

ASIC
Australian Securities &
Investments Commission

Moneysmart
.gov.au

Important information for First Guardian Master Fund investors

We understand that you may have invested your superannuation in the First Guardian Master Fund (First Guardian), a managed investment scheme. You may have invested in First Guardian through a superannuation platform or a self-managed super fund. The superannuation platform you made your investment in First Guardian through might have been Your Choice Super, Australian Practical Superannuation/Ausprac or Praemium Super (managed by Diversa Trustees Limited), Netwealth Superannuation (managed by Netwealth Superannuation Services Pty Ltd) or NQ Super/Freedom of Choice (managed by Equity Trustees Superannuation Limited).

First Guardian has collapsed. As an investor in First Guardian, you may have lost money.

NOTE: If you invested in First Guardian through the Netwealth Superannuation Master Fund, your initial investment should have been returned to you. You can visit the website below to learn about other compensation options that may still be available to you.

What should you do?

We want to help you understand the steps you can take to lodge a complaint and access support

Visit: takeyoursuperback.com

This website is operated by Super Consumers Australia, an independent consumer advocacy organisation that is helping people impacted by the collapse of First Guardian understand what they can do.

The Australian Securities and Investments Commission funded Super Consumers Australia to develop this website and support people who invested in First Guardian.

At takeyoursuperback.com, you'll find:

- Clear and independent guidance and resources to help you navigate your next steps
- Instructions on lodging a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), including key deadlines
- Access to support services if you're experiencing financial hardship or need someone to talk to

Take action today by visiting takeyoursuperback.com to ensure you understand your options and find help if you need it.