Morning § 22

I provide the following note for file.

I called § 22 of AICD at 4:30 on afternoon of Friday 9 January. I had called him following contact made by the AICD MD/CEO, § 22, to ASIC Chair, Joe Longo earlier in the day. I had left a message with § 22 earlier and had separate messages to call § 22. § 22 tried to join § 22 to the call but he was unavailable. The call was about 45 minutes long.

§ 22 noted the strong concerns from AICD of the personal information of company directors made available of ASIC registers. He noted the Treasury consultation process for reforms and confirmed they were in heightened engagement with the Treasury over options to progress as a priority informed by current security environment § 47C, s 47E(d). He advised that the AICD believed action needed to be sooner than July 2027.

Hi s 22 [redacted]

Thanks for your time just now on the phone. AICD is very happy to work with ASIC on the best options to urgently address the physical safety risks facing directors given the current security environment.

As I mentioned, we have written an article here for members on the registry upgrade project and highlighted the public availability of information issue so that members can take steps to mitigate the risks. This was shared earlier this week with other members of the ASIC team. The article is already online but will be featured in our next newsletter on 20 January which goes to around 53,000 members.

We look forward to further engagement on these issues. I am available on the number below at any time.

Kind regards
