable to the expenses associated with the acquisition or disposal of scheme assets merely because the interest has been acquired or the withdrawal request is met;

withdrawal fee means the fee (if any) that must be paid to the responsible entity if an interest is withdrawn from the scheme, which is determined by the responsible entity and does not exceed 5% of the withdrawal proceeds; and withdrawal proceeds means the amount payable to a member upon a withdrawal from the scheme, determined by the responsible entity in accordance with subsections (5) and (6)."

Under paragraph 601QA(1)(a) of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) exempts the person specified in Schedule A from subsection 601FC(4) of the Act in the case set out in Schedule B and on the condition set out in Schedule C.

Schedule A

Macquarie Investment Management Limited ACN 002 867 003 (the Responsible Entity) as the responsible entity of Macquarie Global Property Securities Fund (Unhedged) ARSN 114 306 848 (the Scheme)

Schedule B

The investment of scheme property or the keeping of scheme property of the Scheme invested in a managed investment scheme (the REIT) that:

- (i) is not registered under Chapter 5C of the Act; and
- (ii) is operated by a body that is incorporated or formed in the United States of America (USA) or a State of the USA; and
- (iii) has qualified by election as a real estate investment trust as referred to in section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 of the USA (the Code) or any provision that replaces that section and the responsible entity reasonably believes that such election has not been terminated or revoked under subsection 856(g) of the Code; and
- (iv) has issued interests that are registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of the USA, and is an issuer that is required by that legislation to file annual and other periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the USA (the SEC); and
- (v) is subject to the enforcement and other powers of the SEC of the USA under the Securities Act of 1933, Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 of the USA; and where the interests in the REIT are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation National Market or the NASDAQ Stock Market of the USA.

Schedule C

05 / 0927

The Responsible Entity must at reasonable intervals make such enquiries as are reasonably necessary to confirm that the election of the REIT referred to in paragraph (iii) of Schedule B has not been terminated or revoked as referred to in that paragraph.
