Wait, there's more....

And thirdly, the flawed pro forma published by the Commission in March 2006 should be reviewed and corrected as part of the same 'consultation process'.

Scott Clayton.

Two things.

Firstly, it would be helpful if the Commission clarified whether the proposed "...minor amendments..." are solely limited to ensuring "...the instrument is up-to-date and in line with ASIC's current drafting style...", and that no other amendments of any substance are proposed.

Secondly, the 'Background' should be corrected to record that the maximum age of a 'Certificate' has long been extended from 6 Months to Two Years [see CR 6D.5.02 and CR 7.6.02AF].
