The screenshot shows the ASIC Connect website. The header includes the ASIC logo, the word 'Connect', and a search bar for registers. The main content area is titled 'Information about business names and SMSF auditors'. A red box with the number '1' highlights the 'Getting started with ASIC Connect' section. This section contains text about the service, a link to search registers, and instructions on how to sign up and use the service. Below this are sections for 'ASIC Connect for business names' and 'ASIC Connect for SMSF auditors', each with links to learn more. At the bottom, a red box with the number '2' highlights the 'Sign Up' button, next to a 'Log in' button and a 'Back' button.

1 Getting started with ASIC Connect

ASIC Connect is our online service for registering and updating registry details with ASIC. In most cases, you will receive on the spot confirmation that your registration is complete or that your transaction has been received.

Currently, business name and SMSF auditor transactions are available through ASIC Connect, and this will expand over time.

You can also use ASIC Connect to search our registers. Search our registers now.

To use ASIC Connect, you will need to sign up and create an account.

After you sign up, you can link a business name or SMSF auditor registration to your ASIC Connect account using the ASIC key. This is a unique 11 digit number, similar to the PIN for your bank account.
