Exemption

4. ASIC exempts Raine Advisors Limited, a private limited company incorporated in England and Wales (registration number – 089 46 780 and registered with the Financial Conduct Authority with reference number: 990522, (the body), from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services (AFS) licence in the case referred to in Schedule A.

Cessation

5. The exemption in paragraph 4 ceases to have effect on the earlier of:
 - (a) sub-paragraph 7(1) of ASIC Corporations (Foreign Financial Services Providers) Instrument 2025/798 ceasing to have effect in relation to the relief that was provided under ASIC Class Order [CO 03/1099] UK regulated financial service providers; or
 - (b) the body failing to comply with any written notice given by ASIC directing the body to give to ASIC, within the time specified in the notice, a written statement containing specified information about the financial services business operated by the body in this jurisdiction; or
 - (c) the body being notified in writing by ASIC that it is excluded from relying on this instrument.

25-0925

Schedule A

1. The exemption in paragraph 4 applies where all of the following apply:
 - (a) The body holds a current Part 4A Permission;
 - (b) the body is a body corporate incorporated in the United Kingdom (UK) or a partnership formed in the UK;
 - (c) the body:
 - (i) is registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act; or
 - (ii) has an Agent at the time the body first purports to rely on this instrument and, from that time, has not failed to have an Agent for any consecutive period of 10 business days;
 - (d) the body's primary business is the provision of financial services;
 - (e) neither the body nor its Agent has been notified by ASIC that the body is excluded from relying on this instrument;
 - (f) if the body becomes aware or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedule B:
 - (i) 15 business days have not passed since the body became so aware or should reasonably have become so aware without the body providing full particulars of the failure to ASIC (to the extent that the body knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries); and
 - (ii) 30 business days have not passed from ASIC receiving those particulars from the body without ASIC notifying the body that it may continue to rely on this instrument; and
 - (g) the body has not notified ASIC that it will not rely on this instrument.
2. Where the body provides any of the following financial services (the financial services) in this jurisdiction to wholesale clients:

25-0925

- (a) providing financial product advice; or
- (b) dealing in a financial product

in respect of any of the following financial products:

3. Where the body has provided ASIC with all of the following:

- (a) evidence that paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A is satisfied, and ASIC has stated in writing is adequate;
- (b) a notice that it will provide the financial services in this jurisdiction in reliance on this instrument;
- (c) a deed of the body for the benefit of and enforceable by ASIC and the other persons referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act that applies notwithstanding that the body may have ceased to rely, or never have relied, on this instrument, which deed provides that:
 - (i) the deed is irrevocable except with the prior written consent of ASIC; and
 - (ii) the body submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts in legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in subsection 659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise; and
 - (iii) the body covenants to comply with any order of an Australian court in respect of any matter relating to the provision of the financial services; and
 - (iv) if the body is not registered under Div 2 of Pt 5B.2 of the Act, service of process on the body in relation to legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under section 50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in s659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise can be effected by service on the Agent; and

- (v) the body covenants that, on written request of either the FCA or ASIC, it will give or vary written consent and take all other practicable steps to enable and assist the FCA to disclose to ASIC and ASIC to disclose to the FCA any information or document that the FCA or ASIC has that relates to the body; and
- (d) written consents to the disclosure by the FCA to ASIC and ASIC to the FCA of any information or document that the FCA or ASIC has that relates to the body. The consents must be in such form (if any) as ASIC specifies in writing.

Schedule B

The body must:

1. provide each of the financial services in this jurisdiction in a manner which would comply, so far as is possible, with the UK regulatory requirements if the financial service were provided in UK in like circumstances; and
2. notify ASIC, as soon as practicable and in any event within 15 business days after the body became aware or should reasonably have become aware, and in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing, of the details of:
 - (a) each significant change to, including the termination of, the Part 4A Permission applying to the body relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
 - (b) each significant particular exemption or other relief which the body may obtain from the UK regulatory requirements relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
 - (c) each action or investigation of the following kinds taken by the FCA, PRA or other overseas regulatory authority against the body in a foreign jurisdiction in relation to financial services provided in the foreign jurisdiction:
 - (i) significant enforcement action;
 - (ii) significant disciplinary action;
 - (iii) significant investigation (unless, after having taken reasonable steps to enable notification to be given to ASIC, the body is prohibited by law from giving such notification but only to the extent of the prohibition); and

25-0925

3. provide written disclosure to all persons to whom the financial services are provided in this jurisdiction (before the financial services are provided) containing prominent statements to the following effect:
 - (a) the body is exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence under the Act in respect of the financial services; and
 - (b) as applicable:
 - (i) for a dual-regulated body – the body is authorised by the PRA and regulated by the FCA and PRA under UK laws, which differ from Australian laws;
 - (ii) otherwise – the body is authorised and regulated by the FCA under the UK laws, which differ from Australian laws; and
4. if ASIC gives the body a written notice directing the body to lodge with ASIC, within the time specified in the notice, a written statement containing specified information about any financial service provided by the body in this jurisdiction—comply with the notice.

