

Notification to use the Enhanced Regulatory Sandbox exemption to test eligible financial services

You must answer all questions and attach all requested documents. ASIC will decide your notification to use the Enhanced Regulatory Sandbox exemption based on the information you have provided – we will reject notifications that do not include all required information and attachments. ASIC encourages you to seek informal assistance from the Innovation Hub prior to making an Enhanced Regulatory Sandbox (ERS) notification to ASIC. We can help you determine if you are eligible for the ERS and provide you with tips on completing the notification form with sufficient information to enable ASIC to make an assessment of your notification. Contact us at innovationhub@asic.gov.au.

If there is insufficient space in any section of the form, you may photocopy the relevant page(s) and submit as part of this lodgement.

3 Proposed financial service... Continued

3.1.4 Do you intend to start testing on the 31st day after lodgement of this notification?

Yes No

If no, what date do you intend to start testing?

[D] [D] [M] [M] [Y] [Y]

Note: If ASIC does not communicate with you that you are not able to make use of the ERS exemption, you may start your business testing on the 31st day after the lodgement of this notification.

3.1.5 What is your intended duration of testing under this exemption?

Note: Maximum permitted duration is 24 months from the 31st day after the lodgement of this notification.

3.1.6 Explain what kinds or cohorts of consumers will your proposed financial service be directed towards and why:

Note: Where you can, answer this question with greater detail than reference to kinds or cohorts of consumers that are retail or wholesale clients.

3.1.7 For applicants that are currently licensed or within a licensee group, explain whether your financial services will be directed to existing clients or new clients and why?

4 Net public benefit test

- 4.1 For the financial services described in Part 3, provide a justification of why exempting your proposed financial services will result, or be likely to result, in a benefit to the public that will outweigh the detriment to the public that will result, or be likely to result, from exempting your proposed financial services from the AFS licensing requirements:

In support of this justification, we require you to answer the following questions (you may cross refer to any part of your answer to 4.1 without repeating content if this applicable):

- 4.1.1 Explain whether your proposed financial service addresses a current problem for consumers or the Australian market and if so what problem and how is it addressed?

- 4.1.2 Explain whether, and how, your proposed financial service:

- (a) increases Australian consumer choice
- (b) reduces cost
- (c) provides better user experience, or
- (d) provides enhanced efficiency.

- 4.1.3 Identify the main risks that your proposed financial service poses to Australian clients or consumers and explain how each of those risks will be managed and controlled:

- 4.1.4 If you propose financial services to wholesale clients, what processes do you have to correctly identify whether a client is wholesale?

- 4.1.5 Explain how you will manage risks to existing clients (arising from the financial services that are tested) if the at the end of the exemption you had not obtained an AFS licence or authorisation

5 Innovation test

- 5.1 For the financial services described in Part 3, provide a justification of why your proposed financial services
(a) are new; or
(b) are a new adaptation, or a new improvement, of another financial service or financial services;

In support of this justification, we require you to answer the following questions (you may cross refer to any part of your answer to 5.1 without repeating content if this applicable):

- 5.1.1 Explain whether, and why, you consider your proposed financial services are new or a different service compared to what is available in the Australian market?

- 5.1.2 Describe what comparable financial services to your proposed financial services do you consider are already available in the Australian market (if any)?

6 Fit and proper person requirements

Refer to the Guide to this Form for references to the definition of 'officers' and 'controllers'.

The applicant is required to provide information to ASIC so it can consider whether it, and any of the following people are fit and proper to perform one or more of their functions:

- any officers of a body corporate applicant

Refer to the Guide to this Form for references to information on how to obtain a national criminal history check and bankruptcy check.

7 External dispute resolution

- 7.1 You are required to be a member of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) for the purposes of dealing with complaints against you made by retail clients in connection with the provision of the financial services under the exemption. In relation to this:
- 7.1.1 Attach a current certificate of membership from AFCA evidencing your membership. Confirm if this is attached:
 Yes No

8 Compensation arrangements (ordinarily professional indemnity insurance)

Refer to the Guide to this Form for references to information on compensation arrangements.

- 8.1 You are required to establish and maintain compensation arrangements that:
(a) include holding adequate professional indemnity (PI) insurance; or
(b) are approved by ASIC in writing as adequate, for the purpose of compensating your retail clients for loss or damage suffered because of breaches of the law, or of the conditions of this exemption, by you or your representatives.
- 8.1.1 Do you plan to meet the compensation requirements by holding PI insurance?
 Yes No
Note: We consider that, to be adequate, a PI insurance policy must have a limit of at least $1 million cover for any one claim and in the aggregate.
- 8.1.1.1 If Yes, attach a PI Insurance Certificate of Currency. Confirm if Certificate is attached:
 Yes No
- 8.1.1.2 If No, do you have a process in place to ensure you will have PI insurance in place if your notification is approved?
 Yes No
- 8.1.2 If you are meeting the compensation arrangement requirements through an ASIC approved alternate arrangement - Attach the ASIC approval. Confirm if this is attached:
 Yes No
- 8.2 You are also required to maintain adequate compensation arrangements for 12 months after you cease testing.
- 8.2.1 If you intend to meet this requirement by obtaining PI run-off cover, describe your plans to obtain PI Run-off Cover for a period of 12 months after your testing under this exemption ends.
- | |
- 8.2.2 If your plans do not involve obtaining PI run-off cover, describe what are your plans to comply with this requirement?

Guide:

Notification to use the Enhanced Regulatory Sandbox exemption to test eligible financial services

This guide does not form part of the form. It is included by ASIC to assist you in completing and lodging the notification.

We recommend that you read Information Sheet 248 Enhanced regulatory sandbox before completing this form.

Signature

This form must be signed by the person authorised as per the table below.

Entity	Signatory
Partnership comprised of individuals	Any one of the individual partners
Partnership comprised of both individuals and companies	Any one of the individual partners or a director or secretary of one of the companies
Multiple trustees	Any one of the trustees, or where the trustee is a body, a director or secretary of the body
Company	Director or secretary
Foreign company	Director or secretary or local agent
Individual	The individual

Appendix 2 must be signed by each of the applicant's fit and proper person(s).

Lodgement period

This form must be lodged 30 days before the provider wishes to rely on the ERS licensing exemption. For example, a provider wishing to rely on an ERS exemption from 1 July, they should lodge their notification on 1 June.

Professional indemnity (PI) insurance:

It can take several weeks or longer to obtain PI insurance, so you must start organising it early. If you don't have it in place at the time you lodge your ERS notification, we will assess your notification, but you are requested to provide us with evidence of having obtained PI insurance (for example a Certificate of Currency) soon after you obtain it.

You must not operate your proposed business without PI insurance. To do so is a breach of a condition of your ERS exemption and is a basis upon which ASIC may decide to cancel your ability to rely on the ERS exemption.
