Information Sheet 30: Fees for commonly lodged documents

This information sheet summarises the statutory fees payable for the most commonly lodged documents. It also advises the lodgement periods, if applicable. Fees are also shown on the guide that accompanies printed forms.

Fees are determined by:

- the Corporations (Fees) Regulations 2001;
- the Corporations (Review Fees) Regulations 2003; 579
- the National Consumer Credit Protection (Fees) Regulations 2010;
- the Business Names Registration (Fees) Regulations 2022; and
- the Superannuation Auditor Registration Imposition Regulation 2022.

These fees are not subject to GST.

Some forms can be lodged electronically – see our forms web page for details.

Important notice

Please note that this is a summary giving you the basic information you need. It does not cover the whole of the relevant law and is not a substitute for professional advice.

Please note also that because this information sheet avoids legal language wherever possible there may be some generalisations about the application of the law. Some provisions of the law referred to have exceptions or important qualifications. In most cases your particular circumstances need to be taken into account when determining how the law applies to you.

- * A special purpose company is defined in Regulation 3 of the Corporations (Review Fees) Regulations 2003 as:
- (a) a company holding a licence that is continued in force by section 151 of the Act and allows the company to omit 'Limited' from its name; or
 - (b) in the case of a company limited by guarantee, or by both shares and guarantee, that was registered immediately before the commencement of this paragraph – if the constitution of the company states that the company:
 - (i) is formed for the purpose of providing recreation or amusement or promoting commerce, industry, art, science, religion, charity, patriotism, pension or superannuation schemes or any other object useful to the community; and
 - (ii) applies its profits (if any) or other income in promoting its purpose; and
 - (iii) prohibits the distribution of its income or property to its members; or
 - (c) a company that, under subsection 150(1) of the Act, is registered without 'Limited' in its name; or

- (d) a company the constitution of which:
 - (i) requires the company to pursue charitable purposes only and to apply its income in promoting those purposes; and
 - (ii) prohibits the company making distributions to its members and paying fees to its directors; and
 - (iii) requires its directors to approve all other payments the company makes to them; or
- (e) a proprietary company, if:
 - (i) the company is the proprietor of land on which a building divided into separate residential areas and areas for common use is erected; and
 - (ii) the members of the company are entitled, because of the shares they hold in the company, to the exclusive occupation of 1 or more of the residential areas and to the use of the common areas; and
 - (iii) the company only operates to facilitate and enforce the rights of company members in relation to the exclusive occupation of the residential areas and to maintain the common areas; or
- (f) a company, other than a company mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), if:
 - (i) the constitution of the company prohibits distribution of the company's income or property to its members; and
 - (ii) the sole purpose of the company is to act as the trustee of a regulated superannuation fund within the meaning of section 19 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.