 - (ii) a registered broker dealer that is an OTC derivatives dealer within the meaning of Rule 3b-12 promulgated under the Exchange Act who is affiliated within the meaning of that Rule with a registered broker dealer who is a member of FINRA; or
 - (iii) a registered investment adviser;
 - (b) the body is either:
 - (i) a body corporate incorporated in the US or a State of the US; or
 - (ii) a partnership formed in the US or a State of the US;
 - (c) the body:
 - (i) is registered under Div 2 of Pt 5B.2 of the Act; or
 - (ii) has an Agent at the time the body first purports to rely on this instrument and, from that time, has not failed to have an Agent for any consecutive period of 10 business days;
 - (d) the body's primary business is the provision of financial services;
 - (e) neither the body nor its Agent has been notified by ASIC that the body is excluded from relying on this instrument;
 - (f) if the body becomes aware or should reasonably have become aware of matters that give it reason to believe that it has failed, other than in an immaterial respect, to comply with a requirement set out in Schedule B:
 - (i) 15 business days have not passed since the body became so aware or should reasonably have become so aware without the body providing full particulars of the failure to ASIC (to the extent that the body knows those particulars or would have known them if it had undertaken reasonable enquiries); and

(ii) 30 business days have not passed from ASIC receiving those particulars from the body without ASIC notifying the body that it may continue to rely on this instrument; and

(g) the body has not notified ASIC that it will not rely on this instrument.

2. Where the body provides any of the following financial services (the financial services) in this jurisdiction to wholesale clients (and the body is authorised under US regulatory requirements to provide the financial service in the US):

- (a) providing financial product advice; and
- (b) dealing in a financial product;

in respect of any of the following financial products (and in respect of which the body is authorised under US regulatory requirements to provide financial services in the US):

- (c) securities; and
- (d) managed investment products.

3. Where the body has provided ASIC with all of the following:

- (a) evidence and submissions that paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A is satisfied;
- (b) a notice that it will provide financial services in this jurisdiction in reliance on this instrument;
- (c) a deed of the body for the benefit of and enforceable by ASIC and the other persons referred to in s659B(1) of the Act that applies notwithstanding that the body may have ceased to rely, or never have relied, on this instrument, which deed provides that:
 - (i) the deed is irrevocable except with the prior written consent of ASIC;
 - (ii) the body submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Australian courts in legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under s50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in s659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise;
 - (iii) the body covenants to comply with any order of an Australian court in respect of any matter relating to the provision of the financial services;
 - (iv) if the body is not registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2 of the Act, service of process on the body in relation to legal proceedings conducted by ASIC (including under s50 of the ASIC Act) and, in relation to proceedings relating to a financial services law, by any person referred to in s659B(1) of the Act and whether brought in the name of ASIC or the Crown or otherwise can be effected by service on the Agent; and

(v) the body covenants that, on written request of either the SEC or ASIC, it will give or vary written consent and take all other practicable steps to enable and assist the SEC to disclose to ASIC and ASIC to disclose to the SEC any information or document that the SEC or ASIC has that relates to the body; and

(d) written consents to the disclosure by the SEC to ASIC and ASIC to the SEC of any information or document that the SEC or ASIC has that relates to the body. The consents must be in such form (if any) as ASIC specifies in writing.

Schedule B

1. The body must provide each of the financial services in this jurisdiction in a manner which would comply, so far as is possible, with the US regulatory requirements if the financial service were provided in the US in like circumstances.
2. The body must:
 - (a) notify ASIC, as soon as practicable and in any event within 15 business days after the body became aware or should reasonably have become aware, and in such form if any as ASIC may from time to time specify in writing, of the details of:
 - (i) each significant change to, including the termination of, the registration as a registered broker dealer or a registered investment adviser applying to the body relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) each significant particular exemption or other relief which the body obtains from the US regulatory requirements relevant to the financial services the body provides or intends to provide in this jurisdiction; and
 - (iii) each action or investigation of the following kinds taken by the SEC or other overseas regulatory authority against the body in a foreign jurisdiction in relation to financial services provided in the foreign jurisdiction:
 - (A) significant enforcement action;
 - (B) significant disciplinary action;
 - (C) significant investigation (unless, after having taken reasonable steps to enable notification to be given to ASIC, the body is prohibited by law from giving such notification but only to the extent of the prohibition); and

26-0076

- (b) provide written disclosure to all persons to whom the financial services are provided in this jurisdiction (before the financial services are provided) containing prominent statements to the following effect:
 - (i) the body is exempt from the requirement to hold an AFS licence under the Act in respect of the financial services; and
 - (ii) the body is regulated by the SEC under US laws, which differ from Australian laws.
- (c) if ASIC gives the body a written notice directing the body to lodge with ASIC, within the time specified in the notice, a written statement containing specified information about any financial service provided by the body in this jurisdiction—comply with the notice.
