ASIC Annual Forum 2022: New Directions – Thank you video transcript

Joe Longo, ASIC Chair: Thank you for attending ASIC's 2022 Annual Forum.

I personally wanted to thank all the speakers, delegates and attendees for joining us in Sydney and hope that you've found the sessions as useful and informative as I have.

We remain committed to engaging with you about our regulatory priorities and we thank you for participating in a two-day dialogue about some of the issues that matter most to us.

Thank you again. I look forward to seeing you at our next Forum in 2023.
