

I wholly support the proposal to publish additional data on complaints and incidents. I would use this as part of my decision making in which firm to be a customer of.

I support this disclosure being on the most granular detail available.

There are no appropriate reasons to not provide this information to the public.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide feedback.