

ASIC's Values

Our values – accountability, professionalism and teamwork – underpin everything we do.

They guide the way we work, the way we make decisions and how we interact with each other, our stakeholders, the people we regulate and the public.

Our values play an essential role in meeting our strategic priorities, Code of Conduct and Service Charter.

Accountability

We demonstrate accountability by:

- delivering outstanding results
- finding better ways to do things
- showing personal drive and resilience, even when it is challenging.

Professionalism

We demonstrate professionalism by:

- always being honest and fair in our dealings with others
- valuing and treating everyone with respect
- working in the best interests of ASIC.

Teamwork

We demonstrate teamwork by:

- building good working relationships across ASIC
- always considering the views of colleagues
- letting people know when they have done a good job.
