- (g) that a copy of the written offer document was given to each participating beneficiary;
- (h) where subsubparagraph (a)(ii) applies—the name and address of each custodian who holds beneficial interests in the shares in the class held by the custodian in relation to each participating beneficiary.

In providing a certificate under this paragraph, the custodian may rely on information provided to it by the participating beneficiary and any custodian who holds beneficial interests in the shares in the class held by the custodian.

7. The issuer must not issue shares under the purchase plan unless the issuer is reasonably satisfied that the total of the application price for the following will not exceed $15,000 in relation to any person as a result of issuing the shares:

8. If:

- (a) a notice given under subsubparagraph 4(f)(ii) is defective; and
- (b) the issuer becomes aware of the defect in the notice within 12 months after the shares are issued under the offer, the issuer must, within a reasonable time after becoming aware of the defect, give ASX a notice that sets out the information necessary to correct the defect.

Note: In IDPS-like schemes, superannuation master trusts and self-managed superannuation funds, the responsible entity or trustee may hold trust property on behalf of members as a whole rather than on behalf of a specific member even if the property was acquired on the instructions of that member.

- (e) a notice is defective if the notice:
  - (i) does not comply with sub-subsubparagraph 4(f)(ii)(D); or

  - (ia) where both the arrangement and the purchase plan involve custodian offers—only one of them involves offers to a custodian to acquire shares in the class where another custodian holds beneficial interests in the shares on behalf of another person; or
  - (ii) they involve different maximum levels of applications by registered holders.
